To Enforce Judgment.

Thomas Lilly has begun an action through his attorney, J. W. Reynolds, in department No. 1, of the circuit court, against Daniel K. Brannan, to enforce a judgment for about $300 that was awarded the plaintiff against the defendant on January 14, 1902, in the circuit court for the county of Olmsted, Minnesota.

A boiler in the Snohomish, Wash., powerhouse exploded Wednesday afternoon, killing Richard Padden, an engineer, and badly scalding Adam Anderson. The brick building was totally demolished, some of the bricks flying 100 feet, while pieces of the boiler were found hundreds of yards away. Several other employes had miraculous escapes from death. Water is now being pumped into the mains by means of a fire engine.

Wet Weather Wagons

The old reliable Studebaker is assuredly one of the best Wet Weather Wagons ever sold, and no wonder the Valley farmer usually swears by the Studebaker. He may occasionally be lured into experimenting with some other make, solely on account of a small difference in the cost, but when he considers the length of life of a Studebaker and the few cents more per year that that investment means, he would be unwise to even experiment.

Studebaker black birch hubs do not check, wet or dry. Studebaker slope shouldered spokes are the best in the world; no square shoulder to wear and weaken. Studebaker sawed fellos are time tried and tested, and you always know what you are getting

Every piece of wood in a STUDEBAKER is selected stock, and if perchance anything goes wrong you are fully protected at home, for Studebaker's own Northwest repository is in Portland, and all claims are righted right here in Salem.

Studebaker Hacks

Are, as usual, selling to the people who appreciate good goods, and you will find scores of them all over the valley. TOPS for any and all of our HACKS.

ASHLAND WOMAN SUICIDES

She Drowned Herself and Leaves Five Children

Ashland, Nov. 21.—A distressing case of suicide is reported from the little hamlet of Hugo, in Josephine county. Mrs. Eveline Triplett, a widow, with five children—three sons and two daughters—whose husband was drowned accidentally in the Rogue river, some 17 years ago, committed the deed. Mrs. Triplett was missed from her home, and search last Thursday revealed her body lying in a shallow pool of water near her home. The spot where she died is ordinarily a dry stream, but the recent heavy rains had caused it to carry considerable water, although the place where the body was found the depth of water was but one foot. The unfortunate woman was alone at her home at the time, and, as no reason is known for the suicide, and as she was well known and highly esteemed, it is presumed that she was suffering from temporary insanity at the time of the drowning. A daughter of the deceased woman was recently committed to the Hospital for the Insane at Salem, and that had been worrying her considerably of late.

WILD DOGS CAPTURED

Marshfield Hunting Party Secured Two Litters

Marshfield, Nov. 21.—Two litters of wild dogs were discovered by a hunting party on Pony slough. Some of the young pups were brought to town, but the old litter and the mother, a shepherd, which is the property of Will Gamble, and escaped from a slaughter house about two years ago, could not be captured. The dogs should be killed, if it is found impossible to capture them, as a band of wild dogs are fully as destructive as wolves. They are also dangerous, as they are very liable to attack anybody crossing their path. The men who found the dogs brought several of the pups home, and are raising them.

Was a California Girl

Paris, Nov. 21.—Miss Ellen Gore, the musical student, for whose murder a Russian officer is held, it was learned today was born in San Francisco, where a maiden aunt is now living on Ellis street. Miss Gore went to Mexico when a child with her parents, both of whom subsequently died. She married a Mexican name Juan Sanchez, who beat her, and from whom she obtained a divorce and returned to San Francisco, when only 18. She then moved to Los Angeles, where she studied music, then to Chicago, and came to Paris in August last to continue her studies. She had a fine voice. Nothing of her recent moves is known. Rydzenski is still held. Evidence shows that his pistol had been taken from its case. No quarrel was heard between the young people.

NERVY FACTORY GIRLS

Save Thousands of Their Companions From Death

Fire In a Knitting Mill Causes a Panic

Cohoes, N. Y., Nov. 21.—A fire broke out in the packing room of the Victor Knitting mill, the largest concern of its kind in the world, this morning. Several thousand girls were employed in the place. The fire took them unawares, and in the rush for the exit many were trampled. They clambered to the windows, and started to jump. The presence of mind of a few girls, who fought the panic-stricken girls back, and besought order, alone saved a big death list. None were fatally injured.

HOTEL AT MEACHAM BURNED

Was the Famous Log Cabin Eating House on O. R. & N.

Pendleton, Nov. 21.—The log-cabin eating-house, belonging to the Oregon Railroad & Navigation Company, at Meacham, Umatilla county, was totally destroyed, with all its contents and outbuildings, by fire, Thursday. The loss is about $10,000. The log cabin and Mrs. Munra, its popular manager, will be greatly missed by travelers and tourists.

Top Prices For Hops

Portland, Nov. 21.—Yesterday was a critical day in the hop market. Trading was practically at a standstill, and for a time it looked as if prices would break. The market has been dull for a week, dealers have shown little interest in samples, and growers were apparently making up their minds to let go at whatever they could get. A gloomy view generally was taken of the situation up to the close of business hours. Then the day was saved by a sale being made at the top mark of the season. M. H. Durst, an extensive buyer for London account, took 600 bales from Krebs Bros., of Salem, at 26 1/2c, which is 1/2c better than any bona fide sale that has been reported this year.

WOMAN CROOK ARRESTED

Was Implicated in a Famous French Swindling Concern

Lisbon, Spain, Nov. 21.—The French woman arrested here today is believed to be Madame Humbert, who is wanted in Paris by the police. She is one of the participants in the famous Humbert-Crawford swindling episode, which netted many millions, covering some 20 years in operation, and which involved some of the oldest titled families in France.

CRUELTY OF A MOTHER

Charged With Abusing 7-Year-Old Daughter

London, Nov. 21.—Extraordinary charges of cruelty on the part of a mother to her child, recalling the Montague case, in the North of Ireland, and which created world-wide interest about 10 years ago, are now being heard at the Old Bailey. In the present case, Mrs. Annie Penruddocks, of Compton Park, Wiltshire, the wife of a magistrate and large landed proprietor, was charged with brutally assaulting and ill-treating her 7-year-old daughter. The court was filled with fashionably attired women, many of whom were leaders of the county society at Wiltshire, and close friends of the defendant. Several of the best known counsel were engaged. According to the statement of the crown prosecutor, which was corroborated by had been going on for two years, and included beating the child with net-

CARRIE NATION WILD

She Tries to Smash the New York Horse Show

New York, Nov. 21.—Mrs. Nation entered Madison Square Garden quietly last night, and took a seat in the tier. She had been there only a few minutes when her gaze rested on the box where some of the members of the Vanderbilt family were sitting. She studied her program, and then descended to the promenade. Stationing herself in front of the Vanderbilt box, she delivered a tirade on overdrive. In the box were seated Mrs. Alfred G. Vanderbilt, Reinald Vanderbilt and Miss Neilson. Alfred G. Vanderbilt was leaning against the rail of the promenade and did not see Mrs. Nation approach.

"You ought to be ashamed of your selves," the woman screamed at them. "You ought to be ashamed to wear such disgraceful clothes. Take them off, take them off and attire yourself more moderately."

Alfred G. Vanderbilt hastily left his position at the rail and came over to where Mrs. Nation was standing, and, wiping his forehead with his handkerchief, he whispered something in her ear, and pushed her away. The outburst of the woman attracted a great crowd of people, and the occupants of the Vanderbilt box were evidently very much embarrassed.

Mrs. Nation then turned her attention to other boxes. Finally she started for the cafe, where she bore down on a party of men who were drinking wine. Mrs. Nation seized a bottle, and, glaring at the men, shouted:

"Young men, don't drink such filthy stuff; you are going straight to hell. Where is the man who sells this stuff? Show him to me and I will tell him what I think of him."

Mrs. Nation's request was speedily granted by the sudden arrival of Mr. Villepique, the caterer at the garden. "Get out of this terrible business," she shouted at him. "You are also going to hell and ruining the bodies and souls of men. You are dragging them down with you. Shame on you! Shame on you!"

The Frenchman, however, ran to Mrs. Nation and rescued the bottle, which she had repeatedly brandished in the air to emphasize her remarks. Then he pushed her out of the door. Here the police took hold of the Kansas reformer and forced her out of the building.

SINCE CLOSE OF THE WAR

England Has Paid the Boers $1,000,000 Monthly

London, Nov. 21.—Secretary of Colonies Chamberlain this morning issued parliamentary papers replying to the Boers' appeal for further relief. He says that, in addition to the $15,000,000 free grant, the burghers' camp since the close of the war, have cost Great Britain $1,000,000 monthly.

CARPENTERS UNIONS AMALGAMATE

Federation of Labor Will Elect Officers Tomorrow

New Orleans, Nov. 21.—The Amalgamated Carpenters and the Brotherhood of Carpenters, after a heated debate in the convention this morning, were amalgamated, practically carrying the woodworkers' union into the amalgamation. The latter organization's charter will probably be revoked to reach the desired end. Ten o'clock tomorrow is the time fixed for the election of officers.

The Socialists came within 400 votes of securing control of the convention of the American Federation of Labor. The struggle lasted nearly all yesterday, and a number of able speeches were made on both sides, notably those of D. A. Hayes, James Duncan and President Gompers against the Socialists, and Victor Berg, Max Hayes and W. B. Wilson, of the United Mine Workers, in behalf of the resolution in their favor introduced by Delegate Berger and amended by Delegate Wilson in a manner acceptable to Berger. The debate lasted until 6 o'clock last evening, when a roll call showed 4744 votes against the amendment of Mr. Wilson and 4344 in favor of it. The miners voted solidly in favor of the amendment.
