

REPUBLICAN CAMPAIGN

Republican City Ticket

Mayor—J. A. Baker.

Recorder—S. A. McFadden.

Marshal—Albert Disque.

Treasurer—W. T. Rigdon.

Councilmen:

First Ward—H. A. Johnson.

Second Ward—Russell Catlin.

Third Ward—Thomas Sims.

Fourth Ward—W. C. Hubbard.

Can any Republican put his finger upon the name of any Republican candidate who is unworthy of support? If you can, scratch him—if you can't vote for him.

When the Republican convention four years ago put up a ticket that was unsatisfactory, the rank and file repudiated it. That was entirely proper. Now a ticket has been put up composed of the best men in the city. Show your approval on election day.

If Republicans will not approve the action of their convention in naming a ticket of such clean and competent men as are now in the field, how can they expect the convention to seek such men? The convention performed its duty well, and should receive the approval of all Republicans.

We are told that the Citizens' administration "saved" $5000 collected on the Anson bond. Of that sum $1250 was paid to a Democratic attorney and $3750 kept by the city. It is by such "figuring" as this that a total "saving" of $50,000 is claimed.

It has been asserted that the saloons and churches will vote together on election day. Well, it's up to you, Mr. Voter, to say whether that is true or not. Will the church vote stay at home, or go to the polls?

Because Rev. H. A. Ketchum, of the Presbyterian church, a respectable and law-abiding citizen, saw fit to state facts which everybody knows to be true, he was told by the citizens' managers to mind his own business. Do the people of Salem endorse such sentiments? Has not every citizen a right to be heard without being insulted? Must vice rule while virtue humbly serves? Will law-abiding people stay at home, while the vicious vote?

Men like Joe Baker, Steve McFadden, Al. Disque and W. T. Rigdon need no praise in a city, where everyone knows them to be gentlemen—true, whole-hearted and courteous gentlemen. Have you a knife out for any such men?

The city's business could not be in better hands than those of Squire Johnson, Russ Catlin, Tom Sims and Judge Hubbard. They are your candidates, Republicans—Vote for them.
