

Eligible Candidates

For Christmas Purposes.

THE BARR STORE is filled with candidates for Christmas--your Christmas and those whose Christmas you are going to help along. A necessarily scanty list of these follows, as the number of these candidates is too large for individual mention.

WATCHES, scores of them in immense variety of finish, style and price: $5.00 to $125.

RINGS a wonderful assortment, especially in those set with Diamonds and other stones.

BROOCHES, Charms, Locketts, etc, a showing of rich, new, novel styles at popular prices.

SILVERWARE, grand display of choice table pieces of every kind. Best in town.

CUT GLASS, our usual large line, with notable Christmas reinforcements.

TOILET SETS, in Ebony, hand painted Porcelain and Sterling Silver. Gloriously good, and Opera Glasses, Umbrellas, Fancy Candlesticks, Fancy Mirrors, Fountain Pens and much else of real Christmas importance.

FREE ENGRAVING ON OUR GOODS.

A GOOD DRINK.

The best in fact, is the one that cools the stomach, without doing any injury. There's nothing like fine liquor to take the sting out of cold water. The hotter the weather the more necessary the liquor as an ingredient of the beverage. For the choicest of everything on the list call on us. We please, surprise and satisfy all.

Minor Mention

—OF—

Local Import

There was a characteristic Salem crowd in town today. All the stores were running over with holiday trade. People carrying armfuls of packages to their wagons. The Granges in session, but more eager to get into the stores to do their shopping. Extra force of clerks employed in all the stores. Salem is, was and will be the live town of Western Oregon, and her merchants make it so.

The order of American Yeomen is being organized at Salem.

Governor-elect Chamberlain and Attorney-General-elect Crawford, have engaged rooms in the Cooke mansion, adjoining the capitol grounds. It is the most beautiful private residence in the city.
