DIAMOND C SOAP

PREMIUMS FOR WRAPPERS

The Best Advertising on Earth will not make a permanent success of a poor soap. Quality is what counts. We know that is the best laundry soap on the market. We have enough faith in it to spend tens of thousands of dollars a year in advertising it. This money would be worse than wasted if the soap were not what it ought to be.

SAVE DIAMOND C WRAPPERS—We redeem them for all sorts of useful and attractive articles. Illustrated book showing over 300 premiums given for wrappers, sent on request. A postal will bring it.

THE WORLD OF MILLINERY.

French Combinations of Color—Fur Hats.

The favorite color in Paris is the new beige in a rather paler shade than of yore. This is mixed with the reddish pink, which form a beautiful study in color. However, such a shade is not always becoming, and for more general wear there are delightful green and blue mixtures, with dashes of yellow, in heavier made up into large toques or small hats, the only decoration being a glaze rosette or some silk tassels.

Smart toques, too, are made of cloth to match frocks, the brim lined with some dark colored velvet. Nearly all women are wise to keep rolls of dark velvet near the face. It is infinitely more becoming in the gray autumn days, and nothing is softer than velvet. Hats of heaver, threaded through with glaze ribbon, are extremely popular.

Fur hats will be more worn this winter than ever. The principal skins used are chinchilla, mink and squirrel.

A pretty chinchilla hat trimmed with two white ostrich plumes is shown in the sketch.

FUR GARMENTS.

Fur garments are very sumptuous this year, or rather, sumptuous looking, for the most inexpensive furs are now being made into lovely garments. Women have hitherto looked with contempt upon marmot and squirrel, but these now figure in chic little boleros. Squirrel has to be treated with care and is greatly improved by the addition of some ermine edging and some good lace gimpure.

There is a perfect craze for velvet, both plain and spotted, for day and evening wear.

The rough fur coats are mostly three-quarter length for motoring and other purposes. The more sumptuous forms of carriage wraps are full length, which is a wise proceeding, as they can then be used for evening coats.

EVENING GOWN OF BLACK NET.

There is a fancy for brocade linings, but most people remain faithful to the pure white and pearl gray satins.

Furriers are adopting the full picturesque sleeves. Some fall over the wrists into a neat cuff, while the long carriage coats show fascinating ruffles of lace inside the bell sleeves.

The pretty décollete gown shown is of spotted black net over white silk. The skirt is particularly smart.

JUDIC CHOLLET.

Literature as a Trade.

To write successfully means to serve a long and hard apprenticeship. It means to do many things badly in order to learn to do a few things well; to read many authors, and good ones; to live with words till one knows their value, and it means, too, that one must know something about the reality of life. In short, writing is a trade, just like bookbinding or typesetting. It is different, of course; it has a higher side, we believe, but to think only of the higher side and ignore the trade part of it is to prepare oneself for a great disappointment. Decidedly the novice should not expect to earn pin money by setting down her day dreams when successful authors are obliged to slog daytime and nighttime in order to learn the mechanics of the art.—Woman's Home Companion.

Letters from Women

Cured by the use of Kodol are received daily. Their troubles nearly all begin with indigestion or other stomach disorder.

If the food you eat fails to give strength to your body, it is because the juices secreted by the stomach and digestive organs are inadequate to transform the nutrient properties of the food into blood. That is indigestion. The system is deprived of the amount of nourishment required to keep up the strength, and the result is that one or more of the delicate organs gradually grows weak, and then weaker, until finally it is diseased. Here a great mistake is made. That of treating the diseased organ. The best doctors of the land make this very mistake. Why should they? It is so easy to see that the trouble is not there.

Kodol Cures

This famous remedy puts the stomach and digestive organs in a healthy condition so that rich, red blood is sent coursing through the veins and arteries of every muscle, tissue and fiber throughout every organ of the entire body, and by Nature's law of health, full strength and vigor is soon restored to each.

Kodol cures indigestion, dyspepsia and all stomach disorders.

I have taken Kodol for nearly two months after each meal and it is the only remedy that gave relief from the terrible pains I endured. After a time I would take it but once a day, and now, while I keep a bottle handy I seldom need it, as it has cured me. Mrs. J. W. COOLBAUGH, Milo Center, N. Y.

Think me in, "And when you marry," she softly said, "I hope you'll remember to invite me to the ceremony."

He looked thoughtful. "It will be my pleasure," he said, "but I think I can ring you in somehow."

And a moment or two later she declared the ring was an astonishingly good one.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Not Worried by Them.

Mamma—Johnny, when you told me that Sever boy threw stones at you you did not tell me that it was after you had thrown stones at him.

Johnny—I wasn't afraid of the stones I threw at him, ma. It was only the ones coming my way that I was scared of.—Boston Transcript.

One of the Intelligent.

"Have you any sermons," inquired the prosecuting attorney, "against inflicting the death penalty in a case of willful murder?"

"Or I to hev 'em," cautiously asked the defendant, "or not to hev 'em, if I don't want to set on the jury?"—Cleveland Tribune.

The Hindoo Wonder

Recognized as the World's Greatest CLAIRVOYANT And Psychic Palmist.

Has arrived in the city and can be consulted on all affairs of life. The Hindoo Wonder is too well known in this country to need much introduction, but for the benefit of the few who may not have heard of him he will say that he is a graduate of the occult colleges of India and France, and has been a professional medium for the past 15 years, the past year in Spokane, Wash., where he gave the very best satisfaction to all.

Professor Delmar guarantees to tell you what you came for or charge you nothing. This is fair, is it not? He will tell you what you came for without asking a single question; no matter what your troubles are, he will guide you out of them with success on your side; he will give you names, dates, facts and localities in a way that will astonish the most skeptical. It may be of vital interest to you to know the outcome of your present distress. The happiness of your future life may depend upon the right solution, and proper advice. The Hindoo Wonder makes no mistakes. All his predictions are true, and may be relied upon. You may wish to know if it is advisable to make a change in business, in love or in marriage. Shall I succeed in my new undertaking? Can I trust my friends? Have I enemies? When shall I marry? How often shall I marry? Shall I ever be divorced? Does another share the love that rightfully belongs to me? If so, who? Am I loved in return? Have I a rival in my love? Whom shall I marry? How many children will I have? When will my domestic troubles end? How can I make my life and home happy? When will my absent friend return? Why do I not receive a letter? Should I invest my money? In what should I invest? Is my disease curable? Shall I win my law suit? Delmar tells you all these things and a great many more. He settles lovers' quarrels, reunites the separated, and shows how to overcome all difficulties.

He is ever ready to assist those with small capital to find a quick and sure paying statement. If you wish to make a sure paying investment see Delmar. Hundreds have been made independent for life through his advice and counsel. He can do the same for you.

Office hours, 9 a. m. to 9 p. m. Sundays, 10 a. m. to 8 p. m.

ATTENTION. Do you wish to learn to read the hand, as a pastime or as a pleasure. Prof. Delmar can teach you. He has been requested by a number of ladies and gentlemen of Salem to start a class in Palmistry, and the professor has concluded to do so, providing he can get enough interested to make it worth while, as he has agreed to give a course of lessons, lectures and demonstrations at a very small fee for the course. If you are interested, call and hear his plans.
