

THE DRESS PARADE OF THE SILVERWARE ARMY

An army of choice Silverware holds daily dress parade in the Barr Store. So large, brave and well groomed a Silverware Regiment is not to be found in any other store in Salem. "Everything in Silverware" that expresses the scope of the stock; Orange Spoons, Oyster Forks, Soup Ladles, Tomato Slicers, Salad Forks, Sugar Tongs, Knives, Forks, Tea Spoons, Table Spoons, Dessert spoons; this forms only the briefest sort of extract from our list. The famous R. Wallace brand is our leader. We also have the greatly advertised Rogers Bros., 1847 Silverware. In both, our prices, true to the Barr policy, are decidedly less than it is the custom to charge for these fine wares in other stores.

WOODMEN INSTALL OFFICERS

Young Lawyer, Elected Consul Commander

At a meeting of Camp No. 118, Woodmen of the World, held last evening, the following officers were installed: H. H. Turner, consul commander; J. D. Lee, advisor lieutenant; L. W. Acheson, banker; W. A. Moore, clerk; J. W. Loneor, escort; C. C. Bowen, watchman; N. J. Judah, secretary; J. J. Loncor, manager for 18 months; H. D. St. Helen, musician. After installation ceremony the officers and members of Silver Bell Circle and of the W. O. W. lodge repaired to the banquet room, where a capacious luncheon was served, after which they enjoyed themselves at games, music and dancing.

The writer having taken some interest in the welfare of Mr. Turner, has been watching his progress from the time he first came to Salem, which was about seven years ago, and therefore take great pleasure in being afforded the opportunity of saying a few words in his behalf. Upon review of the history of Salem Camp, No. 118, W. W., we notice that Mr. Turner is the youngest member to occupy the position of Consul Commander, although being a young man he has already proven himself to be most proficient and reliable, and, from a business standpoint, can say that the lodge made no mistake in the selection of this young lawyer to fill such an important position.

Forgot Where They Were

A very rare, but equally disgraceful, incident happened last night during the performance at the opera house. About 20 young men, and every one of them old enough to know better, came down the street shouting and otherwise creating a disturbance. They entered the corridors of the opera house. By chasing up and down the stairs they generally disturbed the audience, and by removing signs and other portable things from the hallway, made themselves quite obnoxious to the management. While the majority of the party wore the caps and colors of Willamette University, the management of the Salem play-house cannot believe that the young men are actually students of the university, for they are not considered guilty of conduct so unbecoming young gentlemen. The incident last night will be overlooked, but a repetition will not be tolerated.

Was Burned By the Gas

M. McDonald, president of the Oregon Nursery Company, is nursing a burned hand and face, the result of an explosion of gas at his home the first part of the present week. His face was quite severely burned and his moustache, eye brows and eye lashes were seriously disfigured. No serious consequences will attend the accident but the genial nurseryman cannot remember when his face hurt him as it has the past few days.

The Standing Army.

Old Lady—Poor fellow! And so you are a soldier? Corporal Cannon—Yes, ma'am. Old Lady—I'm awfully sorry for you. My, my, to think they never allow you to sit down! Corporal Cannon—Ma'am? Old Lady—I said I was sorry for you, and it is heartless and cruel for the government to keep a standing army all the time. Corporal Cannon—Ma'am? Oh, yes, ma'am, thank you.—London Chums.

Discovery of Iron.

Teacher—Johnny, can you tell me how iron was first discovered? Johnny—Yes, sir. "Well, just tell the class what your information is on that point." "I heard pa say yesterday that they smelt it."—Stare Moments.

Godfrey Is Foreman

State Printer-elect J. R. Whitney has appointed J. E. Godfrey, of this city, foreman of the state printing office, to fill the place caused by the death of P. J. Beckett. By reason of his many years' of continuous service in this important department, Mr. Godfrey has become a valuable man and his real worth is more apparent at this, the opening of the legislative session. Mr. Godfrey was the Demo-

Miss Florence Allan

THREE BEAUTIFUL WOMEN

Worn Out And Nervous Regained Their Health And Beauty By Taking Peruna.

Miss Florence Allan, a beautiful Chicago girl, writes the following to Dr. S. B. Hartman concerning his catarrhal tonic, Peruna:

75 Walton Place, Chicago, Ill. "As a tonic for a worn-out system, Peruna stands at the head in my estimation. Its effects are truly wonderful in rejuvenating the entire system. I keep it on hand all the time, and never have that 'tired feeling,' as a few doses always make me feel like a different woman."—Florence Allan.

Thousands of women suffer from systemic catarrh. This is sure to produce such symptoms as cold feet and hands, sick headache, palpitation of the heart and heavy feelings in the stomach.

Then begins a series of experiments. They take medicine for sick headache. They take medicine for nervous prostration, for palpitation of the heart, for dyspepsia. None of these medicines do any good because they do not reach the cause of the complaint.

Peruna at once mitigates all these symptoms by removing the cause.

Systemic catarrh is the trouble. Systemic catarrh pervades the whole system, deranges every organ, weakens every function. No permanent cure can be expected until the systemic catarrh is removed.

This is exactly what Peruna will do. Miss Cullen Was Exhausted From Over Study.

Miss Rose Cullen, President of the Young Woman's Club, Butte, Montana, writes:

621 Galena street, Butte, Mont. Peruna Medicine Co., Columbus, O.: Gentlemen—"Peruna has many friends in Butte. I cannot say too much in praise of it. While finishing school I became very nervous and exhausted from over-study. I was weak and sick, and could neither eat, sleep nor enjoy life. A couple bottles of Peruna put new life in me. I find by having it in the house and taking a dose off and on it keeps me in fine health. A large number of my friends place Peruna at the head of all medicines."—Rose Cullen.

Peruna is especially adapted to protecting against and curing nervous diseases of run-down women, as the testimonial of Miss Cullen indicates.

Miss Blanche Myers, 3120 Penn street, Kansas City, Mo., has the following to say of Peruna:

"During each of the past four seasons I have caught a severe cold, when suddenly chilled after an evening party, and catarrh for several weeks would be the result. One bottle of Peruna cured me, and I shall not dread colds any more as I did."—Blanche Myers.

An excellent little treatise on "Health and Beauty," written especially for women, by Dr. Hartman, will be sent free to any address by The Peruna Medicine Co., of Columbus, Ohio.

cratic candidate who ran for the office of state printer against Mr. Whitney, and for this reason the compliment comes with doubly good grace from the state-printer elect. His recognition of Mr. Godfrey, under the circumstances, will be doubly appreciated by the printers of the state. All feel that in this Mr. Whitney has done the handsome thing, and join in congratulating Mr. Godfrey upon his merited promotion.
