

The Romance That Rests In A Ring.

A Ladies' Finger Ring is the essence of romance. It is the seal that love sets upon her finger and the more dainty and charming it is the surer the givers hold upon her heart. The Barr Store is a sort of authorized commercial emissary of Cupid in this matter of rings. We supply a great many of the Engagement and Wedding Rings used in this vicinity, simply because our stock of such Rings is more truly choice and beautiful than is common. The lover must have a ring whose charm and delicacy will worthily befit the lady of his choice.

And This Store Has Them.

Barr's Jewelry Store.

State and Liberty Sts., Salem. Leaders in Low Prices.

MORE TIME THAN MONEY

Some people have to spend, but if you have no time, possibly you might like to have one of our fine 15-jewel timekeepers, as they do not require much money for the investment. Our stock of fine watches for ladies and gentlemen is complete, and embraces everything in Elgin and Waltham watches. Prices lower than ever.

C. T. Pomeroy

283 Com. St., Watchmaker and Optician

ALL THE WORLD

Knows about our wines and liquors, because each and all are famous brands. For table and medicinal use, choose what has conquered popularity by its quality. We carry only what we can praise without reserve. This fact is the basis of our claim for your confidence. Every purchase made from us is a transaction that could not have been bettered.

J. P. ROGERS, 218-222 Commercial Street. Wholesale and Retail Liquor Dealer. . .

THE WEATHER.

Tonight and Wednesday, fair; continued cool.

Local Events in the Social Realm

Whist Party.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. DePareq very charmingly entertained a number of friends on Wednesday evening. The time was pleasantly spent in playing whist and discussing dainty refreshments.

Those invited were Mr. and Mrs. Paul Sroat, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Thielson, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Williamson, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. B. Gray, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Ottenheimer, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Gabrielson, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Catlin, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Holman, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Graham, Dr. and Mrs. P. E. Smith, Miss Cora Talkington, Miss Marie Hurlbert, Miss Ruth Gabrielson, Dr. Willis McNary.

Lansing-Homyer Wedding.

On Wednesday, January 14th, at high noon, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Lansing, corner 17th and D streets, occurred one of the prettiest weddings of the season, when their daughter, Miss Clara, became the bride of Conrad F. Homyer, of this city. The ceremony uniting them "for better or for worse," was impressively pronounced by Rev. Geo. C. Ritchey, pastor of the First Christian church, in the presence of about forty of the relatives and friends of the contracting parties. The bride was gowned in a dress of filmy white. After a delicious luncheon the happy couple left for the depot and the 4:30 train for points north. While gone they will visit relatives at Seattle, and will return in about two weeks, when they will reside in a cottage on Commercial street. Mrs. Homyer is the fourth daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lansing, and came to Salem from Atlantic, Iowa, about three years ago, and since her coming has, by her sweet disposition and winning ways, won for herself a large circle of admiring friends. The groom has lived in Salem for a number of years, and is well and favorably known in the business circles of the city. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Homyer, of North Salem.

C. H. Lane, of Portland, is in the city.

Mrs. D. A. Paine, of Eugene, is in the city.

Mr. Dudley Clark, of Portland, is a Salem visitor.

Mrs. J. C. Slegmund is visiting relatives at Jefferson.

O. J. Wilson has returned from a month's visit in California.

Mrs. P. A. Dahlman, of St. Helena, is a guest of Miss George Giltner.

Miss Jessie Hale, of Grants Pass, has recently entered Willamette University.

Miss Lillian Metachan has returned to Portland, after a visit with relatives in this city.

Mrs. Phil Metachan, Jr., of Heppner, who has been visiting in this city, has gone to Portland.

Miss Thecla Dove is visiting relatives here, after several months spent at Eugene as stenographer for the Booth-Kelly Lumber Company.

Dr. C. T. Mackey and daughter, of Roseburg, witnessed the inauguration of Governor Chamberlain yesterday afternoon, and returned home last night.

Miss Jennie Goode left last night for San Francisco. She will be gone about a month, and will attend the millinery openings in California's metropolis.

Wm. Byers and wife, of Malvern, Iowa, are in the city, guests at the home of Ashley White. Mrs. Byers is a sister of Mrs. White and Mrs. Brinkerhoff, of this city.

Miss Stella Hockett, of Heppner, who has been visiting in this city, has gone to Albany.

Mrs. C. E. Blondell, of Spencer, Iowa, is in this city for a few days, en route to California, and is the guest of her former classmate, Miss O. Ballou, of Lincoln school. Mrs. Blondell will also make a short visit with friends at Jefferson before proceeding south.

ANOTHER PASSES AWAY

Mrs. Griswold Succumbs After a Five Weeks' Illness

Laura E. wife of George V. Griswold, died at 9:45 o'clock this morning at the family home, at the corner of Fourteenth and Lee streets. Mrs. Griswold was taken sick five weeks ago today with stomach trouble, and the ailment developed into pneumonia. Mr. Griswold and the members of the family are prostrated with grief in the death of a beloved wife and mother, and have the sincere sympathy of the community in their bereavement.

Laura E. Patrick was born in Michigan on December 6, 1852, and was in her 51st year. In 1872, on July 4th, she became the wife of G. V. Griswold, who survives her. With her husband she came to this state from Michigan in 1882, locating in this city, where she has resided continuously. Mrs. Griswold was a reserved, homelike body, who preferred the companionship of her own fireside, and the immediate members of her family, to larger gatherings. She was loved and adored as a wife and mother, and respected as a friend and neighbor.

Besides the bereaved husband, the deceased is survived by three daughters, the Misses Cora, Neva and Maud Griswold, all of this city. She leaves besides these her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Patrick, of Polk county, and two brothers and three sisters, as follows: A. M. Patrick, carpenter at the reform school; Wm. Patrick, of Tillamook; Mrs. Edith Bixby, of Tillamook; Mrs. Harvey Cole and Mrs. Dorr Gibson, both of Polk county.

Funeral services will be held at the family home in Yew Park at 10 o'clock Saturday morning, conducted by Rev. H. A. Ketchum, of the First Presbyterian church. Burial will take place in the City View cemetery.

FEMINE CHAT.

Perhaps the only woman coal operator in the country is Mrs. Jane Shirkie of Clinton, Md., who is both superintendent and manager of a big mine.

Signora Mayor des Planches, the wife of the Italian ambassador at Washington and a new acquisition to diplomatic society there, is described as a woman of remarkable beauty and as a charming talker.

Mrs. Mariah Vance, a colored woman of Danville, Ill., is learning to read at the advanced age of ninety-one. Mrs. Vance was a servant in Abraham Lincoln's family and packed up the family belongings when they went to the White House in 1860.

Lady Frances Balfour is said to be the cleverest of the three bright women in the family of the new English premier. She is an active worker for woman suffrage and was the prime mover in uniting all the woman suffrage societies in England into one body.

Mrs. Macqueoney, a cousin of the explorer David Livingstone, has now reached the age of 107 years and is living at Fishish, Isle of Mull. Her bearing, which was not good seven years ago, is now completely gone. Her memory, too, began to fail many years ago.

Mme. Marie Cazin, the widow of the eminent landscape painter, and Mme. Madeleine Lemaire have been elected members of the "new" salon jury. This is the first time women have been elected to an office of such dignity in France. Mme. Lemaire will serve on the painting jury and Mme. Cazin as a judge of sculpture.

Miss Rose Elizabeth Cleveland, sister of ex-President Cleveland, has become a farmer. She owns half of a 700 acre island off the coast of Maine, where she raises prize vegetables, small fruit and poultry. Miss Cleveland has about 800 chickens and a fine herd of cows. She takes great pride in her farm, every detail of which she manages personally.

Poor Man's Dish.

Panade, or "poor man's dish," is a French device for using stale rolls to advantage. Cut three or four hard rolls into small pieces, put them into a kettle, pour over them a quart of boiling water and season with pepper, salt, butter and a little garlic. When the rolls are thoroughly softened the panade is ready to serve.

Hot Sandwiches.

To make hot sandwiches chop the nuts very fine, using almonds, English walnuts and hickory nuts. Butter the bread, slice and put on it a thin layer of the chopped nuts, a little salt and sprinkle of grated cheese. Put another piece of bread over this and press slightly.

An effort is being made by his physician to induce the Czar of Russia to remove his court to Crimea for a few years, for the benefit of his health. He has no specific ailment, but his weak chest renders him susceptible to pulmonary trouble.

Kuykendall Law Queered.

(Continued from first page.)

H. B. 53, Carter—Relating to jurisdiction of county courts; first reading.

S. B. 54, Johnson—Protection of game; first reading.

S. B. 55, Croisan—Amending code; first reading.

Joint resolution, Pearce—To make county offices four years instead of two.

S. B. 56, Marsters—To amend code; first reading.

Resolution, Croisan—To investigate water and light of penitentiary. Adopted.

S. B. 57, Myers—To define rights of riparian owner; first reading.

S. B. 58, Kuykendall—To furnish transportation to pupils residing more than two miles from school; first reading.

Resolution, Williams—To appoint a committee to attend funeral of the late Congressman Tongue.

S. B. 59, Kuykendall—Consolidation of school districts; first reading.

Resolution, Hunt—To print a senate calendar, 240 copies. Adopted.

S. B. 60, McGinn—Fellow servant; first reading.

S. B. 61, Mulkey—Sale of land; first reading.

S. B. 62, Kuykendall—To incorporate Eugene; advanced to second reading and referred to Lane county delegation.

McGinn, Croisan and Smith, of Umatilla, were appointed as a committee to investigate water and light at the penitentiary.

A warm discussion took place over the adoption of resolutions to appoint more clerks than allowed by the Kuykendall law. The president decided the resolution out of order. An appeal was taken and the chair was not sustained—14 to 11.

House—Thursday Morning.

Gault offered concurrent resolution proposing that members of state legislature attend in a body the funeral of the late Congressman Tongue, to be held in Hillsboro on Sunday. Adopted.

Under second reading of house bills a number were referred to committees.

House returned to fifth order of business, that of introduction of bills. The following were presented:

H. B. 74, Hansbrough—Amending section 13, title 1 code.

H. B. 75, Eddy—Amending charter of Tillamook.

H. B. 76, Cornett—Authorizing free ferry across Willamette at Albany.

H. B. 77, Weldon—Authorizing The Dalles to issue bonds for water plant.

H. B. 78—Protecting fish in Grant county.

H. B. 79, Phelps—Amending code.

H. B. 80, Phelps—Incorporating lone.

H. B. 81, Kramer—Submitting constitutional amendments to vote by electors.

H. B. 82, Galloway, by request—Amending code.

H. B. 83, Galloway—Incorporating McMinnville.

H. B. 84, Blakely—Taxing inheritances.

H. B. 85, Bilyeu—Providing compensation for Indian War Veterans.

H. B. 86, Jones, of Multnomah—Amending code with respect to auditing of claims in several counties.

Resolutions were offered as follows:

H. C. R. 16, Jones, of Lincoln—Committee of three from house and two from senate to investigate mite school. Resolutions committee.

H. R. 8, Orton—Providing for 250 house calendars in solid nonpareil type. Resolution.

H. J. M. No. 2, Ginn—Memorializing congress for improvement of upper Columbia river. Adopted.

H. B. 87—Amending section 3167.

H. B. 88, Gill—Preservation and protection of game.

H. B. 89, Gill—Providing for a bounty on crows.

H. B. 90, Gill—For the protection of trout and other game fish.

Report of committee on resolutions was adopted. Committee reported favorably on following subjects: For nishing 100 stamp and 100 newspaper wrappers to each member of house, furnishing to each member at cost of state one copy each of four daily newspapers, investigating committees for the examination of the various institutions and departments of the state, and the opening of the sessions of the house with prayer.

The resolution providing for the appointment of joint committees for the investigation of the different state offices and state institutions were read separately and adopted.

H. C. R. 17, Carsahan—Canceling claims of state against various counties for interest charges on deferred tax payments. Referred to committee on resolutions.

H. C. R. 18, Judd—Providing special committee to investigate matter of furnishing state with water supply and electric light. Resolutions.

More bills were introduced, as follows:

H. B. 91, Burgess—Creating county of Stockton.

H. B. 92, Shelley—Amending Eugene charter.

H. B. 93, Hansbrough—Amending Ashland charter.

H. B. 94, Phelps—Amending code. Committee on resolutions reported favorably on resolution ordering the printing daily of 240 house calendars during this session.

Bills introduced as follows:

H. B. 95, Burleigh—Amending code.

H. B. 96, Danneman—To encourage sinking of artesian wells in Eastern Oregon.

H. B. 97, Orton—Regulating the employment of child labor.

At 11:15 o'clock, on motion of Eddy, house adjourned until 2 o'clock Monday afternoon.

2 cts, 2 cts, 2 cts, 2 cts. Remember always that will sell any patent medicine, bottle, box or package, or any drug sold by the lb., for 2 cents Less than any cut rate price advertised in this paper.

DR. STONE'S DRUG STORES

Nothing Like It

Those pancakes Aunt Jemima makes. Come and let herself serve you one day this week.

Fuller & Douglas,

Grocers: 143 State St. Phone 2261.

ARRIVAL EXTRAORDINARY

Miss Linn Wardell

The World's Greatest Palmist, Astrologer and Clairvoyant.

Now located in Salem for a brief time, and can be consulted on all affairs of life. She is too well known in this country to need much introduction, but for the benefit of the few who may not have heard of her, she will say that she is a graduate of the occult colleges of India and France, and has been a professional medium for the past 15 years, the past year in Portland, Oregon, where she gave the very best of satisfaction to all to me? Am I loved in return? Have I a rival in my love? Whom shall I marry? How many children will I have? When will my domestic troubles end? How can I make my life and home happy? When will my absent friend return? Why do I not receive a letter? Should I invest my money? In what should I invest? Is my disease curable? Shall I win my lawsuit? Miss Wardell tells you all these things, and a great many more.

reading for over 8000 people in that city. No matter what your troubles are, she will guide you out of them with success on your side; she will give you the names, dates, facts and localities in a way that will astonish the most skeptical. It may be of vital interest to you to know the outcome of your present distress. The happiness of your future life may depend upon the right solution and proper advice. Miss Wardell makes no mistakes. All her predictions are true, and may be relied upon. You may wish to know if it is advisable to make a change in business, in love or marriage. Shall I succeed in my new undertaking? When shall I obtain my hopes, my wishes? Shall I ever become wealthy? Can I trust my friends? When shall I marry? Shall I ever be divorced? Does another share the love that rightfully belongs

She settles lovers' quarrels, reunites the separated and shows how to overcome all difficulties.

Miss Wardell has just closed a one year's engagement in Portland, Oregon, and unless she gave satisfaction she could not have stayed there that length of time. This fact alone speaks well for her work, and she has hundreds of testimonials from some of the best people in the state.

Lessons in palmistry, hypnotism and mediumistic persons developed in short time at reasonable rates. Learn a profession and be independent. Parlors arranged so that you will meet no strangers.

Parlors 101 1/2 Court street, between Liberty and Commercial streets, over Steves' bakery.

Office hours, 9 a. m. to 9 p. m. and all day Sunday. Fee within the reach of all.

MISS LINNIE WARDELL.

Gold Dust

The N. K. Fairbanks Co., of Chicago, who manufacture Gold Dust Washing Powder are now offering to the merchants one case free with every five cases. They make this offer about once a year and it only lasts a few days. We have taken advantage of it and bought a large quantity and now we make this proposition to you. That until the Fairbank people withdraw their offer, we will give one package with every five you buy of us. Our price is 20c pckge., making 6 packages cost you $1.00.

Why not buy your years supply, or even enough to last a while.

Speer Bros., Phone 2491. State street.

Gantenbein & Stump Attendants

A GENEROUS LIVER

Likes good wines at dinner. A bountiful bill of fare shows a disagreeable blank, unless supplemented by some of the special brands on our list. These choice products, imported in the wood, are bottled by us, and so known to be genuine. Our stock contains the favorites of every consumer, at short prices, by the bottle or case.

THE ANNEX,

103 Court Street.