

SILVER Most Superb....

MOST stores that handle Silver Table Ware are content to confine their efforts to one brand. The Barr Store, however, prefers a stock of larger scope. We have three standard varieties of Silver Plated Table Ware: the famous "R Wallace, 1835" brand of which we have the exclusive sale in Salem; the "Rogers Bros 1847," and the "John G. Barr" brand, a ware of very exceptional quality, made especially to our order. In the Barr brand, we show Knives, Forks, and Spoons only. In the Wallace goods we have, in addition, an immense display of the fancy table pieces that every woman loves and admires. The finishing touches of tastiness to a well set table. We would deem it a favor if you would come in and see our Silver showing. Never mind if you haven't the least thought of purchasing.

CONTEST BETWEEN WARRIERS

Annual Maneuvers of Army and Navy

Authorities Desire Their Change to Pacific Coast

An attempt is being made to have the government hold the great annual maneuvers between the army and the navy on the Pacific coast next year. It was learned at the Presidio that the Secretary of War and the Secretary of the Navy are to be communicated with in regard to the matter, and a request, backed by what are deemed excellent reasons is to be made that these officials order the great mimic war to take place off the coast of California. Army officers here are enthusiastic over the proposition, and will do everything in their power to bring the matter to a successful issue. As to the final outcome of these efforts, no one is prepared to say. To break in upon the traditions of former years and ask the departments that the scene of this great event be shifted from the Atlantic to the Pacific seaboard may cause a severe shock to the conservative East. That is what officers out at the Presidio most fear when the fact of their request becomes generally known.

In speaking of the matter an artillery captain said that from a utilitarian standpoint this coast offered great advantages. "While it might not be fair to state that no other section is so admirably suited for the maneuvers," he continued, "still none can offer greater advantages than can the Pacific coast. The fortifications on this side are ideal for the purposes. What a splendid and spectacular affair it would be to have the fleet attempt to enter the Golden Gate or to reduce the fortifications guarding it. The navy would have an excellent chance to make an attempt to dash into the harbor under the cloak of fog that often envelopes the Golden Gate.

Great Aid to Army and Navy.

"These maneuvers last ten days and are the greatest lesson ever given to the army and navy. The event of last year was of immense practical benefit. The officers and men are out for ten days and nights with the guns, and are called upon to meet conditions almost identical to those that would arise during a time of actual warfare. Indeed, some of the officers engaged in last year's events told me that so real were the situations that they actually forgot for the time being that they were participating in a sham battle.

"But the maneuvers would probably not be confined to the locality about the entrance to the harbor of this city. The army might be called upon to defend other strategic points. Giving the fleet a wider scope, falling in any way to endanger the city of San Francisco, it might sail away south to San Diego and endeavor to reduce the fortifications at that point, and thus break the chain of coast defenses. Then, too, it would be necessary to strongly guard the entrance to the mouth of the Columbia river. The fleet might decide to go north and reduce the fortifications there.

"With all these interesting possibilities in the way of problems to be worked out, and with the added fact of the excellence of the defenses all along the Pacific coast, I think there is good grounds to hope that the Washington officials will take favorable action on the request. We have a very important military station here and in time of actual hostilities it would be most likely that an enemy's fleet would operate on this coast, as soon as, or before, they would attempt anything on the Atlantic side. Of course, this is a prize worth striving for, and many sections on the Atlantic coast will do much to win it, but if the people at large are enthusiastic it seems to me that we have an even chance to win."

Joined the Minstrel Show

Albert Disque, who left Salem last Sunday for Pendleton, was successful in getting a place as a vocalist with the Ward & Wade minstrel troupe. The management of the company is soliciting for an engagement in this city for February 12th. This date falls during the week that the Jessie Shirley company has the opera house for a week's engagement, and it may be that the minstrels cannot show here at that time. If the company does make a date for Salem it may be assured of a full house.

HALF OUR ILLS ARE CATARRHAL IN NATURE.

Catarrhal Diseases are Most Prevalent in Winter.

IS THERE NO WAY OF ESCAPE FROM THEM?

Pe-ru-na Never Fails to Cure Catarrh Wherever Located.

There are some things which are as sure as fate, and can be relied on to occur to at least one-half of the human family unless means are taken to prevent.

First, the climate of winter is sure to bring colds.

Second, colds not promptly cured are sure to cause catarrh.

Third, catarrh improperly treated is sure to make life short and miserable.

Catarrh spares no organ or function of the body. It is capable of destroying sight, taste, smell, hearing, digestion, secretion, assimilation and excretion.

It pervades every part of the human body, head, throat, stomach, bowels, bronchial tubes, lungs, liver, kidneys, bladder and other pelvic organs.

That Peruna cures catarrh wherever located is attested by the following testimonials sent entirely unsolicited to Dr. Hartman by grateful men and women who have been cured by Peruna:

Catarrh of the Head.
Mr. D. R. Ramsey writes in a recent letter from Pine Bluff, Ark., the following:
"My son, Leon Ramsey, four years of age, suffered with catarrh of the head for eighteen or twenty months. He took one bottle of your Peruna and could hear as good as ever."—D. R. RAMSEY.

Catarrh of the Nose.
Mr. Herman Ehlike, 932 Orchard street, Milwaukee, Wis., writes:
"I am entirely cured of my catarrh of the nose by your Peruna. My case was a severe one."—HERMAN EHLIKE.

Catarrh of the Throat.
E. H. Runyan, Salesville, O., writes:
"I suffered with catarrh of the throat for five years. I was induced to try Peruna. I have used five bottles and am perfectly well."—E. H. RUNYAN.

Catarrh of the Ear.
Mr. Archie Godin, 188 Beech street, Pittsburg, Mass., writes:
"Peruna has cured me of catarrh of the middle ear. I feel better than I have for several years."—ARCHIE GODIN.

Catarrh of the Lungs.
Mrs. Emilie Kirekhoff, Ada, Minn., writes:
"Through a violent cold contracted last winter, I became afflicted with catarrh of the nose, which in a short time affected my lungs. I took Peruna which cured me thoroughly. I now feel better than I have for forty years."—Mrs. EMILIE KIREKHOFF.

Catarrh of the Bladder.
Mr. John Smith, 311 S. Third street, Atchison, Kan., writes:
"I was troubled with catarrh of the urethra and bladder for two years. At the time I wrote to you I was under the care of my home doctor, and had been for four months.
"I followed your directions but two months, and can say Peruna cured me of that trouble."—JOHN SMITH.

Catarrh of the Bowels.
Mr. Henry Entzian, South Bend, Ind., writes:
"The doctor said I had catarrh of the bowels and I took his medicine, but with no relief. I was getting worse all the time.
"Before I had taken a half bottle of Peruna I felt like a new man."—HENRY ENTZIAN.

Catarrh of the Kidneys.
Peter J. Unger, Hawley, Pa., writes:
"I think that I am perfectly cured of catarrh of the kidneys by Peruna, as I have no trouble of any kind."—PETER J. UNGER.

Catarrh of the Stomach.
A. W. Graves, of Hammond, Ind., writing to Dr. Hartman, says:
"I am well of catarrh of the stomach after suffering two years. I have taken five bottles of Peruna and one of Manalit and I feel like a new man now."—A. W. GRAVES.

Pelvic Catarrh.
Miss Katie Lochman, Lafayette, Ind., writes:
"I had pelvic catarrh, pain in the abdomen, back, had stomach trouble and headache caused by catarrh. I followed your directions; took Peruna and Manalit according to directions, and how happy I feel that I am relieved of such a distressing ailment."—Miss KATIE LOCHMAN.

Local Events in the Social Realm

Masquerade a Success.

The masquerade given by the Woodmen of the World at their hall in the Holman building Friday evening was the most successful affair of the kind that has been given in the city for some time. There was 74 masked persons in attendance, besides a large number of spectators. There was a variety of characters represented, or, to speak more correctly, ranging from the devil himself to the angel of peace. Indians and Ethiopians were more largely and creditably represented than any other races. The committee on award of prizes had a difficult assignment in making the awards. Miss Maxine Clearwater received the first prize, consisting of a gold watch, for the most original costume, consisting of a gown of newspapers. Miss Maed Miller received second for originality. She impersonated a squaw. Mrs. C. T. Pomeroy, as the angel of peace, received the prize for the most expensive and elaborate costume, and Miss Evans took a second place under the same classification, and received for her trouble a book, "The Life of McKinley." The devil, represented by H. H. Turner, was considered the most original gentleman character by the judges, who gave that gentleman a box of cigars. Fred Kurtz, as the laboring man, took second prize. The award for the best substantiated character went to E. C. Patton, who gave a splendid impersonation of the Jew whose motto was "It is cheaper to move than to pay rent." Those in attendance report that Jim Willson looked simply stunning in his colonial costume, but he was so small that the judges overlooked him in making the awards.

The debating team from the U. of O. was defeated at Walla Walla last night by the team of Whitman college.
