PRECIOUS PEARLS STOLEN

Robbery of the Fair Personal Effects

San Francisco, Jan. 20.—When the administrators to settle the affairs of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fair opened the box containing the personal effects of the dead couple, sent from Paris, it was found that a 10,000 sable coat and a pearl necklace worth $15,000 and other jewelry had been stolen and cheap imitations substituted in the box, which bore the seal of the American consulate at Paris. He has been notified to make an investigation. The articles were believed to have been stolen before the effects were turned over to the consulate.

Vienna, Jan. 20.—Die Zeitung today says the Sultan has become convinced of the necessity of bribing the American and English press to publish Turkophile articles. Nedoehib Pasha, the official entrusted with the task, will receive $100,000 annually, one-half to be used on American and the other half on British newspapers.

D. K. George, an aged and wealthy citizen of Guthrie, O., made the statement just before he died last week that he was James Wilkes Booth, the assassin of Abraham Lincoln. George attempted suicide at El Reno, and made a second successful attempt at an Elud hotel, taking poison. He stated that he had successfully eluded the officers after killing Lincoln, and had remained unknown to the world ever since. He was reputed to be very wealthy, owning land in Oklahoma, Indian Territory and at Dallas, Texas.

CITY TAKES CONTROL

Of a Badly Managed Street Railway

First Case of the Kind and it Will Be Litigated

Lansing, Jan. 20.—The council last night withdrew the franchise of the street car company, because of its poor condition, uncleanness of the cars and the incivility of the employees. The police this morning stopped the cars, and the superintendent of public works took possession in the name of the municipality. The company is preparing to enter the courts to regain possession of the property.

The Plague In Mexico

Mazatlan, Mex., Jan. 20.—All the larger coast towns have established quarantine against Mazatlan and Topolobampo. The plague is unabated and there is no improvement in the situation. Guymas also maintains quarantine against San Francisco. The town council has bought land to enlarge the cemetery. There were six new cases of plague and six deaths today. Seven persons have left the lazaretto cured. House-burning goes steadily on. There is a feeling of consternation among the people, and not a few are in peril of losing their reason, owing to the daily scenes of horror and desolation.

Gov. Lanham's Inaugural.

Austin, Texas, Jan. 20.—The inauguration of Col. S. W. T. Lanham as governor of Texas took place today in the presence of a great crowd of friends, members of the legislature and other visitors from all parts of the state. At the same time the other state officers chosen at the November election took the oath of office in turn. The inaugural ceremonies were the most brilliant in the history of the state. Tonight the inaugural ball takes place in the capitol, which has been elaborately decorated for the occasion with yards of bunting, hundreds of flags and a profusion of colored incandescent lights.

Gov. Pennypacker Inaugurated.

Harrisburg, Pa., Jan. 20.—Judge Pennypacker was today inaugurated governor of Pennsylvania. The other new state officers at the same time were inducted into office. The inaugural procession was one of the most imposing ever seen in Harrisburg. Congressman M. E. Olmsted was chief marshal of the parade. A leading feature was the fine appearance and marching of the national guard. The inaugural ceremonies took place at noon on the west side of the capitol in the presence of the members of the general assembly, state officials and numerous other spectators.

REPORTS TO MINE WORKERS

Mitchell Submits His Annual Review

Miners Have an Immense Defense Fund

Mitchell Has no Ambition of a Political Nature

Indianapolis, Jan. 20.—In his annual report to the mine workers today, Mitchell recommended that they demand higher wages, on the ground that the operators were reaping immense profits from the mine. A firm stand for the run-of-mine basis scale, and advance in wages for inside and outside laborers were recommended. Mitchell's report is quite strong along socialistic lines, suggesting state ownership as the only outcome against the evils of trust management. Over-capitalization, he says, demands greater profits to be wrung out of the consumer and screwed out of the laborer, and there is no alternative under private corporate ownership. He quotes Gompers, saying that the demand for more and more on the part of the operators must be met with demands along similar lines on the part of organized labor, and the consumer must in the end foot the bill for both.

Mitchell's Recommendations. He recommended that the anthracite district be allowed larger representation. He called attention to the fact that the miners now have in their national treasury the largest sum ever accumulated in the treasury of a labor organization. He recommended letting the permanent defense fund grow until it is of such magnitude that they could cope successfully against any situation which may arise. He believed the demand for coal would continue for two years. He made a complete review of the anthracite strike, commented on the fewer number of strikes in recent years as due to a better understanding between capital and labor. He believed in strictly enforcing the laws of the organization, and the revocation of charters where not obeyed. He emphatically protested against the incorporation of trades unions. He urged miners to demand that representatives in congress support the bill now pending, limiting the power of the federal judiciary in issuance of injunctions in labor disputes. He also urged that the miners buy only union made goods. He concluded by saying that he would not enter politics. His highest ambition would be to better the conditions of the miners and their families, and better the fellowship between the miners and their employers, after which he desired nothing except to retire into the privacy of an ordinary citizen.

Mrs. Hughson, of Chicago, whose letter follows, is another woman in high position who owes her health to the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I suffered for several years with general weakness and bearing-down pains, caused by womb trouble. My appetite was fitful, and I would lie awake for hours, and could not sleep, until I seemed more weary in the morning than when I retired. After reading one of your advertisements I decided to try the merits of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I am so glad I did. No one can describe the good it did me. I took three bottles faithfully, and besides building up my general health, it drove all disease and poison out of my body, and made me feel as spry and active as a young girl. Mrs. Pinkham's medicines are certainly all they are claimed to be."—Mrs. M. E. HUGHSON, 347 East Ohio St., Chicago, Ill.

Mrs. Pinkham Tells How Ordinary Tasks Produce Displacements. Apparently trifling incidents in woman's daily life frequently produce displacements of the womb. A slip on the stairs, lifting during menstruation, standing at a counter, running a sewing machine, or attending to the most ordinary tasks may result in displacement, and a train of serious evils is started. The first indication of such trouble should be the signal for quick action. Don't let the condition become chronic through neglect or a mistaken idea that you can overcome it by exercise or leaving it alone. More than a million women have regained health by the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

If the slightest trouble appears which you do not understand write to Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass., for her advice, and a few timely words from her will show you the right thing to do. This advice costs you nothing, but it may mean life or happiness or both.

Mrs. Lelah Stowell, 177 Wellington St., Kingston, Ont., writes:

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—You are indeed a goddess to women, and if they all knew what you could do for them, there would be no need of their dragging out miserable lives in agony. "I suffered for years with bearing-down pains, womb trouble, nervousness, and excruciating headache, but a few bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound made life look new and promising to me. I am light and happy, and I do not know what sickness is, and I now enjoy the best of health." Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound can always be relied upon to restore health to women who thus suffer. It is a sovereign cure for the worst forms of female complaints,—that bearing-down feeling, weak back, falling and displacement of the womb, inflammation of the ovaries, and all troubles of the uterus or womb. It dissolves and expels tumors from the uterus in the early stage of development, and checks any tendency to cancerous humors. It subdues excitability, nervous prostration, and tones up the entire female system. Its record of cures is the greatest in the world, and should be relied upon with confidence.

$5000 FORFEIT if we cannot forthwith produce the original letters and signatures of above testimonials, which will prove their absolute genuineness. Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.
