THE WEATHER.

Tonight and Sunday, fair.

Local Events in the Social Realm

A Pleasant Entertainment.

The moving pictures and concert at the Methodist church last evening, by Freeland & Steel, was greatly enjoyed by a large audience. They have a fine stereopticon and a powerful light, with Edison's latest improvements, also a phonograph which talks and sings. They exhibited over 200 pictures, which were, by turns, instructive, humorous and pathetic. It consisted of scenes in Oregon, Washington, Alaska, California, the south land and different parts of Europe, including the coronation of King Edward, and battle scenes on land and sea, one being in the Transvaal war. Great art was passed in review, and the miracles of the masters glowed on the canvass. The rendering of "Rock of Ages" and "Lead Kindly Light" were especially fine, as were the pictures of cloud and sky. Mr. Freeland rendered two vocal solos and the other pictures were accompanied by songs and music on the phonograph. The operators will remain in Salem over Sunday, and they have consented to repeat the performance, with variations, this evening.

Fourth of the Series.

Mrs. W. H. Dancy again justified her reputation as a successful hostess Friday afternoon, when she gave the fourth of a series of afternoons at "Progressive Hearts." Miss Callista Moore won the first honors of the afternoon, the consolation prize going to Mrs. A. A. Jessup. Those who were the guests of Mrs. Dancy on this occasion were: Mrs. G. G. Brown, Mrs. R. D. Gilbert, Mrs. G. A. Molden, Mrs. Etta Kneoves, Mrs. E. L. Baker, Mrs. A. A. Jessup, Mrs. J. H. Scott, Mrs. H. H. Smith, Mrs. G. H. Irwin, Misses Besse and Florence Tillson, Nannie Wagner, Callista Moore, Hortense Kimball, Edna Hubbard, Ella Rineaman, Carrie Hurst, Estella Hurst, Ruth Gabrielson, Lois Coshov, Margaret Parkhurst, Lola Sanders, of Harrisburg; Marie Stelzer, Ruby Cornell, Oskie Matthews, Miriam Heulst, Linnie Stutesman, Mabel Creighton, Kittle Harbord, Edith Frizzell, Zaldee Palmer and Agnes Gilbert.

Successful Masquerade.

The Masquerade ball, given in Holman-hall Friday evening by the Woodmen of the World, was but a repetition of previous successes in the matter of entertaining the public. Miss Lena Evans, as a washerwoman, and H. H. Turner, who impersonated a turkey gobbler, captured the first prizes. The event was one of the pleasantest of the kind that has taken place here this winter. After the award of the prizes, the masks were removed, and dancing followed until midnight. Music for the occasion was furnished by Ristine's orchestra.

Smith-Adolph.

Another quiet Salem home wedding was celebrated at 3 o'clock this afternoon at the home of the bride, on Sixteenth street, when Miss Lottie Smith and Mr. Samuel Adolph, both of this city, were united in marriage. Rev. John Parsons, of the First M. E. church, of this city, performed the ceremony in the presence of only a few of the invited friends of the principals. After the wedding ceremony, the party repaired to the home of the groom's mother, Mrs. Adolph, on East State street, where a reception was given the newly-married couple. Mr. and Mrs. Adolph went to Portland this afternoon, and, after a short visit, will return to this city, and reside on Capital street, near Center.

The bride is one of Salem's attractive young women, who has a host of friends in this city who join in extending the best wishes for much happiness. The groom is a young business man of this city, having recently purchased the John O. Hertz clothing stock. It is the wish of his many friends that the partnership just formed may be a most happy one.

NASAL CATARRH CURED

Pe-ru-na Cures a Case of Five Years' Standing.

Mr. Rudolph M. Patterson, a well-known lawyer, of Chicago, Ill., writes the following letter to The Peruna Medicine Co., at Columbus, Ohio:
The Peruna Medicine Company, Columbus, Ohio:
Gentlemen: "I have been a sufferer from nasal catarrh for the past five years, and at the earnest solicitation of a friend I tried Peruna and am glad to say it has afforded a complete cure. It is with pleasure I recommend it to others."—RUDOLPH M. PATTERSON.

Mrs. J. C. Garrett, of 88 West 117th street, New York City, writes:
"I can honestly recommend Peruna as a great catarrh remedy. It heals and heals quickly and permanently."
"This is simply the whole story in a word. I have for years suffered with catarrh, aggravated when I took cold and Peruna cured me. It is indeed a great medicine, and worthy the highest praise, for it is reliable and will never disappoint you."—Mrs. J. C. Garrett.

city, was married last week to Mr. Claude Anderson, of Jefferson. Miss Bryan is the daughter of Rev. E. M. Bryan, now located near Cottage which all doctors agree, is that it is difficult to cure it. Local remedies may give relief but they fail to cure permanently. Sprays or snuffs amount to little or nothing except to give temporary relief.

Catarrh is frequently located in internal organs which cannot be reached by any sort of local treatment. All this is known by every physician.

To devise some systemic internal remedy which would reach catarrh at its source, to eradicate it permanently from the system—this has been the desire of the medical profession for a long time. Forty years ago Dr. Hartman, confronted this problem. He believed then that he had solved it. He still believes he has solved it. He cures thousands of people annually. During all these years Peruna has been the remedy upon which he has relied.

It was at first a private prescription, afterwards manufactured expressly for him in large quantities. This remedy, Peruna, is now to be found in every drug-store and nearly every home in the land. It is the only reliable internal remedy ever devised to cure any case of catarrh, however long the case may have been standing.

Mr. Camillus Senne, 257 West 129th street, New York, writes:
"I have fully recovered from my catarrhal troubles. I suffered for three years with catarrh of the head, nose and throat. I tried all kinds of medicine without relief, but at last I have been cured by the wonderful remedy called Peruna."
"I read of Peruna in your almanac, and wrote you for advice, which I followed. After taking one and one-half bottles of Peruna I am entirely cured, and can recommend Peruna to anyone as the best and surest remedy for any catarrhal troubles."—Camillus Senne.

A course of Peruna never fails to bring relief. There is no other remedy like Peruna. Its cures are prompt and permanent.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.

Address Dr. Hartman, President of The Hartman Sanitarium, Columbus, Ohio.
