Congress Adjourns

Speaker Henderson Receives a Genuine Ovation

APPROPRIATION IS THE LARGEST EVER MADE

It Reaches the Enormous Amount of $1,544,000,000 or $2,000,000 a Day

Washington, March 4.—The swarm of visitors is in greater number in the house to witness the closing scenes. In the senate the galleries were only partially filled. In the senate, as soon as a quorum was gained, Allison, chairman of the appropriations committee, offered the annual statement of appropriations made this congress, as compared with those of the 56th, and shows an increase in the appropriations made of $114,000,000, of which nearly half is for the Panama canal, also an increase of $50,000,000 in the postal service, a large portion of which is due to rural delivery. The total appropriations exceed over $1,544,000,000. Allison, in a speech, also called attention to the fact that the last congress adopted no river and harbor bill, while this one appropriated $26,000,000 for that purpose. He said he was convinced that the appropriations made met the approval of both parties. The senate then took up the river and harbor bill amendment, thus formally setting aside the Philippine tariff measure. Hoar, by unanimous consent, then spoke on the Philippine bill, which had thus been officially declared dead. In the house, at its opening, Richardson made the point of no return. The clerk was hoarse he could hardly be heard. Thus far in this memorable parliamentary struggle there have been 73 roll calls, 18 of which were made yesterday. When the call was nearly completed, Henderson called Cannon to the chair to preside. Continued applause greeted his taking the chair.

the interstate commerce commission or for the relief of Philippine commerce, deprived the people of three territories of the rights of statehood, which they are fully entitled to.

Payne offered resolutions of thanks to Henderson for services as speaker. It having become known the Democrats would refuse the usual courtesy. It was carried by vive voce vote. Cochran demanded the yeas and noes. Richardson and others protested, but the Cochran clerk didn't heed. Hisses from the Republicans and galleries greeted those who arose, but they were not in sufficient number to demand a new roll call.

Grovener, Payne and Richardson were appointed a committee to act with Allison and Jones the senatorial committee to wait on the President, who arrived in his room in the senate wing at 10 o'clock to notify him that congress is ready to adjourn. When Henderson re-entered and took the gavel from Cannon it was the signal for an enthusiastic demonstration. The Republicans applauded and the Democrats joined in. As the applause continued the Republicans arose and cheered vociferously. The Democrats contented themselves with hand-clapping. When the applause subsided, Payne arose to say the President had no further message, except to congratulate the house on the work performed.

The anthracite commission, at its meeting tomorrow, intends, if possible, to get both sides to agree to certain matters before its verdict shall be rendered, as well as to secure further confirmation of the weighing system. Henderson addressed the house with much feeling, and did much to heal the wounds which had been dealt within the last few days. He aroused the house to the wildest enthusiasm of patriotic fervor by frequent references to the country's flag, and that the wounds made in the legislative hall would quickly heal, and all had been given for the preservation of the country.

THE HOUSE ADJOURNS.

Speaker Henderson Receives a Genuine Ovation. Washington, March 4.—The house was declared adjourned sine die at 12:03 today by the clock, amidst the singing of patriotic songs and a general ovation to Speaker Henderson.

HANGMAN BADLY BEATEN

His Story is Not Believed by Officials or Police

London, March 4.—Hangman Blington, England's famous executioner, was found lying unconscious on the railway tracks outside of London this morning. He had been assaulted with a club, and is in imminent danger of death. It is thought that friends of Edwards, the notorious murderer, who was hanged a short time ago, are the perpetrators.

He regained consciousness later and says an unknown man entered the railway carriage, and attempted to rob him. In the scuffle he fell through the door. The railway people and the police both doubt the story, which was given an air of mystery by the hangman's evident attempt at concealment.

Confined to His Bed.

Rome, March 4.—The emotion caused by attendance on yesterday's function has confined the Pope to his bed today with intestinal troubles. Bishops Dunne and Hoban, although they have been in Rome for some time past, have been unable to obtain an interview, owing to Leo's condition.

Ireland to Have Home Rule.

Dublin, March 4.—The Daily Express today says there is good authority for the statement that the government and Nationalists have reached a passive understanding, by which the government allows the plan of home rule on the lines counseled by Chamberlain.

REAL ESTATE EXCHANGE

Has Been Organized at the Capital City

The Salem real estate men met today and formed an exchange, and elected the following officers: J. R. Fairbank, president; J. M. Payne, vice-president; F. N. Derby, secretary; L. D. Henry, treasurer.

A board of directors is to be elected this evening, and the exchange includes nearly all of the active real estate men of the city.

A prominent Salem real estate man was seen this afternoon and said:

"The real estate agents of Salem have formed an association called the Salem Real Estate Exchange, the principle object of which is to make proper arrangements for receiving the many home-seekers who are daily arriving, and furnish reliable information regarding the resources of Oregon, and more especially the Willamette valley, and to prevent, as far as possible, strangers from being annoyed while at the stations, hotels or on the streets by over-zealous, but not always judicious, solicitors, who invariably know, or seem to know, of a party who offers the 'best bargain in the valley.' It is the purpose of the exchange to employ a responsible man to meet all trains, and to furnish excursionists and land-seekers all the information desired, giving names of reliable real estate agents, and their places of business, also locations and rates of hotels, restaurants, boarding and lodging houses, and how to find them, and to do all possible to make the new-comer feel 'at home.' The agent will probably visit Portland at times to meet and assist any parties whose intentions are to stop in Marion county. The members of the exchange ask for the good will and support of the Commercial Club, the newspapers, the merchants and of the community at large."

Slated for Appointment.

Washington, March 5.—Assistant United States District Attorney Purdy, of Minneapolis, who was prominent in the fight against the Northern Securities Company, is slated for the appointment of special assistant attorney-general, under the new act creating that office, for the purpose of enforcing anti-trust laws.

The election in Chili has resulted in the defeat of the president and a triumph for the liberal-conservative combination.

FLOODS FEARED AT MEMPHIS

Weather Bureau Predicts Highest Water Ever Known

Memphis, Tenn., March 4.—In the past 48 hours the river at Memphis has risen three-tenths of a foot, and the water now stands a foot and two-tenths above the danger line. There has been another rise in the Ohio, the Tennessee and the Cumberland rivers, and when this volume of water pours down the valley it is feared the river at this point and below will rise so high as to cause a disastrous flood.

The local weather bureau predicts a stake of water here that will equal or exceed the highest known. The rise has been unprecedented. Reports of distress are already coming in from points above and below this place.

KNAPP'S UNCHOKED WIFE

Visits Him in Jail Today

Says She Loves Him no Matter What He Has Done

He Expects to Suffer the Death Penalty

Hamilton, Ohio, March 4.—Mrs. Annie Knapp, fourth wife of the stranger, visited her husband in the jail at noon. They were not permitted to kiss, but shook hands, and the murderer cried. His wife asked him if he really did all the things to which he confessed. He replied evasively, finally admitting the truth. He said he expected to go to the electric chair. The woman is faithful; says she doesn't care what he did, she loves him, and if he is sent to the penitentiary for life she will get a home near the prison where she can see her husband at intervals. Crowds thronged about the morgue today, trying to view the body of Hanna Goddard Knapp. Identification was added to this morning by the dead woman's half sister and husband. The body is in good condition, considering that it floated 160 miles.

MITCHELL NEEDS A REST

Overwork Sends Oregon Senator Back to Bed

Temperature Yesterday Goes up to 102

A dispatch from Washington last night says: Senator Mitchell, as was feared some time ago, is apparently overtaxing his strength in his endeavors to dispose of a great mass of correspondence that has accumulated during his six weeks' illness. He did not appear in the senate until a late hour today, when he escorted Senator Fulton. He went out against the protest of his nurse, who is with him constantly. The senator's temperature today went up to 102, and he felt his lack of strength as he attempted to get about. Endeavors have been made to induce him to refrain from work until he is stronger, but the pressure upon him from his constituents continues, and he dislikes to leave the work undone.

Immediately after escorting Mr. Fulton to the senate this afternoon Senator Mitchell returned to his hotel and went to bed, under direction of his doctor. His condition is not regarded as serious, but merely a result of overexertion. The delivery of his eulogy on Representative Tongue last Sunday affected him more than was apparent at the time, and yesterday he visited several of the departments, tiring himself by the effort. If possible, his doctor will restrain him from further exertion until he recovers strength.

France has issued bonds in the sum of $25,000,000, which were taken up immediately.

The Strike In Chicago

Want Three Dollars and Eight Hours a Day

GREATEST WALK OUT IN HISTORY PROBABLE

If Demands Are Not Granted, 20,000 Workers will Quit and Houses will Close

Chicago, March 4.—Unless seven of the great packing concerns and the stock yards accede to the demands of the 115 engineers, who went on strike this morning, one of the greatest walk-outs in history will be inaugurated within a few days. Fully 20,000 persons will be affected, and the great meat industry will be completely tied up. The strikers want $3 per day and eight hours. They are now getting $2.50 for 10 hours. Six of the smaller concerns signed the agreement, and work was immediately resumed, but all the big ones refused. If the matter is not adjusted they will be compelled to shut down tomorrow. All labor organizations in the city agreed to stand by the engineers.

Strikers Quiet in St. Louis.

St. Louis, March 4.—There is no change in the strike situation this morning. The men will obey the injunction, but will bring an action in court asking the dissolution of the restraining order within the 15 days limit set by Judge Ames. Traffic is not in any wise interrupted.
