

This World Loves Things that Glitter

The world loves things that glitter, glisten and shine. No inanimate things are prized so highly as gold and silver and precious gems. And so it has come about that a good jewelry shop is always a treasure house of fascinations to almost everyone, young or old. The Barr Store realizes this, and always encourages visitors. The casual saunterer who admires the handsome things in our windows, but doesn't cross the threshold because he has no idea of an immediate purchase, is always welcome to come in and look around as much as he pleases. The children are welcome to come in and feast their little eyes. Rich or poor, young or old possess the privilege of inspection of this store's contents. Please feel free to drop in any time your fancy pleases.

Wheat and Buckwheat.
 There is not a great deal of difference in the feeding value of buckwheat and wheat, pound for pound, the buckwheat being a little more fattening than wheat. It is a good winter feed and may be fed as one feed two or three days in the week if it is not too high priced. We would not pay more for a pound of buckwheat than we would for a pound of wheat.—Commercial Poultry.

Now I Lay Me.
 Now I lay me down to sleep
 (Closer, Death, to thee I creep)
 So I prayed in days gone by
 So I pray as night draws nigh
 Now I lay me down to sleep
 God his little child will keep

Now I Lay Me—God has kept
 Watch above me while I sleep
 Earth has been a goodlier place
 For the shining of his face
 Should I die before I wake
 God his little child will take
 —Gertrude E. Heath in Lippincott's

A nervous, irritable mother, often on the verge of hysterics, is unfit to care for children; it ruins a child's disposition and reacts upon herself. The trouble between children and their mothers too often is due to the fact that the mother has some female weakness, and she is entirely unfit to bear the strain upon her nerves that governing a child involves; it is impossible for her to do anything calmly. She cannot help it, as her condition is due to suffering and shattered nerves caused by some derangement of the uterine system with backache, headache, and all kinds of pain, and she is on the verge of nervous prostration.

When a mother finds that she cannot be calm and quiet with her children, she may be sure that her condition needs attention, and she cannot do better than to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. This medicine will build up her system, strengthen her nerves, and enable her to calmly handle a disobedient child without a scene. The children will soon realize the difference, and seeing their mother quiet, will themselves become quiet.

Mrs. May Brown, of Chicago, Ill., says:

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—'Honor to whom honor is due,' and you deserve both the thanks and honor of the mothers of America whom you have so blessedly helped and benefited. I have used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound when I would feel run-down, nervous and irritable, or have any of the aches and pains which but few women escape, and I have found that it relieved me at once and gave me new strength. Several ladies, members of our Literary Union, speak in the highest praise of your Vegetable Compound, as they have been cured from serious female troubles. One lady, who thought she must submit to an operation, was cured without using anything in the world but Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Sunative Wash. You have hosts of friends in Chicago, and if you came to visit our city we would delight to do you honor. Gratefully yours,—MRS. MAY BROWN, 57 Grant Place, Chicago, Ill.

How Mrs. Pinkham Helped Mrs. McKinny.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I feel it my duty to write and let you know the good you and your Vegetable Compound are doing. I had been sick ever since my first baby was born, and at the birth of my second, my doctor, as well as myself thought I should never live through it. After that menstruation never came regular, and when it came I suffered terribly. I also had womb and ovarian trouble. A friend of my husband's advised him to get Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for me. At first I had no faith in it, but now nothing could induce me to be without it. Menstruation has become regular, and I feel like a new woman. Your medicine is a God-send to suffering women. I hope this letter will lead others to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Yours truly, Mrs. MILDRED MCKINNY, 25 Pearl St., San Francisco, Cal." (March 16, 1901).

A protest from La Grande against the appointment of J. W. Knowles, as register of the United States land office, has been filed in Washington. Isaac M. Veatch, aged 77, died at Cottage Grove yesterday. He came to Oregon in 1852. Washington county people are up in arms because the Portland city council refused the proposed Hillsboro electric road a franchise, and will get even by trying to down the Lewis and Clark fair.
