COMMITTEE SELECTED DELEGATES

Democrats Will Not Hold Primaries

Delegation is Instructed for J. A. Jeffrey, of Salem

If Marion county Democrats were as successful in being elected to office as they are expeditious in the transaction of the business of the party, there would be a larger number of Democratic office-holders in these parts. The Marion County Democratic County Committee held a meeting in the Hughes-D'Arcy building in this city Saturday afternoon. It was in session but about an hour and in that time thirteen delegates were selected to represent Marion County at the Democratic Congressional convention to be held in Albany on Saturday, April 11.

W. H. Downing, of Sublimity, chairman of the organization, presided with Secretary P. L. Frazier of Englewood, also present. There were committee-men in attendance from thirteen precincts and the meeting was harmonious. The meeting was called to arrange for selecting thirteen delegates to attend the Albany convention. After a general discussion, it was decided to dispense with the holding of primaries and have the members of the central committee name the delegates. In accordance with this plan, a motion prevailed instructing the chairman to appoint a committee of six to name the delegates. Chairman Downing appointed the following on the committee: J. T. King, P. H. D'Arcy, W. H. Downing, C. Van Patton, T. C. Davidson, and W. W. Elder. After a recess the committee submitted a report, which was ratified. Those selected to go to Albany were: Grant Corby, Woodburn; W. W. Elder, Stayton; George Cusker, Silverton; T. P. Hayes, Monitor; C. F. Hein, Aumsville; Simon Conner, St. Paul; P. L. Frazier, Englewood; Webster Holmes, Salem No. 3; P. H. D'Arcy, Salem No. 1; Francis Feiler, Butteville; Clarence Van Patton, Prospect, T. C. Davidson, South Salem and W. H. Downing, Sublimity.

On motion the delegation was instructed for John A. Jeffrey, of this city for congress, to use all honorable means to ensure his nomination.

WHAT'S IN A NAME!

New Kind of Wheat.

J. M. Johnson, a farmer who owns a small ranch a few miles from Dayville, says he has discovered or developed and is now improving a variety of wheat that is truly a wonder, says the Canyon City News. The form of the head is multiple, bearing a number of small heads arranged in two rows on opposite sides of the main stalk head. The extra lateral heads are longest at the base of the stalk head, and contain about ten grains of wheat each. They grow shorter as they near the top of the stalk head, and together with the latter form a flat and nearly solid top. The entire arrangement constitutes a head of nearly triangular shape—the apex at the point of intersection with the stalk—and of enormous size, numbering so far as counted, about 110 grains.

FRUIT GROWERS UNION

Manager of Salem Cannery Will Contract

Manager Coman of the S. P. Co. Was Present

On request of the board of directors the time for selecting a local manager was deferred until next meeting. Mr. Kyle moved that the by-laws be amended to create a committee of three on appeal in questions of grades to be established to be appointed by the Board of Directors. Carried.

General Freight Agent W. E. Coman of the S. P. Co., was present on invitation of the Directors and addressed the Union. This, he said, was the day of mergers, both of corporations and producers. Whatever doubt there might be about consolidation of corporations, there was none whatsoever about this kind of an organization. He commended the formation of such unions. They centralized their management in a committee or a manager, who could estimate what the total crop might be, and the railroad companies could estimate what cars were needed and what train service was needed. The best manner of putting up fruit was reached through co-operation of growers. The day of begging commission men to take fruit on consignment was practically over with. The S. P. Co., was ready to do all in its power to push this industry to success.

Mr. Aufranc asked what the company would do to make freight rates that would enable the Salem union to market its fruit.

Mr. Coman said the company would meet the shippers half way on any question of freights.

Mr. Matthews asked if the S. P. Co., was prepared to handle fruits through to the Inter-Mountain and Puget Sound country. Mr. Coman said they would be glad to make such rates through.

Secretary Reynolds reported that one lot of crates in the flat was offered at $8.25. The secretary was directed to ascertain the acreage and probable yield of berries and cherries. Mr. Holcomb of the Salem Cannery was present and said they would prepare to handle all the berry crop. He said that Joseph Fisher at the cannery was authorized to make contracts for a period of years for raspberries and blackberries.

The President announced that there would be an effort made to extensively advertise the Salem berries. The first crate of berries on the Salem market by the Union would be sold at auction to the highest bidder.

No Church Cars.

Sunday morning there was an interruption of the car service, on account of the fires being banked in the boilers to allow putting in a new valve at the power station. There were no cars until about noon, and the delay was unavoidable. For a time it was thought there was a sympathetic strike on to help out the Seattle strikers, but such was not the case.
