

Socialists In Session

First District Delegates Con- gressional Convention

R. R. RYAN CALLS THE MEETING TO ORDER

Two Candidates for Congressman Pushing Their Re- spective Claims

The Socialists of the First Congressional district held a convention in this city today for the purpose of nominating a candidate for congress. There were in attendance about 50 Socialists. The meeting was held in the Hurst hall, on State street, and had a voting strength of 41, with nearly that number of delegates present.

R. R. Ryan, of this city, called the convention to order at 10 o'clock, and in the temporary organization he was made chairman. W. S. Richards, of Albany, the state secretary of the party, was nominated for secretary. The appointment by the chair of committees on credentials, order of business and resolutions was authorized by the usual motions, and Chairman Ryan announced the following:

Credentials—M. W. Robbins, Josephine county; H. M. Manville, Lane; J. W. Parrish, Lincoln, and Secretary Richards.

Order of business—Thomas Burckman, Coos; J. H. Smith, Marion, and W. J. Wood, Lane.

Resolutions and platform—H. M. Manville, Lane; Wm. Beard, Clackamas; F. P. Morgan, Benton; Carl Huffman, Douglas; M. W. Robbins, Douglas.

At noon an adjournment was taken until 1 o'clock without effecting a permanent organization. The convention will this afternoon take up the matter of nominating a candidate to make the race for congress. There are two candidates for nomination, viz: T. J. McClery, of this county, and W. M. Moore, of Roseburg, Douglas county. Both of the aspirants are prominent labor men.

The temporary organization was made permanent, when the committee on platform reported, which was adopted, as follows:

"We approve our unflinching adherence to principle, and the program of International Socialism by the ballot.

"In presenting our candidate for congress to the working class voters of the first congressional district we base our appeal upon the following declarations as our platform of principles:

1. Labor produces wealth.
2. Under the present economic and political conditions labor's share in the wealth which it creates is merely a mean and uncertain subsistence.
3. So long as the present organization of industry remains the capitalist class will monopolize the machines of production and will appropriate through the wage system, the wealth created by the working class.

4. This appropriation of labor's wealth by the capitalist is so complete that it enables them to live in luxury and idleness.

5. As a necessary consequence of this exploitation of the laborers by the capitalists—this expropriation of all property out of the hands of the toilers into the private ownership of the holders of capital, there is an inevitable war between the interests of the working class on the one hand and the interests of the capitalist class on the other.

6. This class struggle between the wealth-makers and the wealth-takers will endure so long as our present system of production for profit continues.

7. In this conflict between the workers and the capitalists labor is disarmed on the economic side, all the instruments of producing and distributing wealth being owned and controlled by the holders of capital.

8. There is only one weapon with which the working class can successfully oppose the capitalist system—and that is the BALLOT.

9. This fact demands as an inevitable conclusion the organization of the working class into a political party that shall be, everywhere and always, distinct from and opposed to every political party not founded entirely upon the interests of the working class. The Socialist party is organized to meet the demand, and is therefore the party of the working class.

10. The Socialist party, when in office, shall always and everywhere, until the present system of wage-slavery is utterly abolished, make the answer to this question its guiding rule of conduct. Will this legislation advance the interests of the working class and aid the workers in their class struggle against capitalism? If it does, the Socialist party is for it; if it does not, the Socialist party is absolutely opposed to it.

11. That we emphatically and forever oppose and condemn the idea of fusion with either of the old parties, or any other party, and believe in standing out independently and fighting our battles on the line of Socialism.

12. In conclusion, we appeal to all workmen to study the principles of Socialism, to vote with their class at all elections until they overthrow the power of capitalism, abolish industrial classes in society, terminate forever the class struggle and inaugurate the

REPUB. COUNTY MEET

Convention to Name Delegates

Hon. F. T. Wrightman Chosen Chairman

Delegates Selected by a Com- mittee of Five

The Marion county Republican convention was held in the armory at the city hall, this afternoon, for the purpose of naming 22 delegates from this county to the congressional convention, which meets at Eugene on the 9th.

W. J. Culver, chairman of the county central committee, called the convention to order at 1:30 o'clock. E. E. McKinney named F. T. Wrightman for temporary chairman, and, on motion of W. L. Tooze, the election was made permanent. R. A. Crossan moved the name of H. A. Snyder, of Aurora, as temporary secretary, and, on motion of F. A. Turner, the selection was made by acclamation. A. S. Auterson, of Woodburn, was made assistant secretary. Senator Farrar offered appointment of committee of five on credentials. Carried. N. H. Looney, of Jefferson, moved for committee of five to apportion the 22 delegates to the congressional convention. A. N. Moores, Salem No. 2, moved to amend so that the committee should name the 22 delegates, the same to be ratified by the convention. The amendment prevailed, and the original motion, as amended, was carried. Chairman Wrightman announced the following committees:

Credentials—R. A. Crossan, C. W. Youngren, John Lewis, G. E. Hoyt and Scott Jones.

To name delegates—N. H. Looney, E. P. McCormack, W. W. Hall, T. J. Cronise and J. H. Roland.

On motion of Senator Farrar, the convention took a recess of 30 minutes.

Congressional Notes.

The Washington county delegation is anti-Hermann to a man and will vote for any one to defeat Hermann. This may be Vawter, Harris, Kelly, Gatch or Eddy. It was the sense of the convention that Oregon cannot antagonize the Roosevelt administration.

The Republican county convention for Linn county met in the court house, at Albany, Thursday and elected a delegation to the Republican congressional convention for the first congressional district. This delegation was instructed to use every honorable means to secure the congressional nomination for Hon. Percy R. Kelly, of Albany, the unanimous choice of Linn county Republicans.

The Lincoln county primaries were held Thursday and Hermann will have a solid delegation to Eugene.

mind, there could be no more noble, pure or Christlike use for the Salem musicians, elocutions and others to put their talents to than that suggested. Let us send a little of our prosperity to our brothers and sisters across the seas, and set a good example to other towns of Oregon, in remembering the words of Him who said: "Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these ye have done it unto me."

I hope soon to hear that we are to have a colossal entertainment for this purpose, one that will be talked of far and near.

SALEMITE.

Care of the Eyes.

Eyes do not have sufficient care and attention from their owners, especially when one realizes how much is owed to them. An excellent plan is to bathe them and to keep the lids wide open while the ablutio is taking place. To do this a bright silver coin should be tossed into a bowl of clear cold water. It will, of course, sink to the bottom, and when the face is plunged into the water the eyes should be firmly fixed upon the glittering silver bit. Then let the eyes be kept open and the head gently moved from side to side. The women who will persist in this daily bath will soon find that their eyes are brighter and stronger, and it will preserve the sight beyond what is supposed to be its allotted time.

Cold Cuts.

No greater mistake can be made by the housewife in marketing than the purchase of expensive cuts of beef to serve cold, since the portions that cost the most are usually the least juicy. A "plate" or brisket piece of beef boiled slowly until it is tender, turned with its liquor into a bowl and cooled there, will be imbued in its own jelly, and the two sliced together make an attractive and delicious luncheon dish. To make a more solid jelly a knuckle of veal may be boiled with the meat. It should be seasoned after the meat begins to be tender.

To Keep Meat Fresh.

The Japanese way of keeping meat without ice in hot weather is to put the meat in a stone or porcelain vessel and pour boiling water over it. This coagulates the albumen on the surface. They then pour a little oil on the surface of the water, which prevents the air from entering. The meat is said to keep fresh for a couple of days.
