BLIZZARD WELCOMES ROOSEVELT

Spoke to Children at Sioux Falls

South Dakota Congressional Delegation With Him

Speech Yankton was a Brief of Minneapolis Talk

Yankton, April 4.—The President's train ran through a blizzard soon after leaving Sioux Falls. Sleet beat against the car windows until one couldn't see 15 feet. Before leaving Sioux Falls he addressed children in the Auditorium. More than 1000 listened. From Sioux Falls the entire South Dakota congressional delegation rode in the train, and will go to Aberdeen. His speech at Yankton was a condensation of his Minneapolis tariff address.

Sioux Falls, April 6.—The President was up early. Sunday's rest put his voice in excellent condition. There was an exceptionally big crowd for this city.

Mitchell, S. D., April 6.—The scenes attending the passage of the presidential train along the route today were a repetition of those last week. Crowds at every station cheered and waved to the passing train, and every farm house and crossroads had its group of eager watchers. At Yankton the first stop of the day was made, and apparently the entire population of the surrounding country turned out to welcome the President. The station was decorated with American flags, and a band was playing as the train drew up to the station. A similar scene of enthusiasm attended the arrival of the train at this point. In both places the programs arranged were carried out without a hitch. From this city the party proceeds over the Milwaukee road to Edgeley, making a short stop at Aberdeen. Fargo will be reached at an early hour tomorrow morning.

Fargo, N. D., April 6.—This city is in readiness to extend a fitting welcome to President Roosevelt and party, who are scheduled to arrive over the Northern Pacific at 2:40 tomorrow morning. Owing to the early hour there will be no demonstration on the arrival of the train, but after the President has breakfasted he will be formally welcomed by the mayor and a committee of representative citizens. As the stay in Fargo is to be limited to a few hours, there will be little time for extended exercises, and it is probable that a brief speech from the President will be the only feature of the program. In expectation of the distinguished visitor business houses and residences are today assuming holiday attire.

Strike in Holland. Amsterdam, April 6.—The workmen in all branches of transportation, including railways, steamships, docks and depots, struck today. The situation is serious, and troops have been ordered out to protect railroad property along the quay.

Sufficient men were obtained this afternoon to get the mail trains out, but the mail steamers this afternoon are still idle.

WEALTHY WOMAN SUICIDES

Mrs. Mabel Townsend Formerly of San Francisco

Shoots Herself on Her Sisters Door Step

London, April 6.—Mrs. Mabel Townsend, a wealthy and eccentric theatrical character, formerly attached to the Alcatraz, in San Francisco, shot and killed herself on the doorstep of her sister's home, at Litchfield, this morning. A letter was found in her hand, addressed to her sister, but gave no reason.

SULTAN GETTING NERVOUS

Balkan Troubles Drive Him to Distraction

Reports of Increased Unrest Add to His Terror

Berlin, April 6.—The Taagblatt today asserts the Sultan is driven to such a state of distraction that he is capable of committing suicide. He is entirely unnerved. Each report of the increased unrest in the Balkans but adds to his nervousness. At Belgrade, the Servian government does not consider the peninsular situation

Robbed the Church Fair

San Francisco, April 6.—Eighty thousand 50-cent tickets were stolen and sold from the Catholic fair March 17th, and it was not discovered until all the buyers had passed through the door. The church is out of money, and the committee is looking for the thief.

More of the Shamrocks. Weymouth, Eng., April 6.—Shamrocks III and I reached Portsmouth this morning from Glasgow, and are being put in shape for their trial races tomorrow.

Kaiser Heard From. Copenhagen, April 6.—The Kaiser sailed for Kell today at 10 o'clock.
