Emperor, Washes Men's Feet. Vienna, April 9.—Emperor Francis Joseph today performed the annual Holy Thursday foot-washing ceremonial in the presence of the courtiers and the diplomatic corps. After washing the feet of twelve aged men in commemoration of Christ's washing of the feet of His disciples his Majesty served them with dinner and sent them away with gifts of money. The imperial archdukes assisted in the ceremony.

The ceremonial of Maundy Thursday, the day before Good Friday, dates back as far as the fourth century, and is supposed to have been a mandate from the New Testament—John xiii., 34, "to wash each other's feet." It was the early practice for prelates or other eminent persons to wash the feet of twelve beggars on that day. The Pope himself still performs the ceremony by command of the missal the Austrian Emperor, King of Bavaria and other sovereigns of Latin obedience and also the Czar of Russia as head of the Greek church.
