

ARE YOU BID TO THE MARRIAGE?

If you are, you will not, of course, go empty handed and we want to suggest to you that before you choose the wedding gift you will do well to visit the Barr Store. We have a host of beautiful things for you to choose from in Silverware, Cut Glass, Mantel clocks and Jewelry Trinkets and Knickknacks—and also (note this especially) in the new and artistic Kayserum Ware, the "toniest" the most exclusive of tablewares. Not alone does Barr's deserve your suffrage through the beauty and good taste of the goods it has to offer; but our wares are priced on a more modest scale than is usual in stores of this kind. We prefer a growing business to large profits.

Easter Band Concert.

The popularity of Marion square as a place for out-door recreation was in evidence Sunday afternoon when the Salem military band, under the direction of Oscar Steelhammer, gave a concert in the grove. At the same time the need of permanently improving the appearance of the square was noted by the large number of citizens in attendance. When the ladies constituting the membership of the Marion Square Improvement League has completed the work of beautifying this property that is in-contemplation, the square will scarcely be recognized as the long neglected property it now is.

The band gave an excellent program of music appropriate to the season. Under the leadership of Mr. Steelhammer, this musical organization is improving rapidly and is even now a credit to the city. The program yesterday afternoon included the following numbers:

- State National March, F. P. Atherton
- Overture Homoreske, H. O. Wheeler
- Lewis and Clark Centennial March, E. A. Barnes
- Miriam Gavotte, G. D. Bamhard
- "Gem of Steven Foster," overture, T. M. Tobant
- "Our American Bells," march, A. Liberali
- "Murmuring of the Forest," Bouillon
- March "Gates City," A. F. Weldon

The Great Barlow Minstrels.

On next Wednesday evening the above company will appear at the Grand opera house in an innovation of minstrelsy, introducing some of the best "burnt cork" talent in the profession, singers of reputation as well as noted specialty artists, who form the strong Olio with this organization. The magnificent "first part" entitled "A Royal Reception in Beautiful Venice" together with the artistic costumes of Venetian style worn by the entire company, reveals a scenic display seldom witnessed in minstrel opening.

Among the well known comedians whose names will be found among the members of this company are Chas. W. Milton, the Mansfield of Minstrelsy; Jas. Stuart, Walter S. Wilson, (who bears the distinction of being the composer of the popular negro absurdity "Ain't Dat a Shame?") Giles Buttons, Chas. Strong. The Olio, the public may be assured is as strong, if not stronger, than any similar company may present. Seats on sale at boxoffice at 9 a. m. Wednesday.

"Macbeth."

John Griffith, a young man of unmistakable dramatic instinct, and wonderful intelligence, appears here on Tuesday evening, April 14, at the Grand opera house as Macbeth. Mr. Griffith is a recognized star, he is handsome, quick, magnetic and consistent, indicating by swift touches and well toned elocution the meaning of the situation. His reading of Shakespeare's lines is superb, he temers enthusiasm with discretion, giving a deft and artistic conception of the character. Mr. Griffith plays with a dash and agreeable truth, his fine figure, expressive face contribute materially to the character deception, and a deep, modulated voice adds to the general impression of fitness. Seats on sale at boxoffice Tuesday, April 14, 9 a. m.

South Salem Personals.

There was an Easter day family party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Johnson, the mining man, who lives in the Geo. W. Davis residence on Nob Hill, at which there was a happy reunion of all his children, and a number of friends. Besides the family there were present Geo. H. Harris and family, of Polk county; Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Starr, of Salem; Miss Gertrude Johnson, of Albany; Robert Varley, Clair O'Flyng, Miss Pearl Macy, Miss Emma Swartz.

Final Dancing Party.

The Friday Night Club will give its final dancing party of the season in Tioga hall on Friday evening, April 17th. Arrangements are being made by the members to make this party the most elaborate of the season. The best of music has been engaged, and a splendid time is expected, as such is expected whenever this popular organization assumes the role of host. Members of the club are requested to be in attendance. No further notice will be given.

A Novel Entertainment.

The ladies of St. Paul's Episcopal church are planning a delightful entertainment for next week. It is known that the affair will be something out of the ordinary and in addition to being novel will include rare and entertaining features. About a score of Salem's prettiest young women will participate.

ELDER GETS SOLDIER'S HOME

Marion County Gets Important Position

W. W. Elder, of Stayton, was today appointed by Governor Chamberlain to succeed W. J. Shipley, as commandant at the Oregon Soldiers' Home, at Roseburg. Mr. Elder will take charge of the home on May 1st.

Mr. Elder is a well-known resident of this county, and an old soldier, and one of the most prominent Democrats in the county. In 1900 he was the candidate on the Democratic ticket, in this county, for county judge. More recently he has served his home town as city recorder.

Governor Chamberlain also today appointed P. A. Worthington a member of the board of regents of the Weston Normal School, to succeed himself.

Capt. Humphrey Dead.

Capt. N. B. Humphrey died Friday at his rooms in the Franklin House, Albany, of cancer of the throat.

He was born in Louisiana county, Iowa, January 29, 1840, on a farm. He was admitted to the bar at Albia in 1861, and at once enlisted as an orderly sergeant in D. Company, 22d infantry. He was in the ranks nine months when he was elected first lieutenant, and was soon promoted to the captaincy. He was in the front in the battle of Vicksburg, and served bravely through the war, the idol of his company. Of 106 who enlisted in the company only 29 came out alive. He came to Oregon in 1866, and resided at Albany since, except a few years at Pendleton, where he lost a leg. He was district attorney, a member of the state legislature in 1882, and mayor and recorder of Albany. One of the bright men of the state. A wife and one child, resident of Polk county survive him, also two brothers, George, of Portland; Ross, of Blaine, Wash., and three sisters, Mrs. W. Q. Stewart, of this city; Mrs. Hoon, of Walla Walla, and Mrs. Burmaster, of Vandergrift, Pa.

The funeral services were held at the residence of C. H. Stewart Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock, the G. A. R. and the members of the Linn County Bar attending in a body.

REHEARING PETITION DENIED

Henry St Raynor is Permanently Disbarred

The state supreme court today adversely decided the petition for a rehearing in the disbarment proceedings of Henry St. Raynor, of Portland. This ruling of the appellate court finally disposes of the case, and Mr. St. Raynor is permanently disbarred from practicing the legal profession in the courts of this state.

St. Raynor was convicted of having altered the records of the testimony in the celebrated McDaniel murder trial in Portland. He was the attorney for McDaniel, and in making up a transcript of the testimony it was shown at the trial that he caused to be omitted material parts of the evidence offered by the state in prosecuting the charge. By thus altering the testimony it was the intention of the lawyer to secure a reversal by the supreme court of the judgment of the trial court, and get for his client a new trial. McDaniel is now serving a sentence of 15 years for the murder with which he was charged, having been convicted of manslaughter.

Admitted to Bar.

Norton D. Walling, of Klamath Falls, was today admitted to practice in the courts of Oregon by the supreme court.

Morrow County Sheep.

Stock Inspector C. S. Kirk returned last Friday from a 10-days' trip through Sand Hollow, the lower sand country and Rhea Creek, where he has been inspecting sheep, says the Heppner Times.

He reports that while sheep are yet quite thin in these sections, they are strengthening on the new grass. There has been scarcely any feeding in the sand country during the winter, and naturally sheep are rather thin in flesh. But Mr. Kirk says there has been no loss except some old sheep have succumbed as a consequence of old age, rather than from a lack of forage.

He reports some scab among the flocks in the northern end of the county, but that sheep thus affected have been ordered to be dipped as soon as the lambing and shearing season is over. Shearing has been in progress in that section the past two weeks, and lambing is about a thing of the past for the season.

The flocks of Morrow county generally have come through fairly well, considering the long forage feeding season.

Willamette XX University

Miss Minnie Koshmieder, '03, had the serious misfortune last Saturday to lose a portion of her thumb. The first joint was completely severed diagonally across the nail through the bone by the blow of an ax. As Miss Koshmieder is captain of the ladies' basket ball team it will seriously interfere with the remaining ball games of the season.

Rev. Hiram Gould, pastor of the M. E. church at Newberg, led the University Y. M. C. A. yesterday, and was introduced to the students at chapel this morning. Rev. Gould attended the sessions of the Epworth League convention held in Salem last week.

The 26th annual recital of the College of Music and Oratory will take place this evening at the University chapel at 8 o'clock. This is the last recital, but one, of the school year. Everybody invited. Admission free.
