OUTLAW'S CAREER IS ENDED

Chase is Somewhat Similar to That of Tracy

Kills Deputy Sheriff and Marshal, and is Killed

Bakersfield, Cal., April 20.—The long and exciting pursuit of James McKinney, the outlaw, from Kingman, Ariz., ended in a battle with the officers of the law within a few blocks of the business center of this town today, two men being killed and one fatally wounded.

The killed—
JAMES M'KINNEY, outlaw.
WILLIAM E. TIBBETT, deputy sheriff.

Fatally wounded—
Thomas J. Packard, city marshal.

The battle took place in a large, two-story brick building on the outskirts of Chinatown, used by the Chinese members of the Sui Ong Tong as a lodging house, opium den and joshouse. Here McKinney had been secreted for two or three days. He had as a companion Al Hulse, an convict, who, being a member of a Chinese secret society, was enabled to enlist the sympathy of the Orientals in harboring the outlaw.

Shortly before 11 o'clock this morning, Sheriffs Kelley, of Kerns; Collins, of Tulare and Lovin, of Arizona, with Officers Will and Burt Tibbets, Gus Tower and City Marshal Packard, surrounded the house in which McKinney was known to be hiding. Will Tibbets and Packard approached and ordered the outlaw to surrender. McKinney answered by shooting. Will Tibbets was shot through the stomach and died shortly after; Packard was shot through the neck and shoulders and dangerously wounded. Burt Tibbets, a brother of the dead deputy sheriff, shot McKinney through the mouth and neck, killing him.

The house was a regular fort. In the house with McKinney was Al Hulse, a desperado. McKinney had a sawed-off shotgun in his hand, while Hulse used a pistol. Hulse would not obey the order to come out of the barricaded house, and the fire department was ordered to the scene. Hulse then surrendered. He was taken to the county jail.

Another accomplice of McKinney was known to be in the house where the battle took place, but he would not surrender. The building was set on fire, and in 15 minutes the man was smoked out and taken to the jail. The feeling runs very high against Hulse, the evidence tending to show that he is the man whose bullet killed Deputy Sheriff Tibbets. The murdered officer was a popular man, and there is considerable talk tonight of lynching.

Bakersfield, Cal., April 20.—City Marshal T. J. Packard, who was shot in yesterday's battle with the outlaw, McKinney, died this morning at 7 o'clock. He was president of the local Eagles and a prominent Elk.

PRINCE WAS A PAUPER

Athrobald Stuart De Modena, was Just "Bill Brown"

Married a Wealthy Countess and then Disappeared

London, April 17.—The self-styled Prince Athrobald Stuart De Modena, who on December 17th married the former Countess Russell, was today charged with assuming a false name. His real name, the police allege, is William Brown. There was a great furor when he first arrived in London, and he was considered a great matrimonial catch. He lived with his bride 12 days and then disappeared.

Acquitted Him Anyway

Los Angeles, Cal., April 20.—The jury in the case of N. M. Melrose, charged with the murder of W. H. Broome, at Acton, January 19th, disagreed this morning. Melrose is a prominent politician. Eyewitnesses to the murder testified that Melrose shot, beat and kicked Broome, after the latter was fatally wounded and dying.

"The Credit Man's Soliloquy"

To sell or not to sell:
To trust or not to trust:
To bust or not to bust:
"That is the question."
To sell: To trust: Purchase to lose—
Aye, there's the rub!
For when the goods are gone,
What charm can win them back,
From slippery debtors?
What of assignments?
What of exemptions?
What of commissions?
And lawyer's fees,
That eat up even this small pittance?
Yea, well we must,
And some we'll trust,
So join the "Alliance"
And skip the wust,
Or in time we'll surely bust.

Dunsmuir Stands Pat

Victoria, B. C., April 20.—A delegation of miners from the Extension again waited upon Dunsmuir. As representatives of his miners Dunsmuir admitted the delegation. When, in reply to questions, they admitted they belonged to the Western Federation of Miners, and represented a branch, as such he refused to discuss the settlement with them. He informed them he would have nothing to do with them until they withdrew from the Western Federation.
