THE SALEM FRUIT UNION.

The Salem Fruit Grower's Union was perfected last Saturday, in the necessary two-thirds of the members signing up the contracts to pick, pack grade and deliver their fruit through the Union.

Secretary Lloyd Reynolds has statistics as to acreage and yield of strawberries now partially completed and there is no longer any doubt that there will be a larger crop than ever before.

Many of the growers have ordered their crates and hallecks for a large pack from a manufacturer at Whatcom, Wn. Dr. Brown of Stayton and Mr. Mason of Salem were also before the Union with a proposition to manufacture crates here at Salem, and that will probably be accomplished.

The success of the Union the first year will depend on packing only first quality, or even only fancy fruit, getting good transportation facilities and honest direct delivery to good markets.

The board of directors have worked hard to accomplish these results. They will continue to labor to these ends and at the same time make a contract for the delivery of a large product to the Salem cannery. The contract for the delivery of a large product of the Salem cannery. The reputation of Oregon canned goods is first-class and the demand growing. The growers must now look carefully after cultivation and make all preparations for good pickers and good packages. Let all aim for a high standard this time and the result will be a surprise in every way.

THE CONGRESSIONAL SITUATION

The candidates for representative in the national congress are now before the people. They have not made their opening campaign speeches and cannot yet be fully sized up.

Both parties seem to be sparring for position, and trying their alignments and drawing the lines as to management of the impending contest, and seeking to ascertain the issues, and how to meet them.

The weakest point in Hermann's candidate will be the fact that he resigned a lucrative position on account of differences with Hitchcock over the land administration and the frauds charged in the land offices.

Hermann claims that he was persecuted because he stood up for the rights of the settlers, and will vigorously attack some of the rulings of Hitchcock, and show that Hermann was right and Hitchcock was wrong. The strongest point in favor of Hermann will be his record in securing large appropriations for his district. In the last analysis this record will stand him in hand with the people of all parties.

The strongest point about Mr. Reams, the Democratic candidate, is the fact that he has no record and no legislative experience that can be attacked, and that he is the late Tom Tongue's son-in-law.

The weak point about Reams is that there is not a Democratic county in the district and if elected this year he would be retired next year and the district would be practically unrepresented.

Other strong and weak points of the candidates will be brought out and it will be interesting to note how they will be met and answered.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR CONVENTION.

The next national convention of the American Christian Endeavor societies will be held at Denver this year, July 9-13.

To be more correct this will be the 21st International convention of this organization of Christian co-workers with the churches.

H. B. Smith, chairman of the committee on press and publicity, sends out a detailed bulletin to all newspapers asking their co-operation.

Of course, there will be reduced rates on the railroads and at the hotels and the city of Denver is a wide-awake city, noted for its hospitality.

Flags, buttons and posters will be distributed by the million to rouse enthusiasm of the visitors to the highest pitch.

WHEELS OFF THE WALKS.

The Journal believes that by May first it would be a good plan to have all the sidewalks in this city cleared of bicycles, tricycles, motor cycles, or any other kind of go-devil wheel.

This would be a great inconvenience to some wheelmen who ride at a moderate speed and always get off off when they meet foot passengers, and who never ring their bell to scare ladies out of their wits.

But the stand must be made some time and the sidewalks cannot be forever used by wheelmen. There is no city the size of Salem that permits walks to be used for cycling. Let us quit May first.

DEATH OF JOHN HUGHES.

Without the usual demonstrations of a large public funeral, there was a general expression of high regard for the worthy citizen who has just been laid to rest.

As a pioneer he bore his part in being a good self-sustaining man, the founder of a family, and a man who set the community a good example by his morality, industry and patriotism.

Not inclined to be visionary, he yet had the larger faith in others that alone makes for progress and civilization. Amassing an ample fortune, he was also willing to part with wealth for improvements that were beneficial to others.

He set high standards of personal economy and yet spent money liberally to give advantages to his children—holding them close to home and still willing to give them a larger opportunity than he had enjoyed.

In his christianity, in business and in politics Mr. Hughes was unassuming, doing many acts of a generous nature that were never made public, and the first final summing up a better man in reality than in reputation.

He was a living illustration of the old saying that public repute and character are two propositions, the former often unjustly out-classing the latter. Mr. Hughes was a man of real stability and independence of character.

PUBLIC OFFICIALS AND PARTY POLITICS.

The Salem Statesman is inclined to censure Governor Chamberlain because he declines to go and make campaign speeches for young Reames, who is running for congress in this district.

Governor Chamberlain takes the ground that he is governor, not for a faction or party, but "for all the people," and that it would be unbecoming to the dignity of his office to take the stump.

Governor Chamberlain is right in this position, because he was elected by the votes of people of all parties, and especially of Republicans, who resented the way that Furnish was nominated by Jack Matthews.

At the end of his term, if Governor Chamberlain shall be a candidate for re-election he can properly go before the people and make a campaign, reviewing his own administration and accounting for his stewardship.

The Statesman is reminded of the fact that Governor Chamberlain was elected because he did not make Democratic speeches on the tariff and imperialism, but confined himself to state issues.

The Statesman again errs when it says that Roosevelt is making "speeches every day that are helping the Republican party." The speeches may be helping the Republican party incidentally, but no one has accused Roosevelt of making Republican campaign speeches.

Roosevelt has stated what the administration he is at the head of has done in certain great lines of responsibility, and that is what the people are entitled to know. If he has strengthened the position of himself and party, it is because he has had a basis of facts and achievements that have become part of the national history. It seems to us that both Chamberlain and Roosevelt are keeping strictly within the lines of their duty as officials, and toward party politics.

JOURNAL X-RAYS.

Oh, advertising, the charming sound,
What potency in the name;
An endless crop of suckers found,
The multitudes are easy game.

The very word lures shekels forth,
And works in thousand ways;
Tells the world your glorious worth
For cash it sounds your praise.

The average man's an easy catch
On any scheme to advertise;
Unfold your scheme and dollars snatch
Before his dazzled, eager eyes.

No matter if the ad's never seen
Or misspelled on some fence;
The gulls you catch are ever-green,
To other fields you lie you hence.

Ex-Congressman Moody of The Dalles has secured a final order for payment of the last dividend of five per cent on the national bank that failed there. The depositors got paid 100 cents on the dollar and interest in full on their deposits, although the stockholders and managers of the bank sacrificed about $50,000. This is a strange way to run a bank, judged from some standards, but it speaks volumes for the character of the men behind The Dalles bank. The name of Moody will not be thought of with less respect on account of this way of doing business.

It has become quite a fad with Salem men to spend a few days occasionally at Newport. The ordinary man can always be sure of getting more to eat over there than he gets at home.

Optimism is a good working philosophy of life, if you just add to it the certainty of having a good supply of potatoes and cabbage in the garden.

HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS

is entitled to the highest praise as a family medicine if you judge it by its merit and record of cures during the past fifty years. No other remedy can take its place because it is the best that science can produce as a cure for Belching, Heartburn, Indigestion, Bloating, Dyspepsia, Insomnia, and Nervousness. It is also an excellent tonic and blood purifier. Don't fail to try it. It has never been known to fail.

April showers and May flowers will be in abundance, and of course, it will rain the day the president comes.

Dandruff Caused by a Germ That Saps the Hair's Vitality.

It is now a settled fact that dandruff is caused by a germ. Falling hair and baldness are the result of dandruff. Dr. E. J. Beardale, of Champaign, Ill., got hold of the new hair preparation, Newbro's Herpicide—the only one that kills the dandruff germ. He says: "I used Herpicide for my dandruff, and I am well satisfied with the result." Dr. J. T. Fugate of Urbana, Ill., says: "I have used Herpicide for dandruff with excellent results. I shall prescribe it in my practice." Herpicide kills the dandruff germ. Physicians as well as the general public say so.

The head contains the brain, in case there are any. The thorax contains the heart and lungs, also the liver and lights. The abdomen contains the bowels, of which there are five—a, e, l, o, u, and sometimes w and y. The legs extend from the body to the floor, and have hinges at the top and middle, which enable a fellow to sit when standing or stand when sitting.—Ex.

THE PERPETUAL WAR

There is always a fight going on in every human body between health and disease. On one side are poor food, bad air, over-work, worry, colds, accidents. On the other are sunshine, rest, cheerfulness and nourishment.

The reason Scott's Emulsion fights so powerfully for health is because it gives so much more nourishment than you can get in any other way. Get in the sunlight and try Scott's Emulsion.

Dr. J. F. Cook

Has come to the conclusion that all profession of the healing side of the vegetable kingdom is a failure. When your system is without pure blood. You will only find vitality in the vegetable kingdom. Poisonous drugs nor doctors' knives nor thunder lightning will not remove the cause, but lay the foundation for a disease. Those poisons go into your bones, and kill the life of and create all kinds of diseases, cancerous tumors, consumption, bone diseases, etc. You must bear in mind that his medicine is a poisonous tonic, nor a stimulant, nor temporary relief which you get from poisonous drugs, where the results are sure death sooner or later. Blame the medicine, when it takes an effect and stirs up the disease in the system. You must not expect to be cured in a day. Your sickness or disease has been a long time coming on, and it will take a long time to get it out of your system. It will take months to build a new body from the bones up. This is what the people do not understand. They are used to being humbugged. His medicines are composed of Nature's Herbs—what the human system requires. When you get sick they will help themselves to those herbs, for they have a stinct, and the people have not, so we have to make a study of it. It has been a life study with Dr. Cook. Do not get weary; this life is too long and too sweet to worry out of this world.
