

WANT A JOINT DEBATE

Democratic Campaign Managers Challenge

Want to Meet Hermann in a Series of Meetings

Eugene, Or., April 27.—(Special.)—The following challenge to Binger Hermann, on behalf of Reames, was issued today from the Democratic headquarters by Chairman Sam White:

"Dr. T. W. Harris, Chairman Republican Congressional Committee First District of Oregon:

"Dear Sir: For reasons that will be obvious to you, and that will appeal with equal force both to Democrats and Republicans, we have the pleasure in extending to the Hon. Binger Hermann, on behalf of Hon. E. A. Reames, an invitation for a joint debate, the itinerary of which is to cover so much of the district as remaining time will permit. Trusting that the foregoing may meet your approval, we remain."

McKinley National Memorial.

Postmaster Edwin Hirsch has received from the McKinley National Memorial Association a limited supply of certificates, which have been prepared for distribution to contributors to the monument fund, as souvenirs of their participation in that great enterprise. The certificate is a beautiful work of art, on which is given an excellent reproduction of Mrs. McKinley's favorite likeness of her husband, together with a picture of the McKinley home in Canton and the White House. The wording below the illustrations is as follows:

"This certifies that has contributed to the fund for the erection of the national memorial at Canton, Ohio, in honor of William McKinley."

The workmanship and artistic effects are of the very highest order, the great house of Tiffany & Co., New York, being the designers and manufacturers. The supply in the hands of Postmaster Ed. Hirsch is a portion of the first edition of the certificates, and is sent here to enable those who have not as yet contributed to do so. Parties who have already identified themselves with the movement will receive souvenirs direct from the office of the association, or through local committees.

Shanghaied Himself.

Eight years in the penitentiary is the sentence imposed by Judge McBride, at Astoria, on Paddy Lynch, who was convicted of shanghaiing a man named Gaudner. It seems like a severe sentence, but when one stops to think that for a few dollars this disreputable wretch would send some poor devil half way round the world, separating him from his family and from his business, it is, if anything, too light. The superintendent of the penitentiary should give him the job of holy-stoning the floor for his full term. Lynch arrived here this morning and began serving his term. His dupe and man Friday, Tobiasson, who is to serve one year, was brought up with him.

To Break Wood Famine.

Last week Salem wood dealers were unable to supply families with stove wood of any kind. The slab-wood supply was exhausted, and the only fuel for sale was a little lath trimmings, left over from a former season. The dealers began to draw on green cuttings, and sawed up some. Today Ernest W. Arnes, of Woodburn, came up to break the famine, and offered to ship in big body fir at $2.25, free on board the cars at Woodburn. He has 2000 cords of all kinds of wood. Freight is about 90 cents a cord from Woodburn to Salem. He has 16-inch stove wood, split and ready to use, that he will put on the cars at Woodburn for $3.75, three tiers to the cord. If the famine at Salem continues consumers may have to ship wood to burn from Woodburn.

And of Course the Boy who Shouldn't Found it

Careless Workmen Leave Dangerous Explosives

Chester Willard, the 13-year-old son of Mrs. Joe Willard met with a serious accident yesterday. While playing around the rock crusher, near Liberty, he found a dynamite cap, which had been carelessly left attached to a piece of fuse. He lighted the fuse, and before he could throw it the cap was discharged, causing the loss of two fingers and the thumb of the right hand and one finger on the left.

Difficult Digestion

That is dyspepsia. It makes life miserable. Its sufferers eat not because they want to—but simply because they must.

They complain of a bad taste in the mouth, a tenderness at the pit of the stomach, a feeling of puffiness, fullness, headache, heartburn and what not.

Hood's Sarsaparilla cured Joseph P. Lafne, Flanagan, Ky., who writes: "I was troubled with dyspepsia for a number of years and took medicine that did me no good. I was advised by friends to try Hood's Sarsaparilla which I did and it put my bowels in perfect condition, gave me strength and energy and made me feel like a new person."

Hood's Sarsaparilla Promises to cure and keeps the promise. Beware of substitutes. Buy Hood's and only Hood's.

The boy was brought into town, and taken to the Salem hospital, where his wounds were dressed, and he was made as comfortable as possible. It is almost criminal carelessness to leave dynamite where children can find it, and in this case the boy's misfortune is due, in part, to the carelessness of those employed by the county. Something should be done to assist the mother, who is little able to bear the expense.

Supreme Court Notes.

Three opinions were handed down by the supreme court this afternoon. The following cases were decided: J. W. Miller, et al., respondent, vs. Minerva E. Hilgar, Jacob A. Hilgar, and Amanda Bates, appellants; from Jackson county; H. K. Hanna, Judge; affirmed; opinion by Chief Justice Moore.

E. Mendenhall and E. R. Mendenhall, respondents, vs. Rush Mendenhall, appellant; appeal from Multnomah county; motion overruled; opinion by Justice Wolverton.

City of Portland, municipal corporation, respondent, vs. The Oregon Real Estate Company, appellant; from Multnomah county; Hons. M. C. George, Alfred F. Sears, Jr., and J. B. Cleland, judges; reversed and remanded; opinion by Justice Wolverton.

This suit was instituted to collect the amount assessed against abutting property of the Oregon Real Estate Company by the city of Portland, for repairs made upon an elevated roadway.

LEO JACKS ESCAPED

But it May Cost Him His Life

Broke Both Legs and Fractured His Jaw

Leo Jacks, a 13-year-old lad, tried to escape from the state reform school early Sunday morning and in the attempt was probably fatally injured.

Jacks and a companion made a rope of their blankets and sheets, and tying one end to the bed dropped the other out of a window, on the third floor. Jacks undertook to climb down, and when within 24 feet of the ground the make-shift rope broke. He struck a cement sidewalk, breaking both legs above the knee. His lower jaw was fractured, and he may have sustained internal injuries.

He was brought to the Salem hospital, where he is receiving every attention.

Jacks was brought to the reform school from Portland, but his parents now reside in California. He is a half brother of Otto Skibbe, the high diver, of Astoria, who was terribly mangled under a freight train near Salem over a year ago, but afterwards recovered.

Has Tyner's Position

Washington, April 27.—Robb, assistant attorney-general Vermont, was this morning appointed assistant attorney-general postoffice, vice General Tyner, who was summarily dismissed on ground that his wife has alienated official papers from the department. Robb's appointment is temporary and Payne announces it will be at least 30 days before a permanent successor is named. The papers over to the postoffice department yesterday by Tyner's attorneys were morning transmitted to the department of justice. It will be the attorney-general to decide whether or not an action can be brought against Tyner or his wife, or whether Mrs. Barrett.

Instinct is the Teacher

There is a school of the woods, just as much as there is a church of the woods, or a parliament of the woods, or a Society of United Charities of the woods; and no more; there is nothing in the dealings of animals with their young that in the remotest way suggests human instruction and discipline. The young of all the wild creatures do instinctively what their parents do and did. They do not have to be taught; they are taught from the jump. The bird sings at the proper age, and builds its nest, and takes its appropriate food, without any hint at all from its parents. The young ducks take to the water when hatched by a hen, and dive and stalk insects, and wash themselves just as their mothers did. Young chickens and young turkeys understand the various calls and signals of their mother the first time they hear or see them.

At the first alarm note they squat, at a call to food they come on the first day as on the tenth. The habits of cleanliness of the nestlings are established from the first hour of their lives. When a bird comes to build its nest and to rear its first brood, it knows how to proceed, as well as it does years later or as its parents did before it. The fox is afraid of a trap before he has had any experience with it, and the hare thumps upon the ground at anything strange and unusual, whether its mates be within hearing or not. It is true that the crows and the jays might be called the spies and informers of the woods, and other creatures seem to understand the meaning of their cries, but who shall presume to say that they have been instructed in this vocation? Mr. Long would have us believe the crows teach their young to fly. He might as well say that the rooster teaches its young to crow or that the cock grouse teaches its young to fly. They are instinctively when their wings are strong enough.—Atlantic Monthly.

Notice. There will be a meeting of all those interested in baseball at Justice of the Peace Horgan's office tonight at 7 o'clock. Important business.

Ernest Alexander Stauff, a photographer, 27 years old was received at the asylum yesterday from Coos county. He has been rather peculiar for several years, but never had a decided attack of insanity until within the past two weeks.

DUE NOTICE IS SERVED. Due notice is hereby served on the public generally that DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve is the only salve on the market that is made from the pure, unadulterated witch hazel.
