Chicago, May 23.—What is believed to be the biggest "get-rich quick" scheme ever set in operation was nip-ped this morning by the police raids on George E. Sullivan's Red Letter Stock and Grain Company, Detectives have been investigating for a week past, Millions of circulars sent broadcast induced investors, by alleged fraudulent representations to invest in stock, grain and cotton futures. When they wanted to withdraw they were informed that the money had been lost. The alluring circulars were always printed in red, hence were called red letter reports. During the police surveillance $50,000 were re ceived in less than two weeks. A few days ago Sullivan sent out 2,000,000 circulars and telegrams to intended An immense amount of drafts, checks and remittances commenced flowing in yesterday, which led the police to believe that Sullivan was preparing a big haul, anticipating flight. They made a descent on the luxurious offices this morning. Three of these down town were crowded with richly dressed women and spec-tators of all ages. There was hysteria and a panic. More than 100 persons were arrested, including Sullivan, and 25 girl stenographers. There were also many telegraph operators and speculators of both sexes. Sullivan locked himself in his private office, but the police battered lown the door. A long line of patrol wagons was necessary to carry the prisoners. The police then cut all the telegraph wires leading to the offices, and carted away a ton of literature. The concern had leased wires operating in nearly every city of any import-ance from Portland, Me., to Omaha on the West. It is estimated that he has already obtained more than $1,000,000. He had members on the open board of trade at New York: the consolidated stock exchange of Boston, and the mining and stock ex-change, Sullivan was a former tele-graph operator

Willamette 22 XX University Everybody was happy after the de sate, particularly the freshmen, for bate, particularly the resamen, for this was their second victory this year. Even the High School boys were in good humor, for they accept ed their defeat gracefully, and proved to be jolly good fellows at the re-continue. eption

The invited guests gathered at the society halls after the contest to spend a social hour. The halls were taste-fully decorated with freshmen and High School colors; around on the walls were seen alternating " "66" and "P. H. S." pennants. Here and there the corners were filled out with roses and snowballs.

The time was spent in congratulat-ing the freshman team, and telling each other how the debate was won Delicious refreshments were served by the freshman girls and it was long past faculty hours when the guests took their depatrure. The following were present: Misses Rigdon, Clark, Lee, Stowell, Van Wagner, Scoville,
