

BASE BALL SCORE

Salem Wins Two More Games From Albany's Team

Now at the Head of the List With a Good Lead--and Albany a Good Second

Willamette Valley League.

Saturday's score—Salem 7, Albany 6.
 Roseburg 25; Eugene 6.
 Sunday's score—Salem 4; Albany 2.
 Roseburg 15; Eugene 10.

Team	Won	Lost	Perc.
Salem	6	2	.750
Roseburg	5	3	.625
Albany	3	5	.375
Eugene	2	6	.250

There was nothing doing in yesterday's game up to the fourth inning; one or two hits, but mostly strike-outs. In the first half of the third inning things opened up with two errors for Hamilton, each one putting a man on a bag, then Devine made his only error, and gave another "Home-spu" a bag. Rupert faced Morris, with a "Home-spu" on every base. His red hair was standing on end with importance. He met one of Morris' curves, Hamilton failed to meet the ball, Whitney scored, and it looked as though they would all score, but before the crowd could swallow their hearts, which were in their throats, Bilyeu went out coming home, and Salem went to the bat with the score 1 to 0 in Albany's favor. Every man hit the ball, but Albany's infield never failed to get it to first before the runner. Albany did no better in the first half of the next canto, and things were beginning to look blue for the "Ragians," when Si Davis waddled over to the pan and faced Bilyeu. Si hit a seam in the first one Bilyeu threw, and the ball never stopped until it was outside the fence.

Did the crowd yell?
 Yes, the crowd yelled, and they were still yelling when Si came home with a five-yard smile on his face. It was the only home run of the day, and tied the score. Sumner and Teabo struck out, and Saunders ended the inning by driving a grass-cutter to the shortstop, but it was a sure out.

At the end of the fifth inning the score remained the same, and Albany failed to do the business in the first half of the sixth. In the last half, however, Morris started things by landing a two-bagger, and then, with two men out, the "Ragians" managed to make three runs, making the score 4 to 1. When Jerman ended the inning by fanning, Hamilton was left on second.

In the next canto Porter, of Albany, scored on a two-bagger by Bilyeu. In this inning Teabo threw high to Downie on second, but he went up in the air and pulled it down, making one of the prettiest catches of the day. Downie and Drager fanned in the last half of this inning, and Saunders went out by being hit by a batted ball.

Kell started the eighth by a long hit into center field; Weatherford sacrificed; Rupert got a hit into right field, and tried to steal second, but Teabo and Morris were too quick for him. Ashby fanned, leaving Kell on third. The "Ragians" failed to get a man to first in their half, and Albany took their last chance at the bat, with the score 4 to 2. Every man hit the ball, but Porter was the only one to make first. Bilyeu ended the game by going out on a drive to second. The "Ragians" were satisfied, and did not take their turn at the bat.

The day was cloudy, but warm, and with no wind, was an ideal ball day. There was a good attendance, and the crowd never failed to applaud a good play. The game was devoid of wrangling and disputes, and the best of feeling prevailed. The following is the official score:

SALEM WOOD SUPPLY

Large Stocks of Slab Wood Being Shipped in From the South

Some of the largest wood consumers at Salem are shipping in slab wood from Eugene and other points, where the Booth-Kelly Company has sawmills. The state has bought one lot of 2000 cords, laid down at $1.95. The freight is $1.20 per cord, and there is to be a further reduction on that, and wood will be lower.

The local wood famine continues, and prices for best fir and oak are considered very high. The prices range from $4.00 to $5.50 per cord. There is a large cut being put up in the woods, but not near what the city will need, and cord wood will bring good prices all fall and winter.

Difficult Digestion

That is dyspepsia. It makes life miserable. Its sufferers eat not because they want to—but simply because they MUST.

They complain of a bad taste in the mouth, a tenderness at the pit of the stomach, a feeling of puffy fullness, headache, heartburn and what not.

Hood's Sarsaparilla cured Joseph F. Laine, Finnegan, Ky., who writes: "I was troubled with dyspepsia for a number of years and took medicine that did me no good. I was advised by friends to try Hood's Sarsaparilla which I did and it put my bowels in perfect condition, gave me strength and energy and made me feel like a new person."

FRUIT GROWERS UNION

Handled First Fruit for Shipment at Salem Today

Demand for Firstclass Shipping Fruit is Very Active—First Shipments Being Made

The Salem Fruit Union had a meeting Friday afternoon, at which a scale of prices was adopted for cannery products. There was also a resolution adopted looking to a conference with the representatives of the retail trade.

The first crates of strawberries were brought in today for shipment, and there is a strong demand at Portland for Salem berries. The volume of shipment this week will become large, and the Union headquarters are becoming quite animated. Frank Davis is the local representative of the Pierson-Page Co., at Portland, and the south half of the Illihee Club block will be set apart to handle the Salem Fruit Union products. A large sign in red, white and blue announces the fact that the Salem Fruit Union is in existence and doing business.

One of the board of directors was seen this morning, and said he was convinced the Union would do a large and profitable business. The reputation of the Union must be established this season for fine shipping berries. All the members of the Union are urged to pack their finest and earliest fruit, and let it go through the Union to establish the Salem Fruit Union label in the larger markets of the Northwest. Hood River berries are $4.00 a crate in the Portland market, and all the early berries that can be put through the Union will help the grower make a profit, and build up the Union product.

Manager Davis makes an especial appeal to members of the Union to make a special effort to put up a fine pack for shipment this week, as that is necessary to get into the markets of the Northwest on a large scale.

Geo. F. Mason is manufacturing crates on a large scale, and supplying all demands at his shop in South Salem.

The Fruit Union headquarters will Tuesday morning have a supply of strawberry hallocks and tin-top boxes at wholesale prices.

Saturday morning, as Drs. Byrd and Smith were driving down Chemeketa street, their horse became frightened by Mr. Wilson's automobile. The reins were new, and Dr. Byrd, who was driving, could not hold the animal, and near Church street the buggy was overturned, throwing both gentlemen to the ground.

The horse ran across the street and stopped. Mr. Wilson shut down his assistance, but neither of the gentlemen were hurt. The horse received a few scratches, and the buggy was only slightly damaged.

Another accident occurred in front of The Journal office Saturday afternoon. A horse driven by Mrs. Newt Lewis, with her two little boys, became frightened, and commenced plunging. The buggy became locked with another from an opposite direction, and Mrs. Lewis' buggy was overturned, throwing the occupants into the road. One of the boys was stunned, and Mrs. Lewis was badly frightened.

The horses were caught by the bystanders, and the rig righted. One wheel of Mrs. Lewis' buggy was badly demolished.

WENT THROUGH IN THE DARK

Southern Pacific Excursion Train was not Lighted Muchly

A number of citizens have complained at the way the Southern Pacific excursion trains were run through the city Sunday night. The second section is reported to have only the first two coaches lighted, all the rest of the train of some 16 coaches, jammed full of people, being in darkness. The cars were full of men, women and young people, and many of them were drunk, and pickpockets abounded. It is not likely that the trainmen or the company could prevent these things entirely, but it is censurable, from a public standpoint, to leave the cars in the dark, and will tend to keep the more decent class of people from patronizing such excursions, and it is really to the interest of the excursion managers to keep such trains properly lighted.

Major Clark to be Here

Major Wm. Hancock Clark and wife, of Washington, D. C., will be in the city next Thursday and Friday, accompanied by Mrs. Edith Tozier-Weathered. Major Clark is the oldest son of the oldest son of Capt. Wm. Clark, of the Lewis and Clark expedition, and is touring the coast. It is expected that the Woman's Lewis and Clark Club, of this city will give the distinguished descendant of Capt. Clark an opportunity to meet Salem citizens.

HERMANN WILL BE ELECTED

Pluralities Ranging From 2000 to 4000 Claimed

Total Vote Likely to be Short From Twenty to Forty Percent Some Democratic Claims

Dr. Harris, the congressional district chairman for the Republican party, at Eugene, is confident of the election of Binger Hermann. He does not concede any counties to Reames, the Democratic candidate, except Linn and Jackson, and they are closely contested.

He figures that Hermann will have from 2000 to 2500 majority, and that there will be a decreased Socialist vote, with some possible gains among the Prohibitionists.

The Portland Journal, which has made the campaign for Reames, although unfair and unreliable at times, claims the election of the Democratic candidate, and says Reames will carry Jackson county by 800.

The Oregonian publishes figures giving Hermann all the counties in the district, except Linn and Jackson, and a majority of 3900.

At Salem there is a good deal of talk about a light vote. The Democratic vote is going straight for Reames, and was got out early. Most of the talk about a light vote was from Republicans, and there is some disaffection apparent.

Voting on the Square.
 Marion square was utilized for election purposes, by putting the polling booths in the hand stand, after numerous protests on the part of the Ladies' Civic Improvement League. The old engine house, which has been used in the first ward in the past, has been removed, and hence the authorities had to find a new place.

A Beautiful Day.
 Reports show that there was beautiful weather all over the state, and this is believed to be favorable to Reames, as there will be a larger vote-out in the thinly settled country precincts that are most strongly Democratic. Hermann's strength is largely in the towns. It is estimated that there will be a falling off of from 20 to 40 per cent in the total vote of the district.

May Get a Hat.
 At Salem Tilton Ford made an estimate of four thousand majority for Hermann in the district. The Journal man, who was also out on the canvass some, estimated the Hermann majority at not over two thousand. "If he don't get nearer four thousand than he does two thousand, I'll buy you a fine silk hat, if you'll wear it to
