ing day, and will be marked by a grand street parade, balloon ascension, and in the evening the reception and coronation of the Queen of the Carnival and her court, and by the inaugural address of one of Oregon's distinguished citizens whose name will appear later.

Tuesday.
"Baby Day" and every mother, and every dimpled autocrat under three years of age, will be present, seeking the handsomest prizes to be awarded to the youngsters.

Wednesday.
Will be given over to the public wedding, with $50 cash prizes to the happy contracting couples.

Thursday.
This will be "Fraternity Day," and the 30 lodges of Salem will have charge of the program.

Friday.
Will also be "Fraternity Day," and every organization in Oregon will be asked to participate in events of interest with valuable prizes for all, and an unprecedented program for amusements for the thousands that will be present.

Saturday.
This will be the greatest day of all, and the program will be a fitting one for celebrating America's independence.
