The Kind You Have Always Bought

Bad News Received.

J. L. Freedland, the State-street business man, today received the sad news of the death of his mother, Mrs.
Mary A. Freedland, at Fairmount, Ill., aged 82 years.

No Menace to Concert.

The Menace Concert at Salem has been withdrawn, as it was found impossible to get a house in competition with Mrs. Willman's program at the Grand Opera House, and in deference to that lady, the Menace's date has been canceled.

SLAVES
TO THEIR
DOLLARSHave so Much Money They Can't Have a HolidayMorgan, Rockefeller, Russell Sage and Jim Keene Stay at Home While Their Clerks goThere are six slaves in New York City this year, who will not take a summer vacation. In vain the bewitching Adirondacks and the health-giving Catskills may beckon to these drudging serfs.The cool lakes and trout streams of New England will not freshen their spirits nor animate them with a new lease of life. These six toilers are chained to their desks. The cross of labor bears heavily upon them.
The dim office is their prison, and their dollars are their relentless masters.Clerks may take vacations and enjoy life while it is passing, but not so with these imprisoned slaves. Farmers, mechanics, business and professional men may take their merry families to resorts, and mountains—not so with these driven drudges.In Wall street these six slaves have their offices and own, among them, $300,000,000. They know no rest nor recreation. They feel no freedom from the awful task of guarding their holdings and at their heels, day and night, they hear the demon of greed, and feel the smart of his goad stick, whenever the thought of a vacation comes in to their minds.The richest and puniest of this sextest is John D. Rockefeller, worth $300,000,000. His only diversion is golfing and he is so wasted by excessive mental strain that he can only half play the game, and never takes a long vacation.George Jay Gould, who owns $100, 000,000, will not take a vacation this summer. His increasing business will demand his attention. His stenographers, who get from $12 to $20 per week, will spend two weeks each in the Catskills.John W. Gates, the free lance of Wall street, worth $20,000,000, aged 54, loves poker, horse racing and theaters, and is a fiend on matching pennies with the office boys. He cannot spare time to rest this year.Russell Sage, the chief miser of American miserdom, owns $100,000, 000, and is never so happy as when cutting down living expenses. He is 86 years old and works harder every day in the year than any clerk in his employ. When asked recently where he would spend his vacation, he laid his hand upon an oak desk before which he has sat for 50 years.Jim Keene, the rival of Harriman, the shrewd, keen, far-seeing, unfeeling prince of financiers, has a wonderful vitality and at 60, does not feel that he can spare time from his $25,000,000 fortune to breathe the country air for a week.And not the least among this group of pitiful slaves, is the great John Pierpont Morgan, with a private fortune of $60,000,000, and head of the most gigantic combine of capital on earth.While some of his greatest schemes are conceived while resting, away from financial cares, he will console himself to his growing business this year and will dock his clerks for time they will lose on a two week's vacation.The man on medium ground is the happy man, after all. The extreme of wealth is as pitiful as the extreme of poverty. In the one, a man wastes his life pining for relief from his surfeit; in the other, a man wastes his life pining for the bare necessities. At the last, the to be down naked, side by side, and the turf is levelled over them, and the world rolls round and round—Poor Christians.

Suffered 8 Months

I can heartily recommend Acker's Tablets for dyspepsia and stomach troubles. I have been suffering for eight months, and tried many remedies without any relief, until I got Acker's Dyspepsia Tablets, which I used only a short time, and am now perfectly well. Thinking you for the speedy recovery, I am gratefully yours, Francis L. Gander, Vancouver,

THE QUALITY STORECarnival of WhiteOUR GREAT CARNIVAL OF WHITEThe sale of white opened yesterday with much enthusiasm. We knew it would because of the fact that our collection of white stuffs is by far the largest in the valley. The demand for white fabrics of all sorts will be even greater this year than last. Yes, white reigns and where is there anything prettier and daintier and cooler than white? There are so many new things in white this season, and they're all here too, at white sale prices. Everything white is included in this Carnival. Make out your lists and come to the white
