PORTLAND JOURNAL

In its Efforts to be Fair to Everybody

Adolescent Attempts Don't Succeed Quite as Well as it Doubtless Intended

The Portland Journal has tried hard to imitate its esteemed namesake at Salem, but has not always quite fully succeeded, as is evident from the following telegram and election return appended:

(Eugene Register, May 31.) Wendling, May 30 .- Col Hofer was billed for a speech here this evening and it being Memorial day he delivered a patriotic address reviewing the great national and international achievements of the present administration urging the old soldiers and patriotic citizens to hold in high regard their duties as American citizens.

Mr. Hofer digressed long enough to expose the unfair methods of the Portland Journal in making the Reames campaign by misrepresentation and slander. Here is a sample finest crop of strawberries ever grown in the Journal of May 27 reporting the Junction meeting where the Journal makes Hofer say:

"Roosevelt is a dangerous man. If he is nominated he will get lots son this morning that attracted cnow what the devil we will do." Now what Hofer did say was:

"Roosevelt is a dangerous man" pause, "for the Democrats,"

BENNETT CAMP OF VETERANS

Met Tuesday and Elected Officers and Delegates

Bennett Camp of Indian War Vetrans met Tuesday and elected officers as follows: Charles Calvert, captain, and J. G. Wright, orderly sergeant. The meeting was well attended, and much interest was taken in the matter of who will be our next grand commander.

It was decided the camp would recognize no man for that position whose service is not recognized by the United States government.

John G. Wright, Wm. Townsend and J. H. Elgin were elected delegates to the grand encampment, which will be held in Portland, June 16th.

A vote of thanks was given to Adjutant-General Gantenbein for speedy adjustment of our claims, but we are at a loss to know why the secretary of state will not honor our vouchers on presentation with check, as the law requires he should. #. H. ELGIN.

As H. M. Cooper was unloading top yesterday from a car near the freight depot, his team became frightened at a train awitching in the yard, and started to run. Mr. Cooper did not let go of the lines, and managed to stop them, by running into the Salem Flouring Mill Company's elevator. There was no damage done.
