

DISGRUNTLED.

Men Who Manufacture Misery.

The disgruntled man, the man who is sulky and dissatisfied under all conditions and circumstances, is to be found everywhere. Even at the sea side where he has gone for rest and recreation you'll find him sulky and grumpy, grumbling at the weather, the people, the hotel accommodations, the board, and everything else. His scowling, sullen visage checks the flow of talk at the table, and hushes the prattle of playing children. Now and again one gossip says to another "The old chap's liver must be out of order." Somebody else says, "Perhaps he's suffering from kidney trouble." And a majority incline to the opinion that it's "just dyspepsia." And as it happens they are all of them right. His liver is sluggish. His kidneys are disordered. His blood is necessarily poisoned, by accumulations of effete matter. And last of all his stomach is "out of order." This is another case in which in the logical sequence of statement

THE LAST IS FIRST.

The liver is sluggish because the stomach is diseased. The kidneys are disordered because the stomach and its allied organs of digestion and nutrition are "weak" and cannot supply adequate nutrition for the needs of the body. How do we know this? Because in so many cases, persons who have suffered with disease of heart, liver, lungs, kidneys, etc., have found these diseases entirely cured, when Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has cured diseases of the stomach and the other organs of digestion and nutrition.

"I was afflicted with what the doctors called nervous indigestion. Took medicine from my family physician to no avail. In looking over one of Doctor Pierce's Memorandum Books," writes Mr. Thos. G. Lever, of Lever, Richland Co., S. C., "I found my case described exactly. I wrote to you and made a statement. You sent me a descriptive list of questions, also hygienic rules. I carried these out as best I could, but thought myself incurable as I suffered so much with pain under my ribs and an empty feeling in my stomach. At night would have cold or hot feet and hands alternately. I was getting very nervous and suffered a great deal mentally, thinking that death would soon claim me. Always expected something unusual to take place; was irritable and impatient, and greatly reduced in flesh. I could scarcely eat anything that would not produce a bad feeling in my stomach. After some hesitation, owing to my prejudices against patent medicines, I decided to try a few bottles of Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and 'Pellets.' After taking several bottles of each, found I was improving. I continued for six months or more, off and on. I have to be careful yet at times, of what I eat, in order that I may feel good and strong. I fully believe if any one suffering with indigestion or torpid liver or chronic cold should take Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and 'Pellets' and observe a few simple hygienic rules they would soon be greatly benefited, and with a little perseverance would be entirely cured."

THE SCHOOL-BOY'S POCKET

is notorious for the miscellany it contains. Tops, string, apples, marbles, chewing gum, nails, jack-stones, are all mixed in one confused mass. What would be said of one who used that pocket which we call the stomach for such a heterogeneous collection of materials? This is done not alone by the human ostrich at the circus, but by thousands of good people who do not consider the relation of the stomach to the other organs of the body. The purpose of eating is to provide nutrition for the body. But how many people think of the nutritive value of the food they eat? For the most part the choice of food is made to please the palate. The palate is a creature of education. It may be taught to crave things bitter or things sweet; to desire spicy or fiery condiments which irritate the stomach or dainties which distress it, and in which the food value is reduced to the minimum. As a rule the palate is taught to desire the most undesirable things from the viewpoint of nutrition. The result is that the stomach has to thresh a great quantity of straw to obtain one grain of nutrition.

The body is sustained by food properly digested and assimilated and converted into nutrition. But when the food lacks nutritive value the body and its organs must be starved. Exactly the same thing happens when the food eaten is nutritious, but the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition being weakened by disease, fail to extract the nutrition from the food properly. Then the body is starved also.

THE SIGN OF STARVATION

is weakness. A starved man can't work. A starved organ can't work; or at the best it works partially and ineffectively. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, by curing diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition, enables the perfect digestion and assimilation of the food eaten, and this food converted into nutrition, builds up the body and all its parts and organs into sound health and strength.

"After I had received the advice which you gave me in regard to my treatment," writes Geo. Dorner, Esq., of 1015 Pulaski Street, Baltimore, Md., "I used your 'Golden Medical Discovery' according to directions. After using four bottles I considered myself cured as I have not felt any symptoms since. Had tried all other remedies that I heard of that were good for dyspepsia, but without relief. Finally I became discouraged and wrote to you for advice, with the above result."

TO DISCOURAGED PEOPLE.

The closing paragraph of Mr. Dorner's letter: "Finally I became discouraged and wrote to you for advice" would express the feeling of thousands who have written to Dr. Pierce. They have been utterly failed to find help. They have been growing steadily worse. As a forlorn hope they have written to Dr. Pierce and have been cured.

Persons suffering from chronic diseases are invited to consult Dr. Pierce by letter free. All correspondence strictly private and confidential. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

MICHIGAN DIVORCES INCREASE

Nearly 3000 Granted During the Year 1902

Women the Plaintiffs in Only Five out of Seven Cases, with Ten Times the Causes

Michigan furnishes an example of the rapidly increasing tendency to resort to the divorce court to end matrimonial troubles. In 1902 divorces to the number of 2828 were granted in that state. In 1898 the number was 1901. Of the year 1902, 817 of the divorces were on complaint of the husband, and 2011 on complaint of the wife.

In 1370 of the marriages which were destroyed, no children existed; in 664 families broken up there was only a single child; in 356 cases there were two children; in 191 families there were three children; in 191 families there were three children. The total number of children deprived of the family relation was 3126, or rather more than one child, on the average to each divorce.

In those 1370 cases where no children came to cement the union, who will say that divorce was not the proper thing when the man and woman could not agree. They were not suitably mated, have found it out, there were no innocent offspring to be injured. In such cases no one may say the man and woman should not have relief from a cat-and-dog existence.—Baker Democrat.

Choate-Oliver Wedding.

Albany, N. Y., June 6.—Fashionable society people from New York, Washington and other cities thronged St. Peter's Church today at the wedding of Miss Cora Oliver, daughter of General and Mrs. Robert Shaw Oliver, and Joseph H. Choate, Jr., son of the American Ambassador at the court of St. James. The bride wore heavy white tulle edged all around with point lace, which was fastened to her hair with a diamond ornament. Her attendants included Miss Mabel Choate, a sister of the bridegroom, Miss Mary Bowditch and the Misses Elizabeth and Marion Oliver. Following the ceremony at the church the bridal party and the guests, including Ambassador Choate and Mrs. Choate repaired to the home of the bride's parents, where an elaborate reception was held.

The bride of today is the daughter of General Robert Shaw Oliver, one of Albany's richest and most influential men, widely travelled and a famous wit. She is widely known for her beauty and is a devotee of outdoor athletics. It was on the golf links that she first met Mr. Choate. There the courtship was pursued until an engagement resulted.

Mr. Choate was an honor man at Harvard, is a celebrated golfer and is a fine, staid type of American manhood. He has been in service as Third Secretary of the American Embassy in London, and is on indefinite leave. Mr. and Mrs. Choate will probably spend the summer in this country and later take up their residence in England.

The Southern Pacific Company is taking up the old side-track rails in the depot yard and putting new ones down. This is a much needed improvement as the old rails were silvered and rough.

Wanted.

We would like to ask through the columns of your paper, if there is any person who has used Green's August Flower for the cure of Indigestion, Dyspepsia and Liver Troubles that has not been cured—and we also mean their results, such as sour stomach, fermentation of food, habitual costiveness, nervous dyspepsia, headache, despondent feelings, sleeplessness—in fact, any trouble connected with the stomach or liver? This medicine has been sold for many years in all civilized countries, and we wish to correspond with you, and send you one of our books free of cost. If you never tried August Flower, try a 25-cent bottle first. We have never known of its failing. If so, something more serious is the matter with you. The 25-cent size has just been introduced this year. Regular size 75 cent. Dr. Stone's drug stores.

A NATURAL RESULT.

It is very reasonable to suppose if the foundation of a structure was removed that the building itself is bound to come down. This same principle can be applied to disease. Take a medicine into the system that will remove the cause of sickness, and the illness leaves of itself. Dyspepsia, indigestion, sick-headache and biliousness have their foundation in stomach disorders. Remove this weakness and the other symptoms are no more. There is one cure for all this that all druggists sell for 25c per box, it is called Dr. Gunn's Improved Liver Pills. They get right at the beginning of these diseases and make the cure by taking away the cause of it. We will send a small box free by mail, or a large box on receipt of 25c. Address Dr. Bosancho Co., Philadelphia, Pa. For sale at Dr. Stone's Drug Stores.
