An Excellent Company

An Albany paper has this to say of the Allen Stock Company which begins a week's engagement at the opera house here tonight:

"The Allen Stock Company gave us one of the prettiest pieces we have had the pleasure of witnessing this season, 'A Fair Rebel,' the story produced, is a beautiful story of the South, full of heart interest, and each and every member of this excellent company acquitted themselves in a manner which left nothing to be desired. Those deserving special mention are Little Verna, who is always good, Mr. Platt, Miss Francis, Miss Roberts and Miss Davis. The orchestra rendered several encores and the specialties were all appreciated. 'The Dangers of New York,' the play to be produced tonight at the theater, was written for laughing purposes and it can be truthfully said that it fulfills its mission to a T."

KAISER FIRES MORMONS

Says Their Presence in Prussia is Undesirable

Missionary Hugh J. Cannon will Move into Switzerland, and will Continue His Labors from There

Berlin, June 8.—Hugh J. Cannon, superintendent of the Mormon missions in Germany; his wife, his secretary and assistant secretary, were ordered by the police today to leave Prussian territory within three weeks. Similar orders are about to be served by the local authorities on 86 other missionaries in Prussia, under the decision of the government to expel them all.

It is quite unusual to serve the wives of Mormon missionaries with a separate notice. Mrs. Cannon has only been here a month. No explanation was given for the action taken, except that the presence of the Mormons was undesirable. Mr. Cannon will move his headquarters to Zurich, Switzerland. He has engaged a house there, near the one occupied by Calvin Cook, when he fled from France. From Zurich the missionaries will occasionally visit the Mormon communities in Prussia, who have 1200 members in groups of 15 to 20 each. The German pastors continue their services.

No protest has yet been made against the expulsion of the Mormons. Elder Francis M. Lyman, of Salt Lake City, now in London, the European superintendent of the Mormon missions, has been advised of the action of the authorities, and is waiting to see if Washington will take up the cases of a few who were ill-treated. Through these cases it is hoped the Prussian government may be led to reverse the expulsion decree, and that several German states notably Saxony, Hesse and Wurtemberg, may also reconsider their decrees expelling Mormon missionaries.

A Week of Drama.

Manager Allen, of the stock company that is to play a week at the Grand Opera House, is an Oregon man, and his entire company are well known to Oregon people. All this week they appear at the best little theater in the Northwest, with standard dramas and specialties between the acts. These specialties consist of descriptive songs, ballads and dancing, including the fine numbers by Mr. Royal, and the wonderful stage work of Little Verna Fulton, who was here twice before with the Jessie Shirley Company, being their greatest feature next to Mrs. Smith herself, last year. Mr. and Mrs. Platt were the leading people in the production of "Roanoke," seen at Salem two years ago, and appear every night this week. Mr. Allen has his own orchestra and band, the former comprising nearly all the players of the Jessie Shirley Company. The engagement opens with "The Power of Wealth" tonight, a powerful comedy drama. The rest of the week plays will be produced including Marie Wainwright's great success, "Shall We Forgive Her," "A Fair Rebel," "The Real Lord Lennox," "Hazel Kirk," "A Black Heifer," and "Dangers of New York." Popular prices, 25, 35 and 50 cents.
