Truth to Tell

There are no other milk cans made that can equal in wearing qualities the genuine BUHL CANS

They are tinned to stay tinned, and put together to stand years of hard service. Other cans crack easily, become dented, and being lightly tinned soon rust and go to pieces. Not so with the "Buhl Factory," "Improved Elgin" and "Genuine Iowa." They will outlast any other cans on the market, and are thoroughly and quickly cleaned. Remember, the Buhl is the only can in the world that is made with the Buhl "Victor" Can Breast and the Buhl "Victor" Round Handle. As there are many imitations of Buhl cans, we stamp all ours with the Milk Can Trade Mark. Look for it.

FOUND THE SNOW

Whimsical Vagaries of the Goddess of Fate

Send's Helpless B by J. Adrift in the Snow and Compensates by Making Her Russia's Queen

An old clergyman was once riding to his home in Marienburg, near the Gulf of Riga (if you want to know where that is look it up in your atlas). Suddenly the horse stopped and refused to step over some object in the path. The rider got down and found a poor little baby, about a year old, was nearly buried in the snow. The good pastor took the child home, and she lived happily with him and his housekeeper until she was about thirteen. Then Catharine, as she was called, was sent away by the only father she had ever known, to visit his sister. In a few days she heard that the Russians were bombarding Marienburg, and at once said she must go back to her dear father. The messenger who had brought the news said by this time all the people in the town must be dead or taken prisoner.

"Then I will die with them or be a prisoner," said Catharine, as she galloped off. Just outside Marienburg she was challenged by a young officer. He was kind in his manner, but commanded the Russian soldiers to take her before the General, who informed the poor girl that she was a prisoner, and would be his servant. Catharine begged to be allowed to go to the battlefield that she might find her father's body and have it buried, promising that afterwards she would return and give herself up.

"How do I know that you will not escape if I grant your request?" said the general, glancing at the young officer, who had followed her into the tent.

"You have my word," she answered proudly, and the general allowed her to go. She searched in the darkness among the wounded and dead, but without finding her father's body. Then the young officer appeared, carrying a lantern, and helped in the search. At last Catharine got very discouraged and sat down, crying bitterly.

"Take my purse and run away," said the stranger, "now you have a good chance to escape."

"Sir, I shall keep my word," she answered, and, getting up, began to search again. At last the wounded pastor was found, and Catharine was allowed to nurse him, promising to return as a servant to the General when her father recovered.

Now if this had been a fairy tale, instead of a true story, you would expect to hear that the kind young officer was a prince in disguise, and that he married the brave maiden, and they lived happily ever after. Well, you wouldn't be very far wrong, for he turned out to be the Czar or Emperor of Russia. He was so charmed with Catharine's courage, truthfulness and grateful affection for her adopted father that he asked her to marry him, and she became the empress of Russia.

Perhaps you may never have the chance to distinguish yourself before the eyes of the world, but if you do the best you can you may really be as great as Catharine—as brave, truthful and kind—Farmer's Advocate.

CASTORIA
The Kind You Have Always Bought
Beware of Imitations
Sole and
Chas. H. Peterson

There was a cry in the streets. People rushed from their doors and strained their eyes on the struggling balloonist fighting for life. Even the poor, panting sufferer in the sick room was forgotten while the family gazed breathless at this strange tragedy of the air. Then they went back to the sick room to tell of the terrible struggle for life they had just witnessed. It did not occur to them that under their very eyes a more terrible, more pathetic struggle was going on daily.

There can be nothing more pitiful than the struggle the consumptive makes against disease. The greatest help in this struggle is gained by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It cures obstinate coughs, weak and bleeding lungs, emaciation, and other ailments which if neglected or unskillfully treated find a fatal termination in consumption.

CAUTION!

This is not a gentle word—but when you think how liable you are not to purchase the only remedy universally known and a remedy that has the largest sale of any medicine in the world since 1868 for the cure and treatment of Consumption and Throat and Lung troubles without losing its great popularity all these years, you will be thankful we called your attention to Boschee's German Syrup. There are so many ordinary cough remedies made by druggists and others that are cheap and good for light colds perhaps, but for severe coughs, bronchitis, croup—and especially for consumption where there is difficult expectoration and coughing during the nights and mornings, there is nothing like German Syrup. The 25 cent size has just been introduced this year. Regular size 75 cents. Dr. Stone's Drug Stores.

CONSUMPTION

the most dreaded and deadly of all diseases, as well as pneumonia, and all Lung Troubles are relieved at once and cured by Acker's English Remedy "the king of all Cough Cures." Cures Coughs and Colds in a day. 25 cents. Your money back if dissatisfied. Write for free sample. W. H. Hooker & Co., Buffalo, N. Y. D. J. Fry, Drug Dist.
