Salem Public Schools

Graduating Class Program for Monday Evening

TWO GIRLS ARE A TIE ON WINNING HIGHEST HONORS

Not all the Features are on the Program and Some Surprises are in Store

Forty students of the Salem public schools have completed the ninth grade, and will receive diplomas Monday night.

The Journal presents pictures of the two students in the High School course who have made the highest standing in scholarship, both making the same percentage.

Monday night will mark an event in the history of Salem public schools, and the excellent work of City Superintendent Traver and the present Salem board of education will be appreciated on that occasion by the large audience present.

TWELFTH STREET STILL DRY

Court and State Streets are Now Free From Dust

By the efforts of Park Commissioner Wm. Brown, Court and State streets are now sprinkled, and are more pleasant for living and driving than when they were a succession of whirling clouds of dust.

It will cost $25 a month to sprinkle Twelfth street with water enough to lay the dust, and it will cost about $50 to put in the standpipes. A number of persons will give $2.50 each towards laying the dust on that street, but it is doubtful if it can be done without help from the city.

He Didn't Swear.

Uncle Jimmy Elgin met Rev. P. S. Knight at The Journal office today, and asked Knight if he remembered this day 46 years ago, when they were both working at the carpenter trade at The Dalles.

"Yes," said Knight, "and I remember going over to your bench and speaking to you, although you were a stranger to me."

"Yes, and do you remember what you said?" said Jimmy.

"I said I wanted to work alongside of you, because you didn't swear," said Knight.

"That's what you said, and I've never forgotten it," said Jimmy.

"But I fought Indians as well as you did," said Knight, "and I didn't get a pension, and you did," said Knight. He didn't say he felt like swearing, but he looked a little that way.

It Also Needs Better Roads

The big Marion county steam road roller was brought into town yesterday from the Liberty road, for repairs. A bolt was found loose, and the engineer thought best to have it fixed before any damage was done. In order to tighten it one of the large driving wheels had to be removed.

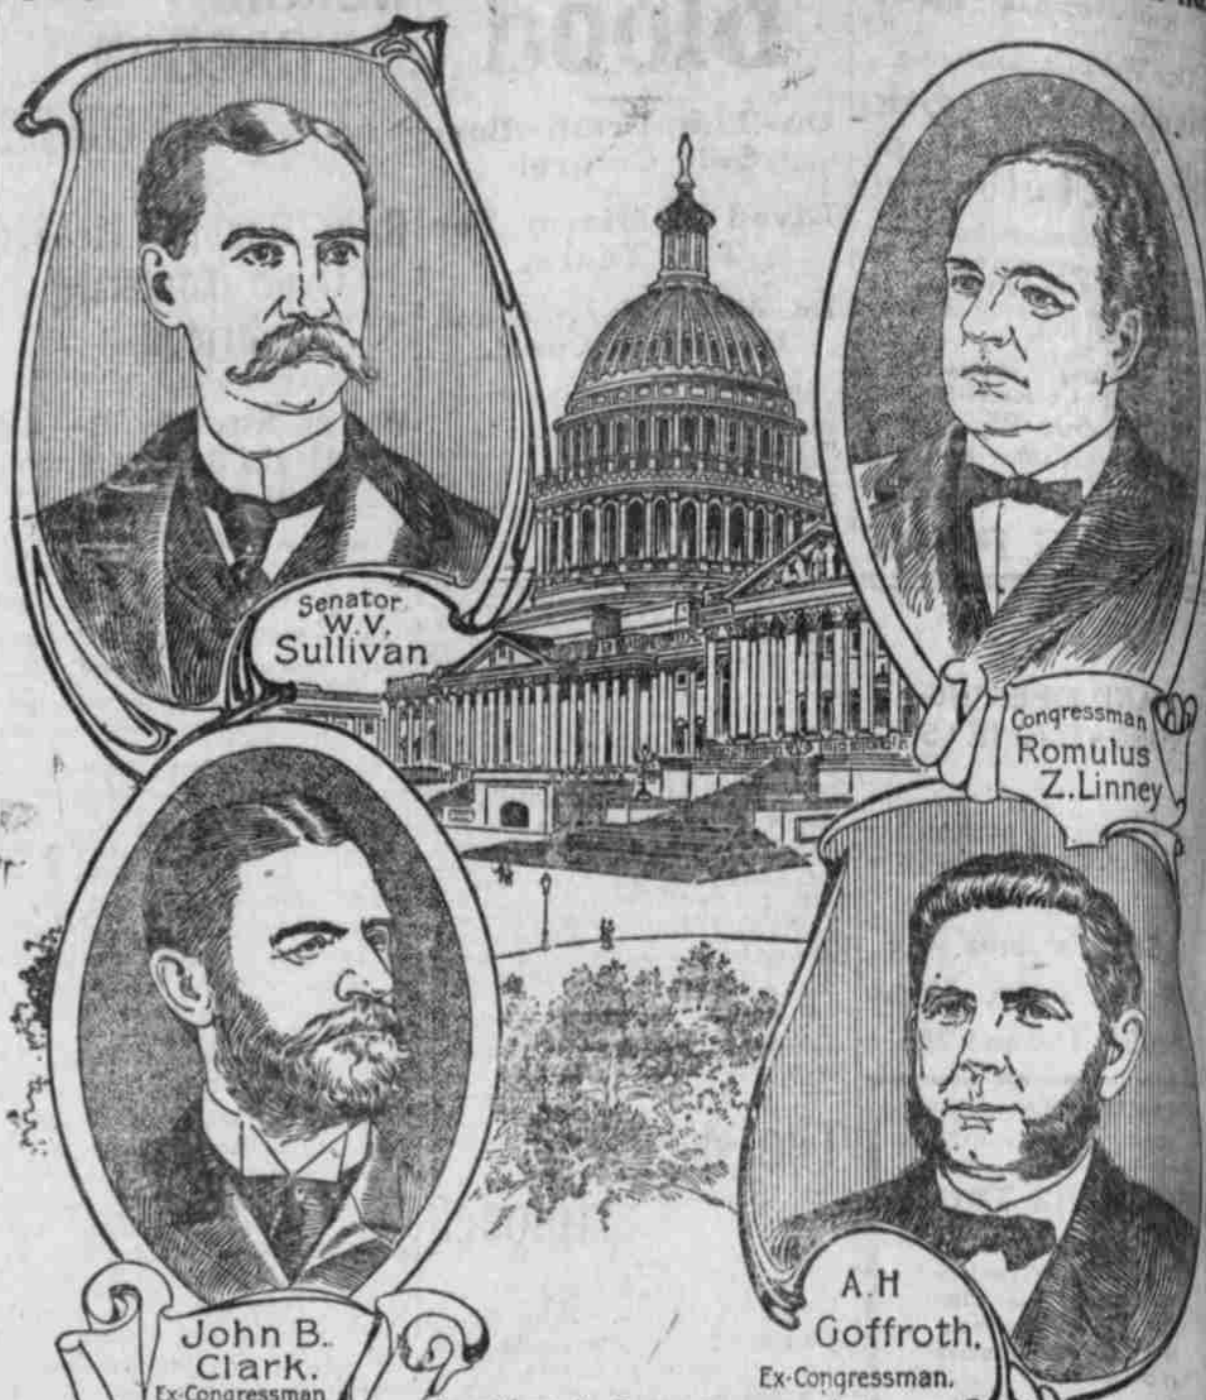

Loss Promptly Settled.

W. A. Liston, agent for the Continental Insurance Company, today settled the loss for the burning of the Matilda Prescott house, last week, on South Commercial street, at $1549.76.

General Odell Recovering.

General Odell, who, as state land agent, under Governor Lord, did the praying for that institution, always has a hard time over commencement times, rustling poultry supplies for the visiting Methodist ministers, and keeping everything running and in good machine shape. He is recovering nicely and is still in the ring, and will be

The World's Famous Catarrh Remedy---Pe-ru-na

Senator W. V. Sullivan. United States Senator Sullivan from Mississippi writes the following endorsement of Peruna: "I desire to say that I have been taking Peruna for some time for catarrh and have found it an excellent medicine, giving me more relief than anything I have ever taken."—W.V. SULLIVAN, Congressman Romulus Z. Linney, from North Carolina, writes: "My private secretary has been using Peruna for catarrh. He had as bad a case as I ever saw, and since he has taken one bottle he seems like a different man. I don't think any man who is under a nervous strain should be without it. I cannot express the good it has done him."—John B. Clark, Ex-Congressman. Was ten years a member of Congress from Missouri and for six years Clerk of National House of Representatives, writes: "I can recommend your Peruna as a good, substantial tonic and one of the best remedies for catarrhal troubles."—Ex-Congressman A. H. Goffroth, Somerset, Pa., writes: "I am assured and satisfied that Peruna is a great catarrh cure, and I feel that I can recommend it to those who suffer from that disorder."—Men of prominence all over the United States are commending Peruna. Over forty members of Congress have written their endorsement of it. Scores of other government officials speak in high praise of it. Thousands of people in the humbler walks of life re upon it as a family medicine. Send for free book of testimonials. If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving full statement of your case, and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis. SHIELD'S PARK TO OPEN

New Amusement Feature of Capital City

Some of the Best Talent in the Country Will Assist in the Grand Opening

Shield's Park is to open next Monday night, June 14th, in a blaze of glory, with some of the best attractions that have played in the Shield's continuous vaudeville at Cordray's theatre in Portland during the present season. When Mr. Shields made arrangements with Patton Bros. to manage his park at Salem he promised that he would give the best attractions that are to appear over his big circuit, and for the opening week the bill will be headed by Mann & Franks, the great travesty team, which is to appear in an operatic sketch entitled "From the Sublime to the Ridiculous." Mann & Franks have made the biggest hit of any act Mr. Shields has played on his circuit this season. Both Mr. Mann and Miss Franks possess wonderful voices, and their dramatic work is par excellence. Another team of equal merit is Lynden & Wren, presenting a sketch entitled "The New Woman and the New Man," which is unique and entirely different from anything that has ever appeared in vaudeville, and Mr. Lynden's acrobatic dancing alone is worth the price of admission for the whole show. Another act that comes direct from the big circuits of the East to Shield's circuit is Edward O'Neill, perhaps the greatest card manipulator in the world today. Mr. O'Neill comes direct from the Moore circuit at Detroit, Michigan, and an adequate description of his work cannot be given, and it will remain for the audience to see and judge what wonderful feats can be performed with a deck of cards. Mr. O'Neill has a colored assistant, who is quite a comedian himself, and, in fact, the whole act is sprinkled with comedy. George Jones, who styles himself "The Unbleached American," is a colored performer who is not excelled by even Williams & Walker or by Ernest Hogan. Jones played for six continuous weeks at Shield's Park in Portland last season, and was one of the big feature hits of the bill. The wonderful Polyscope, which has always been a strong card in Shield's shows, will display a thousand feet or more of pictures, including some very interesting ones of President Roosevelt, taken in the city of Portland. Illustrated songs will be introduced by Mr. L. E. Freeland, who will sing "When the Sweet Magnolias Bloom" and "Hello Central" and "Give Me Heaven," and the people who attend the Park on the opening night, or, in fact, any night, will see the greatest vaudeville show ever presented in the city of Salem. Shields has the reputation of always running clean shows, and no liquors will be sold at the Park, nor boisterous behavior allowed. A great deal of money has been spent in fitting up the Park, and it will seat in the neighborhood of 2000 people. A record-breaking crowd for Salem is promised for the opening night. The general price of admission is 15 cents. An entire change of program will be made each week, and the shows will increase in excellence.

More About the Scrap. Berlin, June 13.—There are 20,000 troops garrisoned in Constantinople, mostly in the vicinity of the palace. The immediate guard of the Sultan is not troops, but palace officials only. The report today placing the battle in the Yildiz palace itself, is possibly erroneous, the building is not roomy enough for a fight of such magnitude. It is believed here it took place in the court yard near the palace. Scare the Sultan. Constantinople, June 13.—A fierce fight occurred within the walls of the Yildiz Kiosk between the revolutionists and an Asiatic regiment. The Albanians were finally overpowered, after many were killed and wounded. The incident, following so closely the assassination at Belgrade, caused a big panic in the palace and city.

CARNIVAL QUEEN CONTEST

Miss Hubbard Makes Gains During Week

Contest Closes June 22 and Next Week will See Some Lively Hustling Done

A large number of votes were cast during the last week for Carnival Queen, but it seems that Miss Hubbard's friends did most of the voting. At the last count, Monday, Miss Hubbard had fourth place, with 87 votes, but she gained 240 votes this week, which puts her only a few votes behind Miss Laura McAllister. The contest will close June 22, and the next week will see some lively voting. It is rumored that Miss Hubbard's friends intend to make a Queen, and in fact those who are supporting her are not the sort who are generally defeated and, by the way, they are voting. It looks as if they intended to be on the safe side. The vote stands as follows: Miss Laura McAllister, 1100; Miss Edna Hubbard, 87; Miss Emeline Schindler, 240; Miss Ruby Cornell, 15; Miss Olive Howe, 10; Miss Cora McAtee, 5; Miss Maggie Mitchell, 5.

Secured Better Rates. Tickets will be sold on Saturday and Sunday of each week; except that tickets may be sold on Friday night and Albany to Roseburg, and from Roseburg to Salem and Albany. Tickets good to return on Sunday following date of sale, except from Roseburg on Monday following date of sale. W. E. OSBORN, General Passenger Agent.

Scrofula. Few are entirely free from it. It may develop so slowly as to cause little if any disturbance during the whole period of childhood. It may then produce irregularity of the stomach and bowels, dyspepsia, catarrh, and marked tendency to consumption before manifesting itself in such outrageous eruptions or glandular swelling. It is best to be sure that you are quite free from it, and for its complete eradication you can rely on Hood's Sarsaparilla. The best of all medicines for all humors.

CASTORIA. The Kind You Have Always Bought. Be sure the Signature is Cast H. P. T. Skeleton adjustment, nervous equilibrium, the normal flow of blood and lymph and glandular activity are the medicine used by osteopathy. These do not kill. School's, Barr & Barr, Osteopaths, Opera House Block, Salem.
