WEEKLY
JOURNAL
POPULARA Twelve Page Paper
With a Growing
CirculationFurnished to Exchanges at a Clubbing Rate of Fifty Cents

The Weekly Capital Journal is now a fine, large twelve-page paper, and with a new perfecting machine coming in will be cut, trimmed and pasted in metropolitan style.

For clubbing purposes the Weekly Journal is furnished to exchanges at the low price of 50 cents per year, on condition that the exchanges make a corresponding reduction, and offer the two papers for the price of one to cash in advance subscribers.

A number of our weekly exchanges have adopted this plan, and it brings them in new subscribers, and gets old ones to renew for cash in advance, keeping a constant stream of money coming into their coffers. It is circulation, and cash in advance subscribers that make a country paper valuable to the proprietor and advertiser.

There is not a country weekly in Oregon but can double its circulation at the above rate, and on the plan of furnishing a local paper and a state paper for the price of one paper, if it will advertise the fact, canvass its territory, and in time it will double the income from advertising. There is finally no way for the merchant to reach the people of any community, except through the local paper.

Here is an announcement made of this clubbing rate made in the Springfield Weekly News, J. F. Woods, proprietor, and we commend the plan to the consideration of every publisher in Oregon:

One Dollar for Two.

We have made arrangements with the Capital Journal, of Salem, whereby we can furnish the weekly, price $1.00 per year, and the News, price $1.00, both for $1.00 per year in advance.

The Weekly Capital Journal is one of the best weekly papers published in Oregon, which contains the cream of the editorials found in the Daily, besides an abundance of telegraphic news of the world.

May be Lost
In the Mountain

Roseburg, Or., June 20.—It is feared that Harmon Snider, a well-known pioneer character of this city, is lost in the mountains near Perdue. About 16 days ago, Snider, in company with Edwin P. Hagshaw, a timber locator, left this place for the latter's homestead, six miles south of Perdue, where they intended to build a cabin, and otherwise improve the property. Yesterday, Thomas Cannon, of this city, received a letter from Hagshaw asking if Snider had arrived home, and stating that he had left there June 10th. He further stated that if he had not arrived yet he was probably lost on the trail between the homestead and Perdue.

Word received from Perdue states that Snider has not been seen there. Snider is a man about 55 years old, and is addicted to drink. He has lived in this city for the past 31 years, and is well known. Before going to the mountains he was employed as porter in the Senate saloon. He has a divorced wife and daughter living in Portland, and a son in California. Parties have been sent out on the Perdue trail to look for him.

Lady Balcarrie's "Flame" Fad.

English women of fashion are apparently devoted to a new shade. It is an uncompromising orange, a most trying tint, and one that women have been using only sparingly in the last 50 years. Two English women, Lady Balcarrie and Mrs. Charles Ewart, have been wearing gowns laden down with this bright hue. Lady Balcarrie had a long court train at one of the drawing rooms made of orange velvet, flounced with cream colored lace. Mrs. Ewart dutifully followed suit, and her brown chiffon frock was brightened with a full wash of orange crepe. Even this fashionable favor will not avail burnt orange or "flame," as it is called by the French. The most delicate skin looks yellow beside orange, and the most brilliant complexion is pale. Nevertheless, fashionable milliners along Piccadilly have taken up the "flame" fad, and one woman has had the daring to show a gown of unrelieved orange crepe.

DALLAS WOOL POOL.

Gets Three Bids, But They Were All Rejected.

Dallas, June 19.—(Special to Salem Journal).—There were three bidders for the wool pool opened at this place at 1 o'clock today, as follows: Wm. Brown & Co., Salem, 16 cents; Jacobs & Co., Oregon City, 16 cents; Bernheim & Co., Portland, 16 1/2 cents. The bids were all rejected, and the pool will be offered for sale again on Friday, July 10th, at 1 p. m. There are 175,000 pounds of wool in the pool.

The Marion County Wool Growers' Association sold its 1903 pool at 16 cents and 17 1/2 cents for coarse and medium and fine, respectively, to those who had their clips in the agreement.

Wanted.

We would like to ask through the columns of your paper, if there is any person who has used Green's August Flower for the cure of indigestion, dyspepsia and liver troubles that has not been cured—and we also mean their results, such as sour stomach, fermentation of food, habitual costiveness, nervous dyspepsia, headache, despondent feelings, sleeplessness—in fact, any trouble connected with the stomach or liver? This medicine has been sold for many years in all civilized countries, and we wish to correspond with you, and send you one of our books free of cost. If you never tried August Flower, try a 25-cent bottle first. We have never known of its failing. If so, something more serious is the matter with you. The 25-cent also has just been introduced this year. Regular size 75 cent. Dr. Stone's drug stores.
