Ferris Wheel and Tent Grand Shows Here (Sunday-Masque Ball to Conclude

The Arnold tents for the accommodation of the mammoth shows will arrive today, and will be in position by tomorrow noon. The tents will occupy a space covering at least three acres of ground. These shows have given perfect satisfaction, and are highly spoken of wherever Mr. Arnold has placed them on exhibition.

The big arch over the main entrance to the court yard on State street, is almost completed. The arch will be tinted a delicate green, which will give a beautiful effect under the 300 incandescent lights which will form a part of the decoration.

The big 60-foot Ferris-wheel will occupy a prominent position within the court yard. On the monster wheel will be 100 incandescent lights, which will make a grand sight.

Interest in the Carnival is increasing hour by hour, and the coming week will be the greatest six-day festival ever held in Oregon.

Every man, woman and child in Salem is talking Carnival, and the interest and enthusiasm has spread to the country and neighboring towns, which insures the attendance of thousands of people during the great event.

St Perkins will be out this afternoon with his band wagon to gather up the stock of "goods" kindly contributed toward the "country store" by the merchants of Salem. St hopes that the merchants will have their contributions ready for "shipment" when he calls at their respective places of business, in order that the "Hayseed Band" may not be delayed beyond the time limit of their contract. The "country store" will be a most amusing feature of Salem's big Carnival, and promises to be an immense success.

Word was received by the executive committee yesterday to the effect that Queen Anny, of the Dallas Carnival, with her court, will be present at the inauguration of the Greater Salem Queen, and General Manager Judah has been instructed to provide for her comfort during her stay in the city.

Contractor Paul Siebert, of Aurora, in addition to the contracted goods, to be used in the grand pyrotechnic display on the night of July 4th, has made a magnificent set piece, 30x40 feet in dimensions, and has presented the same to the Carnival committee.
This beautiful piece will be discharged on the night of the Fourth, with the rest of the display.

The festivities of the Glorious Fourth have been accentuated by an order of the executive committee for masque festival in the evening. This is always a jolly feature of the closing night.
