Local Events in the Social Realm

Jones-Ramage Wedding.

Mr. Jos. M. Jones, of Brooks, and Miss Belle Ramage, of Woodburn, were married at the home of the bride's mother, near Woodburn, Sunday afternoon, June 28th. In the evening they drove to the home of the groom's parents, where a reception was given them.

The house was beautifully decorated with wild orange blossoms, and a group of children showered roses on the bride as they were entering the house.

The evening was pleasantly spent with music, and all were served with refreshments.

After showering the couple with rice, the guests departed, wishing them a happy life.

The bride is one of Marion county's brightest school teachers, and has many friends in all parts of the county, where she has taught, as well as in Salem, where she has made her home for some years. The groom is a son of Silas Jones, and belongs to one of the leading families of Marion county. This is a most fitting union, and scores of friends join in wishing them the life of happiness they so richly deserve.

South Salem Personals.

Miss Pearl Laport, of Albany, is visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. William Welch, in South Salem. Miss Sadie Wilson, of Medford, is visiting at the home of W. H. Lucas, on South High street.

Philip Dancer, a prominent dentist, of Sprague, Washington, who is visiting his parents, south of town, was in the city visiting old friends last week.

Chas. Phenig, of Eastern Oregon, is visiting at the home of his sister, Mrs. W. H. Lucas, in South Salem.

John Tobin and family, recently of the East, who have been residing in South Salem, left yesterday for Seattle, Wash., where they will make their future home.

Mrs. Joseph Card, of Dallas, is visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. Robert Judson, in South Salem.

Mason Bishop is spending a few days in Albany, visiting relatives.

Visited Uncle John.

A lot of relatives rounded up at Uncle John Baker's brick mansion on the Garden road Sunday, and there came very near being a full-fledged family reunion. Lark Richardson, a son-in-law, from Sumpter, dropped in.

Mrs. L. M. Roney and Miss Nannie Baker, of Eugene, came down. Judge Bonham and family drove out, and with Owen Baker and his family there was quite a circle of several generations, that made Uncle John feel pretty good, and, if it hadn't been Sunday, and he a good Baptist, he'd have come pretty near dancing a breakdown for them, although he is in his eighties.

Children's Day at the M. E. Church.
Yesterday was Children's day, and the bi-centennial of the birth of John Wesley, which was properly observed at the Leslie M. E. church. The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion.

The program rendered at noon was given by the Sunday School scholars, and was very good, especially the reciting of the little tots, who went through their parts so well, they made it indeed their day. In the evening Mr. Cole, a returned missionary from the Fiji Islands, gave a lecture, illustrated with stereopticon views representing the character and customs of the people for ages back in the islands, and showing what Christianity has done for them. The lecture was very good, deserving the highest praise.

Capt. and Mrs. Carter and daughter are visiting friends in Newberg, while Mr. C. and son make a prospecting tour of the valley.

An Utter Fakir.

Some one is traveling through the country claiming to be selling jewelry for us. This is a falsehood, as these people have absolutely no connection with us.
