

GREAT BABY SHOW

Was Pulled off at the Carnival on Tuesday Afternoon

The Two Pair of Twins Were a Tie and Therefore the Money was Divided

The Salem Carnival witnessed the greatest baby show ever held in Oregon, and the theory that the race is dying out did not receive much encouragement Tuesday.

The babies who were to compete for the valuable prizes were all in their places. The baby buggies lined up along the reserved seats at the west side of the tent. The following judges, J. W. Springer, Thos. Cheshire and Mrs. Amos Strong were chosen by the Carnival committee. They entered the enclosure attended by Manager Judah and several committeemen, and no one in the audience, nor the mothers of the babies, knew which were the judges.

Manager Judah announced the decisions in the afternoon, and again from the stage at 9 o'clock that evening. He also announced that as only two pairs of twins were present, and as they were both so pretty it was impossible to discriminate, the judges had divided the $5 prize offered for the handsomest twins, and awarded $2.50 to each pair of twins, Leona and Leota Crossan, and Edwin and Carl Armstrong.

The prizes awarded were: For the fattest baby—Creta Braughton was awarded the handsome quarter-crowned oak chair, donated by the House Furnishing Co.

For the prettiest baby—Pearl Mildred Aldrich, the beautiful solid silver mug, donated by Barr's jewelry store.

The lightest baby—Wm. F. Hogan received the solid silver spoon from S. W. Thompson & Co.

SALEM INDIAN SCHOOL

Holds Successful Annual Graduating Exercises

There was a large attendance at Disfigured Skin

Washed muscles and decaying bones. What have I become! I am capable of all that, and more.

It is commonly marked by bumps in the neck, inflammation in the eyes, dyspepsia, retardation, and general debility. It is always radically and permanently cured by

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Which expels all humors, cures all eruptions, and builds up the whole system, whether young or old.

Small bottles sent free. The manufacturing and bottling is done at Hood's Sarsaparilla Co., Lowell, Mass.

KIDNEY TROUBLE CURED.

General Health Greatly Improved by Per-ru-na.

MRS. M. J. DANLEY.

Mrs. M. J. Danley, Treasurer of the Rebecca Lodge, I. O. O. F., writes from 124 First street, N., Minneapolis, Minn.: "I was afflicted for several years with kidney trouble which became quite serious and caused me considerable anxiety. I spent hundreds of dollars trying to be cured, but nothing gave me any permanent relief until I tried Per-ru-na. It took less than three months and only ten bottles to effect a permanent cure, but they were worth more than as many hundred dollars to me. I am fully restored to health, know neither ache nor pain and enjoy life."—Mrs. M. J. Danley.

This experience has been repeated many times. We hear of such cases nearly every day.

Mrs. Danley had catarrh of the kidneys. As soon as she took the right remedy she made a quick recovery.

A Prominent Southern Lady's Letter. Miss Laura Hopkins, of Washington, D. C., niece of Hon. E. O. Hopkins, one of the largest iron manufacturers of Birmingham, Ala., writes the following letter commending Per-ru-na. She says: "I can cheerfully recommend Per-ru-na for indigestion and stomach trouble and as a good tonic."—Laura Hopkins.

Per-ru-na cures catarrh wherever located. Per-ru-na is a specific for the catarrhal discharges of women. Address The Per-ru-na Medicine Co., Columbus, Ohio, for free book on catarrh written by Dr. S. B. Hartman.

the graduating exercises of the Salem Indian Training School, at Chemawa, Tuesday and Tuesday evening, and the entire program, under the direction of Supt. T. W. Potter, was carried out to perfection. The graduates were Emily Downie, Lottie Lane, Lena Wilbur, Mary Woolan and Eugene Giffen.

SALEM IS THE WINNER

Beats the Schillers by a Score of 6 to 2

Ross Did Some Beautiful Work in Right Field--Salem Outplayed the Visitors

"Southpaw" Lucas was entitled to a shut-out yesterday afternoon, and he would have had it, but for an error in the second inning, which let McInnis come from first home. That was all there was doing for the Schillers in a game lasting an hour and forty-five minutes, to which there was nothing but Salem.

The smallest crowd that ever witnessed a game in the baseball history of Salem saw the Raglans play an almost errorless game. They saw Freddie Ross do some fielding out in the right garden that is seldom seen in the best games of the country, and they saw Lucas twirl a game which netted him nine strike-outs and netted the Schillers just three hits, two singles and a double. Perhaps Salem's baseball enthusiasts did not come out because they thought it was an easy game for the visitors, but they should remember that one of the features of baseball is that nobody ever knows what is going to happen, besides the individual who expected that the Portland aggregation could take two straights from Haynes and his men had some gail. It wasn't in the cards, and the Schillers took defeat good-naturedly, and assured Haynes they would be there with the goods today.

It was a bad day for ball, and only a small crowd braved the wind and threatened rain to see the game this afternoon. Had the weather been good it is safe to say there would have been a better showing. The line-up was the same as yesterday, with the exception of Morris pitching instead of Lucas, and Letlow instead of McInnis, McInnis playing center field.

The game was called promptly at 1:30. Salem went to bat. Davis walked to first and stole second. Tea-bo drove one to third and made first, but Davis went out. Haynes put one over the right fence, bringing in Teabo, and coming in himself. Patterson went out on a fly to Rankin, and Saunders finished the inning by a drive to second. The Schillers went out one, two, three.

Score, 2 to 0. Second—Not much doing for the Raglans. Ross made a hit, but left on first. None scored. The Schillers did better. Melness got to first on a rotten decision. Guild got a bag, and Gray made a hit. With three men on bases, Sam Morris struck out three men, pitching himself out of a hole. No score.

In the third Patterson found a three-bagger, but sprained his ankle at second. Davis and Tebo were both fielded out, and Haynes closed with a high fly to Rankin, leaving Patterson on third.

Mier and Suits both flew out to Patterson; Gaines made a hit and got to third, where McInnis left him.

Fourth—Saunders scored for the Raglans. Geils did the same for the Schillers. He knocked the first home run on Morris this year, and made the first score for the visitors. Parrott drove one to Downie, and was fielded out. Gray made a hit, but Teabo threw him out at second. Rankin ended the inning by fanning. Score 3 to 1. Raining hard.

Fifth—Nothing doing this inning. Neither side scored. Schillers got three men on bases, but Morris left them there. Game called for rain. Score Salem 3, Schillers 1.

At the Methodist church on Saturday ice cream, lemonade, candies, etc., will be served all day, and dinner from 11 till 2 o'clock.

Cotton Trust Stirs England

London, July 1.—Andrew Law, parliamentary secretary of commerce, in reply to questions in the commons this afternoon, said he had seen newspaper reports of the cotton trust, and, responding to requests from various quarters, had declined to confer with President Roosevelt, or suggest a conference of the various governments, with a view of the introduction of international legislation for the control of gambling in such products.

All bills and accounts against the Mid-Summer Carnival should be sent to General Manager Judah, at his office, at the city hall, at once.

Roseburg Needs McCormick

A sample of the dirty tactics employed by Roseburg's aggregation was in their attempts during the last series of games in that city to browbeat and intimidate the umpire.

At one time two strikes were called on Ray. "If you call another strike on me," said he, "I'll come out there and get you." Morrow, he chronic, was also responsible for attempts at intimidation. "I'll see you after this game," said he to Lorier at one time. So-called sports like grandstand also joined in the ribaldry. "Kill that umpire!" "Bot him!" "Hang him!" were some also refined and choice expressions with assailed that official's ears.

To the credit of the bear element of Roseburg he it said in such un-sportsmanlike practices solved the mark of their vigorous approval.—Eugene Register.
