Shall the party go up or down? Shall the pledges made in the last state platform be kept, or shall they be again broken?

Shall Oregon go forward along better business lines, or shall the party bow down to reckless, ignorant boodlesism entirely?

The Journal believes the people of the state—two-thirds of them Republicans—demand progress—better leadership—practical results and improvement all along the line.

A legislature is always disappointing. Those Republicans who imagine all they have to do is to put up a ticket and a platitudinous platform, and go in and win, are mistaken.

Unless the men and the program are right the people of this state are not going to be easily rounded up for the Portland crowd, who have been doing politics in the name of the Republican party.

JOURNAL X-RAYS.

Swell shoes should not have that effect on the person who wears them.

The initiative and referendum is dead. Long live the initiative and referendum.

The Toledo Reporter has passed into the hands of George McClusky, said to be one of Lincoln county's brightest and ablest young men.

For his sacrifice race for congress Mr. Reames was made fourth of July orator at Gold Hill. No great loss without some small gain.

Stayton Times: A number of town-people have improved their residences with paint. Among the number are W. H. Cooper, J. P. Robertson, Mat. Spauld, J. E. Sloper, Daniel Neff and Mat Bass.

Does the fact that saloons are making more money on their slot machines than by selling drinks argue for a decline in drinking or an increase in gambling? Are we growing more sober or less virtuous?

The Hon. P. H. D'Arcy delivered the Fourth of July oration at the state prison celebration. The audience in this case could not get away, but it was supposed that corporal punishment, or at least great bodily suffering had been done away with at that institution.

An exchange says: Even our strenuous President must rest. He has retreated to Sagamore Hill to enjoy for the summer the repose of family life, and will deny himself to all curious callers during his retirement. He is wise in these days who takes the rest cure in advance of a pressing necessity for its application. All men are not situated so they can do this, but many who are so situated neglect to put on the brakes until the down grade is so steep that they will not hold.

C. W. Coulter, Jacksonville's new painter has been as busy as a tick in a tar bucket, to use an old Southern simile, since he opened his shop here three weeks ago. In addition to doing a lot of carriage work, he has done some fine window lettering for Ulrich's model confectionery, and painted a couple of signs for Mrs. Lyden's restaurant, and has given a coat of varnish to the wood work of the postoffice and repainted the front of George Neuber's saloon buildings. This week he will repaint the front of Ulrich's confectionery store.

ALBANY PRIZE FIGHT

Oregon City Sport Meets an Albany Light Weight

Frank Freeman, of Oregon City, and Warren McDaniel of this city had a 10 round glove contest at the Armory last night. Freeman was the decision in the fourth round because one of McDaniel's seconds stepped into the ring.

The main event was preceded by a three round go between Willie Riley and Will Schmidt, both of this city. They put up a game fight and gave the spectators the worth of their money. The first round both mixed pretty lively and honors were about even. Riley had the best of the first part of the second round, but failed to follow several openings. Schmidt made it pretty warm for him before the going sounded.

Round number three was Riley's and he had Schmidt off his feet several times. It looked like a knockout but Schmidt was game and stayed the limit. Referee Dolan gave the decision to Riley.

The principals in the ten round go took their corners. McDaniel's first coming in the ring followed shortly by Freeman. Dolan and Chambers seconded the local boy, while Kid Gallagher and Rockner of Oregon City were in Freeman's corner. Wallace was time keeper and Dugger referee.

HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS

First round, both fought slug at first, McDaniel using the outer part of the ring. In a whirlwind mixup he was forced over the ropes and fell on the floor. It was a give and take game, both men landing some stiff punches. The referee warned Freeman to be careful in the clinches as he committed a clear foul.

Second round, McDaniel landed some hard hooks on Freeman's neck, and cleverly protected himself by clinches. Freeman got first blood in this round.

Third round, Freeman had the best of it and knocked McDaniel down twice, but the latter came up again at once and did not seem to suffer from the blows. Several hot exchanges occurred, McDaniel getting slightly the worst of it.

Fourth round, McDaniel was gritty, but it was apparent that it was Freeman's fight. Chambers realized the situation and stepped into the ring. This gave the decision to Freeman and the audience was satisfied. The local boy lacked training, but put up a good fight. He guards well, but lacks steam in close quarters. A number of ladies were present and professional and business men could be noticed in the front seats. The contest was clear and devoid of rowdiness.—Albany Herald.

CAUTION!

This is not a gentle word—but when you think how liable you are not to purchase the only remedy universally known and a remedy that has the largest sale of any medicine in the world since 1855 for the cure and treatment of Consumption and Throat and Lung troubles without losing its great popularity all these years, you will be thankful we called your attention to Boschee's German Syrup. There are so many ordinary cough remedies made by druggists and others that are cheap and good for light colds perhaps, but for severe coughs, bronchitis, croup—and especially for consumption where there is difficult expectation and coughing during the nights and mornings, there is nothing like German Syrup. The 25 cent size has just been introduced this year. Regular size 75 cents. Dr. Stone's Drug Stores.

The Carnival Fourth of July saved our merchants digging up the customary $2000 to pay the expenses of a celebration. Thanks for small favors.

Bed Time

I take a pleasant herb drink, the next morning I feel bright and my complexion is better. My doctor says it acts gently on the stomach, liver and kidneys, and is a pleasant laxative. It is made of herbs, and is prepared as easily as tea. It is called Lane's medicine. All druggists sell it at 25c and 50 cents. Lane's Family Medicines moves the bowels each day. If you cannot get it, send for free samples. Address, Orator Woodward, LeRoy, N. Y.

Imbibed too Freely.

TWENTY YEARS TRIAL.

There are lots of good things the doctors know nothing about. We frequently cure people of disease after the doctors have given them up. If the disease comes from over work, dissipation, of exposure, causing weak and watery blood, and loss of flesh and strength, we have the one sure remedy in Dr. Gunn's Blood and Nerve Tonic. These tablets taken with meals turn the food into rich red blood, making strong steady nerves, and increasing the strength, building up solid flesh at the rate of 1 to 2 lbs per week. This means health. For nervous prostration, loss of memory, or a pale, sallow complexion, a better remedy was never made. Doctors know nothing about this remedy only the fact that we make cures; as we have been doing this for twenty years we know our method to be the right one. Druggists sell Dr. Gunn's Blood and Nerve Tonic for 75c per box, or 2 boxes for $2.00, sent by mail on receipt of price. Write us for a pamphlet telling all about this great medicine. JUST ABOUT BEDTIME take a little Early Riser—it will cure constipation, biliousness and liver troubles. DeWitt's Little Early Riser are different from other pills. Haas, 56 State street.

The Weather.

The government forecast today is as follows: Tonight and Tuesday cloudy, with probable showers.

VALE REFERENDUM.

Having served its purpose as a political nostrum, the referendum is knocked out and cast aside as worthless by the courts.

Goodbye direct legislation, and the initiative and referendum. You have done your turn in the platform promiss, and are no longer needed.

Swashbuckling politicians whooped thee up, and thou wast to make all men honest, and the grafters were to be killed—in a horn.

The demagogues and promise-breaking smoothies of all parties could clasp hands and shout for the referendum.

They meant nothing by it, and are up doubt much relieved at the downfall and disappearance of their pet device to save the nation.

For four years they could throw dust and saw the air and say give the people a voice in our public affairs. Let them have a vote on EVERYTHING.

Who was so bold as to say the people should not have the right to pass on all matters, great and small, even the grafters were willing.

But it was all a political pushover that has been kicked by a court in one of the wards in Portland, and the supreme court will probably not object.

The toky-curvyfication of our state government; that would have been brought about by direct legislation no one could forecast, so it is perhaps the premature populist birth should have been slaugtered.
