

WEE WATCHES FOR WOMEN

Women's Watches are nowadays most diminutive and dainty affairs; and in some of them, unhappily, time keeping qualities have not been as carefully seen to as has the beauty of their cases. The BARR STORE does not at all believe in this sort of thing; and mere prettiness admits no watch to our stock. The movements of all our ladies' watches are carefully inspected and we can guarantee that they are of the faultless sort. In each ladies' watch we offer the external fastness as well as the internal goodness. From the dainty little Chateleine Watches at as low as $6, up to our most magnificent Ladies' Watches at as high as $125, there is no fear but they will amply please and satisfy the buyer.

The Salem "Raglan" returned from Eugene this morning, somewhat disappointed, but not discouraged by the loss of the two games of baseball to the Eugene nine. Sunday's game started off nicely for the Salem team, the "Raglan" taking the lead until the fifth inning, when a couple of wild throws by the Salem players gave the Eugene boys an opportunity to score, and they improved the advantage gained so well that the Salem nine went down to defeat. The score at the close of the ninth inning stood 5 to 3 in favor of the Eugene Nobles.

F. L. Pound, of Aumsville, was a Salem visitor this afternoon.

Opens Tonight.

The company to appear at Shield's Park this week, beginning this evening, arrived this morning, and Managers Patton are delighted with the aggregation of artists sent here for this week's entertainments. In addition to those already named in former issues of The Journal, there is an additional act, that of Mr. Earl, the black-faced comedian and wooden-shoe dancer, an artist in his line who has few equals on the vaudeville stage.

New White Funeral Outfit.

One of the most appropriate funeral processions ever seen in Salem was that of the late Lyon Adolph this afternoon, headed by the beautiful new white hearse with a splendid team of milk-white horses. The sight has never been equalled on the streets of Salem. Mr. W. T. Riddon, the Court-street undertaker, is to be commended for his enterprise in introducing this new feature in Salem.

BORN.

SROAT.—At Salem Saturday, July 19, 1903, to Mr. and Mrs. Paul H. Sroat, a daughter.

DIED.

KURTZ.—At the family home, No. 156 Trade street, Salem, Oregon, Sunday, July 19, 1903, at 9 p. m., Miss Agnes M. Kurtz, aged 32 years, 6 months and 24 days.

Deceased has suffered for some time from a complication of diseases, having recently recovered from an attack of typhoid fever, but the immediate cause of her death was an internal abscess.

Miss Kurtz was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Kurtz, and was born at Mt. Pleasant, Iowa, coming to Oregon with her parents in 1889, locating in Salem, where she has since resided. She was a popular young lady, and was an active church worker, being especially interested in the Sunday school work of the First Methodist church, in which she always took a leading part. She leaves to mourn her untimely death, her grief-stricken parents, five brothers and one sister. The brothers, Elijah A., Clinton G. and Fred A., and the sister, Hannah, are residents of Salem. Two other brothers, H. A. Kurtz, of Oakland, Cal., and John M., of Logan, Nebraska, have been notified of their sister's death, and the funeral arrangements will be completed when the last named is heard from. The brother at Oakland is now on the way to Salem, and will be here tomorrow evening.

The funeral will be held from the First Methodist church by Rev. John Parsons, and interment will be had in the I. O. O. F. cemetery on a date to be announced tomorrow.

ADOLPH.—At the family home, corner State and 25th streets, Salem, Oregon, Saturday, July 18, 1903, at 10:30 p. m., Lyon Adolph, eldest son of Mrs. Mary Adolph, aged 30 years, 3 months and 20 days, of consumption.

Deceased was born in Salem, the son of the late Samuel Adolph, who was a prominent business man of Salem. The young man contracted consumption several years ago, and the physicians treating him being unable to give him relief, he went to Los Angeles several months ago, but not realizing the hoped for benefit, returned to this city about a month ago. He sank gradually but steadily, until he passed away peacefully last night. Deceased leaves his mother, Mrs. Mary Adolph; three brothers, Joseph, William and Samuel, and two sisters, Miss Ida Adolph and Mrs. Eva Greenbaum, all of this city, to mourn his untimely departure. The funeral will be held today, and interment will be had in the family plot in Rural cemetery.

Catarrh

Is a constitutional disease. It originates in a scrofulous condition of the blood and depends on that condition.
