

Illinois Has Race Troubles

Two Hundred Troops are Sent to Danville.

THE MOB HANGS A NEGRO SHERIFF SHOTS TO KILL

Turned Loose With a Shotgun Loaded With Buckshot Wounding Many

Danville, Ill., July 27.—Two killed and 22 wounded, the police station wrecked, the county jail with few of its windows left unshattered, the city in the hands of the state troops, and a feeling of uneasiness and dread prevailing everywhere is the situation left by the race riots of last night and early this morning. The revised list of dead and injured from last night's catastrophe is as follows:

The dead:

John Meadelfe, negro; lynched and burned.

Henry Gatterman, killed by negro lead.

The injured:

John Devere, right thigh mangled by a load of buckshot.

Adam Murray, shot in forehead; will recover.

Bicknell, buckshot in right hand.

Clement Mobaker, buckshot in right hand.

A. W. Safford, injured internally.

Fred Lorenz, buckshot in legs.

W. Lattner, buckshot in legs.

Henry Renuick, of Taplin, Ill., buckshot in left foot and leg.

Two unknown men wounded in the arms and hands with buckshot, refused to give their names when their wounds were dressed.

Henry Slade, of Pavilion Heights, buckshot in left side.

Two unknown men, one shot in left arm and the other in the hand; refused to give names when wounds were dressed.

Unknown young man, wounded in hand, refused to give name.

Four unknown negroes, beaten into insensibility by the mob.

Unknown woman, carried away in a buggy after she was seen to fall.

H. Hines, shot in neck.

Otto Heinke, shot in arm.

Sheriff Whitlock, in giving his version of the matter said:

"After I saw from the jail that the mob was determined to attack I went to the veranda and attempted to talk to the maddened men. As I stepped into view of the maddened crowd, two bullets were fired, one striking the wall back of me. I fired two shots in the air. Some one shouted that I was only bluffing, and shooting blanks.

"I warned the mob that I would resist an attack on the jail with powder and lead. There was another shot from the mob, and it surged forward.

"I then fired a shot from my shotgun into their legs. This drove them back, but they returned a moment later to the attack on the front door. I was alarmed for the safety of my wife and children. My wife took a gun, and said she would stand by me. I got her and the children out of the way, and then, as the leaders commenced to batter down the walls, I shot along the rail, to make them drop it. This accounts for so many being shot in the hands and arms. I fired eight or ten shots in all."

Sheriff Whitlock had four deputies and three constables with him in the jail, guarding the prisoners. He says no one fired into the mob but he. A strained situation is noticeable, but the 200 soldiers here, it is thought, will prevent further outbreaks for the present, at least. Half of these will be on duty all the time.

Leading citizens say the outbreak has been expected for a long time, as a bitter feeling has existed for several years between the negroes and a certain class of white people. A number of minor outbreaks have occurred during the past year.

Union sympathizers in Spokane have filed a petition with the city council for a new telephone franchise, and will establish an independent line in that city.

Guy Beckman, a prominent school teacher and steam engineer, formerly of Union, was killed by a falling derrick pole, in John Day Valley, Friday.

Folsom, Cal., July 27.—Eighteen prisoners broke into the armory this morning, secured guns and escaped to Mormon island, taking with them Warden Wilkinson, his grandson, Harry, Captain Murphy and two other officers. They killed Guards Cochran and Cotton. A posse is in pursuit.

Warden Wilkinson, after his clothes were taken away from him, was released by the escaped prisoners.

Folsom, July 27.—One of the biggest breaks in the history of Folsom prison occurred this morning at 7 o'clock, as the line of prisoners were marching out of the prison to go to work. About 300 of them were out, when 13, who were in a bunch in the line, made a run for the guard's office, where Warden Wilkinson, Captain Murphy and other officers were. Each of the desperate men had a knife made of a file. They cut at the net, and Warden Wilkinson had a narrow escape, his clothes being cut through. Jos Cochran, W. L. Cotter and C. H. Because it is used so indiscriminately and on such slight provocation that it has lost its real meaning. But when we made up this collection of special offerings there was but one word that would adequately describe the collection—and that word was
