Heavy Firing Last Night

New Port, R. I., Aug. 15.—Once again the guns are cracking along the line and Newport is lining up for the fray. Mrs. Oliver H. P. Belmont, once the wife of William K. Vanderbilt, has begun a war of social extermination upon her former husband's family in general and his new wife in particular. Her reception and dinner last night, it is said, was one of the most elaborate functions ever given here. All society, even to the mere hangers-on, have been bidden, but no Vanderbilt. Delcourt will be tossed out for the reception and the 400 attended the dinner. A dance followed, with costly favors. Mrs. Belmont says she will eclipse the ball given in honor of the Duchess of Marlborough. Meanwhile the Vanderbilts are not inactive and it is said that many of their friends, among them persons of great social prominence, have found it convenient to leave Newport for a day or two.

Yacht Races Next Week

New York, Aug. 15.—The first of the international yacht races for the America Cup is scheduled to be sailed next Thursday and as the date approaches popular interest in the famous contest appears to increase by geometrical progression. A canvass of the leading hotels of the city brings to light the fact that a crowd of enormous proportions will be on hand to witness the third attempt of Sir Thomas Lipton to lift the historic trophy. Applications for accommodations are being received by the hundreds, not only from near-by points, but from all over the West and South. The arrangements committee is now engaged in making final preparations for accommodating the sightseers. Extraordinary precautions will be taken to prevent accidents and also to keep the racing course clear of the multitudes of sightseeing craft of all descriptions that is sure to be on hand.

The Latest Yarn.

A Pittsburg drummer tells this new yarn: I always carry a bottle of Kemp's Balsam in my grip. I take cold easily, and a few doses of the Balsam always makes me a well man. Everywhere I go I speak a good word for Kemp. I take hold of my customers—I take old men and young men, and tell them confidentially what I do, when I take cold. At druggists, 25 and 50 cents.

Berlin, Aug. 15.—Emperor William presided at a meeting of the crown council today, to consider measures for the relief of Silesia, where there is distress on account of the recent floods. It had been alleged the ministers refused government aid for the sufferers, and it was generally expected that resignations would be handed in, but no such action was taken. The ministers reported direct to the emperor, and explained their attitudes.
