

STATE FAIR CLOSES

Interested Crowds, and a Splendid Race Program

Magnificent Exhibits of all Kinds--List of Premiums and Those Who Took Them

The Oregon state fair for 1903 closed on Saturday evening, figuratively speaking, in a blaze of glory, but in reality in outer darkness. The fair was a success, a complete and unqualified success in all departments, nothing going amiss throughout the entire week, except that, as the last evening's program in the pavilion was only partially completed, and crowds filled the big building, enjoying the last program and a last sight of the exhibits, the electric lights were turned off, owing to an accident in the power house, and the rest of the evening the pavilion was lighted by gasoline lamps, oil lamps, candles and what not, but this did not disturb the serenity of the happy holiday crowd gathered for a final enjoyment of the evening program.

On every side the exhibitors were beginning to pack their property for their return trips, and when the crowd finally left the grounds, the entire space devoted to exhibits during the past week began to have a dilapidated appearance. Some of the race horses and show stock were early Saturday afternoon removed, and the rest followed Sunday, carload after carload of the valuable animals being shipped either to the Irvington track, or to the ranches from which they were brought to the fair.

Sunday afternoon and evening the board was kept busy settling with the many exhibitors and race horse men during the week, and all were paid as fast as the claims could be presented and verified.

The week's record at the race track was a splendid one, and once more established the fact that Lone Oak track is an ideal one. The horsemen went away well satisfied with the week's sport, and the well-filled grand stand at the track during every day of the week's racing shows that the public was satisfied with the program offered.

Trotting, 2:17 Class, 3 in 5, Purse $500
The first event of the afternoon, the 2:17 trot, brought out five horses for the contest: E. S. Bailey's Redskin, Hogaboom driving; E. A. Smith's Idlewild, Smith; A. M. Carr's Master Delmar, Hayes; N. K. West's The Commonwealth, Lucas; John Lane's Dr. Brunnell, Lucas. Repeated scoring was caused by the breaking of Delmar and The Commonwealth, while passing under the wire. The horses started well, with the exception of Master Delmar, who was running under the wire. Redskin led around the turn, when Delmar and Commonwealth collided, breaking down Hayes' sulky, and putting his horse out of the heat. Redskin led into the turn, with Idlewild a close second. At the three-quarters, Redskin broke and Idlewild secured a lead of three lengths. Into the stretch Idlewild led, with Redskin a close second. When nearing the wire Redskin spurted, and won the heat by half a length in 2:16 3/4, with Idlewild second. The Commonwealth third and Delmar, on account of the accident was given fourth place, while Brunnell was distanced. Time by quarters, 34, 1:07, 1:41 3/4, 2:16 3/4.

The four trotters came out for the second heat, and at the start Redskin led around the turn, with Idlewild second, and Master Delmar third. At the head of the back stretch Redskin broke and Idlewild took the lead, and held it to the five-eighths, where Master Delmar spurted, took the lead with a magnificent stride and kept it to the wire, Idlewild coming second, Redskin third and The Commonwealth a bad fourth. Time by quarters, 34 1/4, 1:08 1/4, 1:42, 2:17 1/4.

In the third heat Master Delmar led around the turn with Idlewild second, but the latter broke and dropped into third place at the head of the back stretch, and Redskin took second place, Delmar leading to the stretch, with Redskin second, Idlewild third and Commonwealth fourth. Down the stretch they came, Delmar leading, and though Redskin made every effort to get into the lead, Delmar went under the wire in 2:17 1/4, with Redskin second, Idlewild third and Commonwealth fourth, barely inside the flag. Time by quarters, 34, 1:08 1/4, 1:42, 2:17 1/4.

The fourth heat of the 2:17 trot brought out Master Delmar and Redskin, winners in the first three heats. They got a good start, Delmar leading by half a length under the wire, and he gradually increased the lead to two lengths at the quarter but on the back stretch Redskin drew alongside, and a half length behind trotted for a half mile. At the half Delmar broke, and Redskin went to the lead at the three-quarters by six lengths, entering the stretch far in the lead. Delmar spurted down the stretch; it was a horse race, and with a magnificent stride, the two trotters passed under the wire, Redskin leading by a half length in 2:18 1/4. Time by quarters, 33 1/4, 1:08, 1:42 1/4, 2:18 1/4.

The concluding heat of the 2:17 trot saw a splendid fight. Redskin led to the back stretch, but a bad break gave Delmar the lead, and the great Montana trotter held this position to the wire, winning in a jog the heat and race in 2:18 1/4, with Redskin got-ting second money. Time by quarters, 35, 1:12, 1:45, 2:18 1/4.

Trotting, Consolation, 2 in 3, Purse $500.
The consolation trot was an interesting exhibition of racing. In this event five horses started. They were C. Whitehead's Deputy, Whitehead in the sulky; L. Zimmerman's Louis Z., Erwin; J. W. Miller's H. H. H., Miller; Fred Brooker's Mark Hannabus, Green, and E. Smith's Idol, Holman. When they got away Deputy led at the first turn, with Louis Z. second and H. H. H. third to the three-quarters, where H. H. H. took second place from Louis Z., and at the head of the stretch the latter dropped to last place. The horses came in under the whip, Deputy leading in 2:18 1/4, with H. H. H. second, Idol third, Mark Hannabus fourth, Louis Z. fifth. Time by quarters, 34 1/4, 1:08, 1:43 1/4, 2:18 1/4.

Deputy led the trotters in the second heat, going around the turn with Idol a length behind and Mark Hannabus four lengths, while H. H. H. came a close fourth. These positions they held to the stretch, Deputy leading to the wire, with Idol in second place, H. H. H. third, Mark Hannabus fourth, Louis Z. fifth. Time by quarters, 34 1/4, 1:07 1/4, 1:44 1/4, 2:19 1/4.

The race was won by Deputy, with Idol and H. H. H. tying for second and third money, and Mark Hannabus fourth.

One Mile Running, Handicap, $200.
The mile handicap running race had six starters—S. Jones' Rimrock, with Duggan up; Larsen & McBride's Ohio Girl, Carson; E. M. Rutherford's McFarland, Smith; Fred Blumberg's Pepper Sauce, Adair; J. Green's Rasp, Burton; J. O. Thrall's Sally Goodwin, McClees. The horses lined up, and made a start, when Rasp, after passing the wire, was drawn up. Confusion resulted, and only four horses passed around the turn. Judge Leighton at once rang the bell, but the starters had got too far away, and made the mile run, Sally Goodwin and Rimrock coming under the wire. A crowd gathered around the stand, and the owners and backers of Sally Goodwin and Rimrock fiercely demanded that they be called winners, while others as vehemently protested, and a turmoil ensued, such as this meet has not seen before. The judges declared the start no race, all bets off, and gave 20 minutes for new books to be made. At the same time it was announced that Sally Goodwin and Rimrock had been withdrawn from the race.

When the runners came out for a second attempt at the mile handicap, only Ohio Girl, McFarlane, Pepper Sauce and Rasp were there for the start. They got away nicely, and Rasp took the lead to the turn, with McFarlane a close second, and Pepper Sauce third, with Ohio Girl in a pocket. Around the turn and into the back stretch they raced, Ohio Girl dropping out of the pocket and taking the outside, Rasp leading to the head of the stretch, with McFarlane second and Pepper Sauce third. Down the home stretch they came, Rasp leading to near the wire, when Ohio Girl spurted, took the lead and won in 1:41 1/4, the best mile ever made on the Lone Oak track. Rasp took second place, Pepper Sauce third and McFarlane fourth. This is the track record, the first time the record of 1:42, made by Mowitza, Whitmore's mare, during the 1894 meet, has been broken, and this now stands for the track record.

Running, Consolation, Five Furlongs, Purse $150.

The last race of the afternoon, as also the last of the 1903 fair, was a splendid running event, in which six horses took part. They were: J. H. Brannan's Aurora B., Poretto up; E. M. Rutherford's Black Dugan, McLeon; West & Stover's John Boggs, McClees; M. L. White's Dr. Sherman, Buxton; Clancey's Tom Cox, Duggan; Parker & Smolden's Rosebud, Adair. The horses got off in a bunch, Aurora B. leading in a splendid race to the wire in 1:01 1/4, with Rosebud second and Dr. Sherman third.

This closed the afternoon's racing program, and the meet for the 1903 fair, and the crowd went away pleased with the day's entertainment.

Curbatone Chronicles.

Frank Dickman and wife earned $95 picking hops in 17 1/2 days. He picked without gloves, but his wife wore them. They are about 60 years old, and this is the banner report we have heard from people of that age.

Barney Pompelli still holds the championship as hop-picker, at least by reputation. He gets people to talk about him, and it is believed that Barney is a good advertiser. He will not pick in a yard that is not run on strict prohibition lines.

A business man complained to this paper that a wood sawing outfit has been standing on one of our principal streets for a month, he claims, to be repaired. The repair shop man says he would have moved it long ago to his back yard, if any one had complained. But, like most people, he uses the street to the best advantage, so long as the public do not kick.

The Levi hop yard has turned off the biggest crop in ten years, over 6000 boxes. One piece of ground, of nine acres, turned off 2900 boxes. Where is there a yard that can beat this?

W. W. Walker has not only built a fine new house the past year, but has laid the foundation for a fine windmill, tower and tank for irrigation purposes. Several people in that part of the city—25th street—will lay new sidewalks this fall, and all kinds of property is looking up.

That wonderful advertising cart for the Salem shoe store, that was running a dump sale, has appeared for the first time on our streets—and many will say amen. A loose-jointed animal called a horse, and a wagon of the tumbledown, creaking variety, with a driver as homely as a mud fence jingling an old cow bell, and with tin cans and other rubbish loaded in behind, it was a sight to remind one of Jaytown, and, while it was one way to advertise a dump sale, everybody is glad it has quit.

Gray Gets the Contract.
C. A. Gray, of this city, has received the contract from the state board of building commissioners, to build an extension to the state sewer, where it empties into the Willamette river, at the foot of Center street, so as to bring the mouth of the sewer into the water, even at the lowest stage of the river. The work will be commenced at once and the extension will consist of an iron pipe, 16 inches in diameter, extending from the present mouth of the sewer into the river, and this will be imbedded in concrete so as to make it absolutely immovable. Mr. Gray says the work will be completed as soon as possible, as the state officials are urging haste.

Bohemia All Right.
The Lane County Leader says: It is observed that the Bohemia mining district is now coming in for than a full share of notice through the columns of the big coast dailies and mining journals, and as developments and operations progress in this important mining district, its fame is sure to broaden.

Closed Tomorrow.
The clothing store at No. 149 State street, on account of New Year.

Brought to the Asylum.
Charles Hier was brought to the asylum from Douglas county this morning, by H. A. Crow. He is a German, a brewer by trade, aged 60 years.

Thanks, Mr. Griswold.
Thanks to the street commissioner, George Griswold, the unsightly pile of slabwood that obstructed South Commercial street has been removed, the street raked up and the refuse burned.

Treasurer Pays Taxes.
The treasurer of Josephine county this morning made a payment of state taxes to the state treasurer. The amount paid was $3307.50, on account of state taxes, and $112.50 Agricultural College tax.

New Health Bread.
The Capital Bakery, on Court street, is turning out a variety of health bread that will please lovers of every variety of the staff of life. It is made partly of corn meal, and raised like the finest white bread, but has a thick crust, and a substantial quality that is missing in a great deal of the light, fluffy bakery bread. It is also easily digested, and will be found very desirable for children, and persons of either weak or strong stomachs. The old asylum baker makes it, and many who have seen the asylum bread know just what this health bread is like. Sold only from Dunkle's bakery on Court street, or by grocers that supply his bread.

Paid for State Papers.
State Superintendent Ackerman today paid into the state treasury $874.40 to be placed in the state examiner's fund, being the receipts on account of state papers issued to successful applicants.

Samuel H. Piles, of King county, Washington, announces himself a candidate for United States senator. His election would improve the status of the senate some.

Margarita Fischer Co.
This company has played a week at Salem to constantly increasing audiences, and, both as a dramatic company, and as musicians and specialists, have proven themselves a very worthy organization of entertainers. Their plays are clean and full of fun and enjoyment, and worthy of the attendance of the best people. The company is strong in all its support, the leading men and women parts being first-class artists. Waterhoff, the old man parts, and as leading comedian, being equal to any. Miss Fischer has developed great abilities in the short time she has been on the stage, being one of the most beautiful and versatile actresses that has been produced in the West. She is possessed of great talents, and, with her constant devotion to her art, she is bound to become a star in the profession. She bears herself in all her plays with a winsome womanliness that charms all, and her audience, especially the ladies, vibrate between laughter and tears. The company has a fine array of costumes, and carries many accessories of the stage that enables them to produce plays in a very effective manner.

The state fair did not close in a blaze of glory, instead the lights went out.

Humors
They take possession of the body, and are Lords of Misrule. They are attended by pimples, boils, itching tetter, salt rheum, and other venereal eruptions; by feelings of weakness, languor, general debility and what not. They cause more suffering than anything else.

Overcoats

Need an Overcoats this fall? The time to select is right away, before lines are culled over in the rush of returning hop-pickers. The long coat is still the correct thing, yet many prefer the medium length coat that is never out of style. We have both lengths in chevriots unfinished worsteds and kerseys, and in prices ranging all the way up to $25.00.

NEW FALL TOP COATS

"Overcoats" is not the term for these jaunty garments. It gives no suggestion of their snappy style and elegance. They're the swaggy thing for the young fellow or the man who feels young. Prices range from $14 to $20.

CRAVENETTES

Cut long and full, are the swell garments for men who do not care for a weighty overcoat, yet desire the protection of a full length coat. They're rain proof yet not out of place on the brightest days. For service and style in all kinds of weather the "Cravenette" is it.

GET YOUR FALL SUIT NOW

While you have a big assortment to select from. We guarantee every suit, and we also guarantee a fit. No other clothing store in this vicinity has its own tailors. That explains why our customers wear suits that fit. We fit your purse, too, for our new suits range from $10 to $25. A few "left-overs" at your own price.
