BUNCO STEERERS CAPTURE

An Aged Farmer From Near Macleay, Oregon

Rescued by Detectives With Considerable Money on His Person, While Being Robbed

(Special to Salem Journal)
San Francisco, Sept. 24.—J. P. Humphrey, a farmer, well known at Salem, was rescued today by the police from the hands of five bunco steerers, who had engaged him in a card game, and were about to strip him of a large sum of money he had on his person. Humphrey is nearly 80 years old, and was picked up by the confidence men on Market street. They talked Oregon to him until the tears rolled down his cheeks. They got him into a hotel, and practiced the usual arts, winding up with a card game, when he was rescued by the detectives.

Well Known at Salem.

J. P. Humphrey is a well-known resident of Marion county, and has many friends in this city. He is nearly 80 years of age, and has lived in this county half a life-time. He is a resident of the north end of Sublimity precinct, owning a large and valuable farm near where the Clymer post-office, a few miles beyond Macleay, was formerly situated. Mr. Humphrey lost his wife two years ago, and since that time has not been contented on the farm, and has spent a goodly portion of his time visiting in California. Last spring he returned to Oregon, but after a short stay on the old place, he decided to again go to California, and about ten days ago he left for San Francisco, expecting to spend the winter in that state. He is the soul of honesty, and believes every one as honest as himself, and is thus an easy mark for a smooth bunco steerer or confidence operation. Mr. Humphrey has five sons, four of them residents of this county, and one living at Springfield. The latter is Dan Humphrey, formerly janitor of the court house here. The sons living in Marion county are: Thomas, a mail clerk on the Woodburn branch of the S. P.; Charles, a farmer, residing on the Blair Forward farm near Silverton; William, residing on a farm near Macleay, and Frank, residing on the old gentleman's farm in that neighborhood.

Recommends That all Members of the Organization Support Him For the Nomination

A special meeting of the executive board at Washington yesterday adopted a set of resolutions to the effect that Roosevelt is the best friend that organized labor ever had in the White House. All the members of the organization, numbering hundreds of thousands, are urged to support him.
