The Early Curtain a Success, "In Old Kentucky," the attraction at the Grand Opera House last night, was one of the best productions given at that popular play-house for a long force, has returned from a visit to Roads and highways $ 26,235.25 time. It was a grand entertainment, and was thoroughly appreciated. The house was crowded; every box was filled; chairs filled all aisles, and standing room was at a premium, and all enjoyed the excellent production to the full. It was an innovation to ring up the curtain at 6:45, an hour and a half earlier than usual, but the change was a complete success, and the theatre-goers approved the new arrangement by their presence. This arrangement enables the management to bring first-class productions to Salem, without cutting the performance or losing time, and the Salem public can be depended upon to liberally support first-class attractions at seasonable hours.

A Delicious Beverage.

Lovers of coffee are invited to try a new importation of Matagalpa coffee, grown by I. L. Manning, a Salem man, and browned fresh every day by O'Flyn & Johnson, at the I. O. O. Temple coffee store. Properly prepared, (put on with cold water and let come to a boll, and then remove and settled). It is a mild and deliclous, creamy-flavored beverage, with none of the harmful qualities of the
