

NEW WARD LIMITS ADOPTED

The Ordinance Passed At Last Night's Council Meeting

Plumbing Board Named By the Mayor--Bicycle Law Not Ordered Enforced

The city council met at 7:30 o'clock last evening, with the mayor, recorder and all aldermen present, except Messrs. Hubbard and Catlin. The minutes of the former meeting were read and approved.

The most important action of the council was the enactment of the ordinance creating the three new wards, and defining the boundaries of all the other wards in the city. This ordinance was passed without opposition, upon the recommendation of the ordinance committee, after the latter had consulted with representatives from the new territory affected.

The applications of Butte & Wendeloth, W. R. Anderson, E. Eckerlein and Henry Helmken for saloon licenses were reported upon favorably by the license committee, and licenses were ordered to issue.

Street Commissioner Griswold reported that the extension of the three city sewers had been completed. He also reported a nuisance near the Flouring Mills Company's property. The matter was referred to the chief of police, with instructions to abate the nuisance in that block. He also reported a hydrant leaking at the corner Capital.

City Treasurer Moir filed his quarterly report for the three months ending September 30th, as follows:

General Fund.
Receipts	$12,441.28
Disbursements	5,822.97
Balance on hand	$6,618.31
Road and Street Fund.
Receipts	$2,331.84
Disbursements	1,991.81
Balance	340.03

The report was adopted. Mayor Bishop reported to the council the appointment of a plumbing board, consisting of Geo. Dunford, Martin Petzel and Theo. M. Barr. An order was made by the council instructing the city recorder to issue commissions to the three appointees.

The recorder read reports of George Griswold, ordering sidewalks constructed at several points in the city. The recorder was instructed to make necessary entry in the case of the sidewalk along the I. R. Moores property, corner of State and Commercial streets. This order carries with it an order to the street commissioner to clear upon the property and at once reconstruct the walk, as required by the ordinance, and report to the council. City Recorder Judah reported that a nuisance in the armory would be abated, and that the room and stairs could be kept clean by the militia company in future, in accordance with the orders of the council.

The recorder reported having notified the Portland Flouring Mills Co. to at once improve the bridges and paving on the North Mill race on Division and Front streets, and read a letter from A. E. Davis, secretary of the company, promising to take up the matter at once.

The applications of A. Cornoyer and Fred Neckerman for saloon licenses were read and referred to the license committee.

An order was made crediting Mrs.

M. J. Kaiser $2.45 on lien docket, to correct an error.

Thomas Riesbeck, a cripple, petitioned the council for permission to ride his tricycle on the sidewalks of Salem, and the permission was granted by common consent.

The amended license ordinance was re-referred to the ordinance committee for further consideration.

Mr. Stolz moved that the recorder compile and have printed 2000 cards, showing the bicycle limits of the city, after which the new bicycle ordinance should be enforced. Mr. Poble opposed this, pleading unnecessary expense, and urging a stay of proceedings, as such a course would drive bicycle riders into the muddy streets. The proposal of Mr. Stolz was hopelessly lost, thus showing that the council is not heartily in favor of the enforcement of the new bicycle ordinance.

The committee on accounts and current expenses reported favorably on the following bills, and they were ordered paid:

A CROWN OF GLORY.

As Well as a Mark of Beauty is Luxurious Hair.

It has been truly said that the crowning glory of our race is a luxuriant head of hair.

It used to be thought that this was one of the blessings which the gods bestowed capriciously, and it was only recently that scientists have discovered that its beauty is dependent upon the absence of a minute germ which flourishes in the hair follicles, where it destroys the life of the hair.

To restore this life and kill the germs which cause the mischief is the mission of Newbro's Herpicide.

Herpicide surely kills the germs, and is the best hair dressing on the market.

It contains no grease or oils, neither will it stain nor dye.

Sold by leading druggists. Send 10 cents in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

Eruptions

Dry, moist, scaly tetter, all forms of eczema or salt rheum, pimples and other cutaneous eruptions proceed from humors, either inherited, or acquired through defective digestion and assimilation.

To treat these eruptions with drying medicines is dangerous.

The thing to do is to take Hood's Sarsaparilla and Pills

Which thoroughly cleanse the blood, expelling all humors and building up the whole system. They cure

Hood's Sarsaparilla permanently cured J. G. Hines, Franks, Ill., of eczema, from which he had suffered for some time; and Miss Alvina Walter, Box 212, Algona, Wis., of pimples on her face and back and chafed skin on her body, by which she had been greatly troubled. There are more testimonials in favor of Hood's than can be published.

Hood's Sarsaparilla promises to cure and keeps the promise.

Interesting Experiment in a Restaurant.

An advertising agent, representing a prominent New York magazine, while on a recent western trip, was dining one evening in a Pittsburgh restaurant.

While waiting for his order he glanced over his newspaper and noticed the advertisement of a well known dyspepsia preparation, Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets; as he himself was a regular user of the tablets, he began speculating as to how many of the other traveling men in the dining room were also friends of the popular remedy for indigestion.

He says: I counted twenty-three men at the tables and in the hotel office I took the trouble to interview them and was surprised to learn that nine out of the twenty-three made a practice of taking one or two of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets after each meal.

One of them told me he had suffered so much from stomach trouble that at one time he had been obliged to quit the road, but since using Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets had been entirely free from indigestion, but he continued their use, especially while traveling, on account of irregularity in meals and because like all traveling men he was often obliged to eat what he could get and not always what he wanted.

Another who looked the picture of health, said he never ate a meal without taking a Stuart Tablet afterward because he could eat what he pleased and when he pleased without fear of sleepless night or any other trouble.

Still another used them because he was subject to gas on the stomach, causing pressure on heart and lungs, shortness of breath and distress in chest, which he no longer experienced since using the tablets regularly.

Another claimed that Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets was the only safe remedy he had ever found for sour stomach and acidity. He had formerly used common soda to relieve the trouble, but the tablets were much better and safer to use.

After smoking, drinking or other excesses which weaken the digestive organs, nothing restores the stomach to a healthy, wholesome condition so effectively as Stuart's Tablets.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets contain the natural digestives, pepsin, diastase, which every weak stomach lacks, as well as nux, hydrastin and yellow parilla, and can be safely relied on as a radical cure for every form of poor digestion. Sold by Druggists everywhere.

Osteopathy reasons that a stream of pure blood, compounded and dispensed in Nature's own laboratory within the body to meet its particular needs, is the safest and most effective nerve tonic and tissue builder which man can employ.

A Heart Party.

Mrs. S. W. Thompson gave a very charming afternoon party on Tuesday, in honor of her sister, Miss Vera Byers, who leaves soon for Goldendale, Wash., to spend the winter. The game of hearts was played, at the conclusion of which dainty refreshments were served. Prizes were won by Misses Schoenfeldt and Hubbard. Those present besides the guest of honor were: Mr. Louis Lachmund, Miss Nettie Beckner, Miss Edna Hubbard, Miss Yates, Miss Lola Herron, of Independence; Miss Nan Wagner, Miss Cora Talkington, Miss Heles Calbreath, Miss Kate Carmichael, Miss Ruth Gabrielson, Miss Agnes Gilbert, Miss Leda Buren and Miss Schoenfeldt.

CANADA'S FUTILE SCHEME

Commission Would Not Stand For Her Coarse Work

She Has An Outlet Through Portland Canal but None From the Head of the Yukon

Cleveland, Oct. 21.—The Alaska boundary decision was generally expected. Canada's right to at least half of the Portland canal is undisputed. The ownership of Pearce and Wales islands is of small importance. In 1825 the treaty between Russia and Great Britain, providing for the boundary line between English and Russian-America was signed. In 1867 the United States purchased Russian-America, and therefore purchased all the lands which Russia had under this treaty. The treaty fixed the beginning of the boundary at the mouth of the Portland canal, and has a few points which it was to touch, but it provided that the Russians were to remain in possession of all the territory between the Portland canal and Mt. St. Elias, for 30 miles back from the coast line. There is where the trouble arose. The whole western coast from Puget Sound north, is protected by a chain of islands. As the original boundary line was fixed, it ran a distance of 30 miles from the line of the actual mainland. Canada's contention was that the line should run 30 miles from the outer coast of the islands, a contention that should have no possible weight with any one, except a government grabbing for land.

The United States remained in undisturbed possession of the territory until the discovery of gold in the Klondike. Then British Columbia awoke to the fact that there was no way of getting into the Klondike from the sea, except by passing through United States territory. At once Canada began looking for some scheme for getting to the coast, and the result was the plan which has now failed. Had Canada's contention been successful, the United States would have lost the entire coast line and Skagway, Juneau and several other Southeastern Alaska towns, as well as immeasurable mineral and timber wealth. There is a grave question whether England ever really believed Canada had any right to the territory in dispute. There are many people, not only in Alaska, but in Washington, who believed that the decision was a foregone conclusion. Many believe that it was understood before the commission ever met that England was to side with the United States, and that the appointment of a commission was simply favored by England as a means of letting Canada down lightly.

London, Oct. 21.—Foster, the American counsel before the Alaska commission, today said the Americans were satisfied with the award. They would, of course, have liked to retain the Portland canal, but they have no criticism. The line of demarcation, as decided upon by the majority of the tribunal, follows: "The line of peaks starting at the head of Portland canal, running along the high mountains, on the outer edge of the mountains, as shown on the maps of survey made in 1893. From these mountains the line extends to Mount Whipple, thence along what is known as the Hunter line of 1875, crossing the Stikine river about 24 miles from its mouth, thence northerly along the high peaks to Katis Needle, and from there to the Devil's Thumb. The tribunal states there is insufficient evidence, owing to the absence of complete surveys, to identify the mountains which correspond with those intended by the treaty. This statement contemplates and suggests a joint survey of that portion by the two governments. The mountains referred to are in the eastern range, between Katis Needle and the Devil's Thumb. Such a survey would not in any sense interfere with the award."
