COLD QUIETS STRIKE

Not Many Cars Running, But no One on the Streets on Account of Weather

Chicago, Nov. 18.—The cars started on the third line of the Chicago City Railway system heavily guarded. There was no interference, and but few on the streets, owing to the intense cold, the thermometer hovering but a few degrees below zero.

A number of teamsters were arrested this morning for blockading cars, and more stones were thrown than yesterday. The Indiana avenue trolley wires were cut, and also the guy wires on the 29th street line.

The mayor and aldermanic committee met this morning, but nothing encouraging was done. Representatives of every car union in the city called on the mayor and placed before him the proposition that the employers should be forced to arbitrate.

Generous Utah Woman.

A woman doctor went to Utah to practice. She was a pleasant lady, as well as skillful, and her patients were very fond of her. "How I wish," said one of them, "that I could convert you to our religion! If you would only marry my husband, and come and live with us—"

The doctor fled in horror to another friend, to whom she told the story. Her self-respect began to revive, and she felt comforted, seeing how the eyes of her listener blazed.

I don't wonder you feel as you do," replied the friend indignantly. "The idea! Why, that Mr. — is perfectly horrid. What you want to do is to marry my husband, and come and live with us.—Plattsburgh (N. Y.) Tribune.

She Got the Candy.

A Chicago child, not yet five years old, having been punished by her mother, called up her father on the telephone for sympathy. "Papa," was the piping call his stenographer heard on answering the ring.

"Why, it's the baby," she said to her employer. The startled man, with visions of disaster in his mind, caught the receiver, and said: "What is it, baby?" "Mamma 'panked me," came the reply.

"Well, what do you want me to do about it?" asked the relieved and amused parent.

"Come right home, and bring me a pound of candy," said the child.

Ready for Thanksgiving.

There is a happy editor out in Nebraska, and this is the way in which he announces it: No wife to fear, no money in the bank, No tea to buy, no yelling kid to spank. A free lunch counter always ready at my hand— Say, ain't I dwelling in the promised land?

MARRIED.

LOOSE—WEBER.—At the family home of the bride's parents, near the Labor Exchange warehouse, in North Salem, Oregon, Wednesday, November 18, 1903, Miss Rosetta Weber to Mr. W. H. Loose, Rev. P. S. Knight officiating.

The bride is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Weber, well-known and highly respected citizens of North Salem. She is a beautiful and accomplished young lady, and has numerous friends. The groom is a well-known young man. The happy couple has a host of warm and admiring friends, who will join in wishing these young people all the happiness incident to married life.

WONDERFUL WORK.

Lots Like It Being Done Right Here in Salem.

Salem people are surprised at the work being done by "The Little Conqueror." Public expression on the subject brings the matter frequently before the people. At first there were many doubters; and why not? So many claims of a similar nature have been made with little or no backing excepting the word of some stranger residing in a far-away place; this evidence was accepted for lack of better. Not necessary to accept it any longer. All sufferers from any kidney ail can find plenty of local endorsement for a remedy that will cure them. Surely the wonderful work of Doan's Kidney Pills right here at home is proof sufficient to satisfy any skeptic. Read the expression of one citizen on the subject:

Harry M. Shaw, city foreman of the Eugene Morning Register, residing at 285 West eighth street, Eugene Ore, says: "I predict much less suffering from backache among Eugene people when the merits of Doan's Kidney Pills are thoroughly known. Their use stopped an acute attack of backache which had annoyed me for five or six weeks and which was caused, I think from constant sitting at my work in an upright position. I took them as above and they proved to do all that is claimed for them."

Plenty of more proofs like from Salem people. Call at Dr. Stone's drug stores and ask what his customers report.

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y. Sole Agents for the United States. Remember the name Doan's and take no substitute.

The Sewer Caved in.

The sewer running through the alley back of the Ladd & Bush bank broke this afternoon, and there is a gaping hole in the ground where the cave-in occurred. Chief of Police Gibson, upon discovering the condition of the sewer, erected a barricade over the hole, and sent word to Street Commissioner Griswold, who, with a force of men, will make immediate repairs.
