

STRIKE STILL GROWS

Teamsters Union Joined the Carmen This Morning

True Inwardness of the Strike Shows the Strikers Make No Unreasonable Demands

Chicago, Nov. 19.—The union teamsters this morning joined hands with the strikers, 60 walking out of the Chicago City Railway car barns. Every member of the organization will refuse to handle supplies for the company. The action was sanctioned by the council of the teamsters' union last night. Mayor Harrison this morning renewed his efforts to end the trouble. The aldermanic mediation board says it is up to the Chicago City railway, as the strikers practically announce the scale won't stand in the way of a settlement, nor do they demand the complete unionization of the road. They do insist, however, that the routing of cars shall be changed so that the men won't have to put in from 10 to 20 hours each day, waiting about barns in an effort to make 10 hours actual running time. Sunday's union mass meeting is expected to be the greatest demonstration of organized labor ever held in Chicago. Every union in the city will participate, and will march from their headquarters, headed by bands, to Tattersall's. The object of this monster meeting is to obtain the voice of the entire labor element on the strike question, and the municipal ownership by cities of street railways. Late this forenoon it was announced the freight handlers and wholesale grocers would probably refuse to handle goods destined for the street railway. A carload of strike-breakers arrived today from St. Louis, and cars were started on Halstead street this morning, 500 policemen guarding them. There was some disorder about the barns, and the police feared trouble, as the line runs through a particularly tough district. At noon Mayor Harrison admitted that nothing had been gained toward a strike settlement, and he had almost abandoned hope. The steam railways believe the strike will be prolonged. Every available coach and locomotive is being prepared for suburban service.

Gov. Yates, in an interview today, admitted that 8000 troops could be put into Chicago within 24 hours, provision having been made recently for such a contingency as may confront the authorities before the week ends.

Storm Opens Drawbridge.
Hoquiam, Wash., Nov. 19.—The bridge which spans the Hoquiam river became unlocked Tuesday afternoon, while three teams and a large number of pedestrians were crossing, and was blown open by the strong east wind. This would have damaged the bridge, and no doubt caused an awful accident, but for the presence of mind of Mr. Phelps, the tender. As soon as the bridge was blown open he got his levers in place, and not a bit too soon, for it was going like a whirlwind, and required the strength of eight people to hold it, and bring it back in to place.

The teams on the bridge became unruly, plunging around, and making it exceedingly dangerous for the women and children on the bridge at the time.

To Make a Combine.
New York, Nov. 19.—Railway representatives are in conference today with the steel interest, regarding freight reduction on products for export. Manufacturers demand a 50 per cent reduction, to enable them to compete with foreign manufacturers. The railroads also demand a reduction on steel rails.

King and Queen Lunched.
London, Nov. 19.—State luncheon was served today in Guild Hall for the entertainment of the king and queen of Italy. Their majesties arrived from Windsor early this morning, and went to the Italian embassy. They were given an ovation on their trip to the Guild, and the streets were profusely decorated.

Indiana Bank Fails.
Elkhart, Ind., Nov. 19.—The national bank here failed to open for business this morning. National Bank Examiner Bosworth was instructed by the comptroller to take charge. Its resources and liabilities are nearly a million, according to its September report.

An Italian Murder.
Minneapolis, Nov. 19.—The body of Salvatore Battaglia was found on Franklin-avenue bridge this morning, with 21 still-to wounds. The police believe it a case of Italian revenge, as the wounds were from behind, and $60 in the pockets were untouched.

WILD EYED CARRIE

The Kansas Calamity Visits the White House

Two Policemen Bounce the Old Termagant and She Goes Into Erup-tion

Washington, Nov. 19.—Carrie Nation was forcibly ejected from the White House this morning, after endeavoring to force her way into the presence of the President. She entered at 10 o'clock, and Loeb explained that the President was busy. She sat down for half an hour, making a running comment on the other visitors who entered. Finally she walked into Loeb's office, and said she demanded to see the President immediately. She wanted to ask him why he brought a dive into Kansas when he took his Western tour. Loeb, after a vain attempt to pacify her, called two officers, who were compelled to drag the smasher out, as she resisted to the utmost. She created a scene on the street afterward, by praying for the election of a Prohibition President, who would represent the people, and not the brewers. She came here from Baltimore last night, where her troupe is playing "Ten Nights in a Barroom." Carrie also accused Roosevelt of smoking a nasty cigarette on the capitol steps at Topeka.

Carrie Nation was arrested for disorderly conduct, in selling souvenirs in the senate gallery, and taken to the sixth precinct station in a patrol wagon.

Snowbound and Starving.
Missoula, Mont., Nov. 19.—Word was sent to the Missoulian from the Trout creek district last evening that there are several parties of immigrants along the Spokane road, in the west end of Missoula county, snow-bound and on the verge of starvation. In one party, near the Idaho border, is a family of five, snowed up, and without provisions or money. The family is living in an eight-foot tent, with the snow up to the wagonbed, unable to get out or secure food for the stock.

Three other emigrant parties are reported along the trail, snowed up in the passes, and all in a precarious condition. Efforts are to be made tomorrow to send out relief parties, through the board of county commissioners.

No Troops for Colorado.
Washington, Nov. 19.—Roosevelt, after a long conference with Root today, decided to deny Governor Peabody's request for federal troops in the Colorado mining districts. Under the law the President can only act when violence is beyond the control of the state troops and police, and then can only act on the request of the legislature, or upon the governor's request. If it is impossible to get the legislature together, the President and Root hold there is no insurrection in Colorado.

Judge Boise Appointed.
Governor Chamberlain yesterday afternoon appointed Judge R. P. Boise, of this city, as delegate to the Farmers' Convention, to be held in Chicago on December 1st. Judge Boise is one of the ablest men in the state, and will suitably represent the Oregon farming interests at this great convention of the tillers of the soil.

A Famous Painter.
Paris, Nov. 19.—The funeral of the famous American painter, Weeks, who died Monday night, was held at the American church, with the highest honors. The French government was officially represented, and all the notable Americans in Paris were present.

She Sunk a Smack.
London, Nov. 19.—The torpedo destroyer Falcon collided with a fishing smack in the channel this morning. The smack sank with all on board. One of the Falcon's crew was killed.

Big Works Resume.
Pittsburg, Nov. 19.—The entire plant of the Pittsburg Steel Company resumed Monday, after a three-weeks' idleness, in which 2000 were without employment.

MURDER MOST FOUL

Mr. L. B. Sanders of Butteville Shot Down by Thugs

His Body Found on the Sidewalk at an Early Hour This Morning

(Special to The Journal.)
Butteville, Or., Nov. 19.—L. B. Sanders, a prominent resident of this place, was found dead on the sidewalk in the business portion at 6:45 o'clock this morning, with a revolver, one chamber of which was empty, lying by his side. Mr. Sanders had been twice shot in the chest some time during the night, and when found had been dead for several hours. Coroner Clough was notified by telephone, and he is now here to hold an inquest over the remains.

Mr. Sanders was about 55 years of age, and had resided in and near Butteville for over 15 years. He was a hop grower, and recently represented H. J. Ottenheimer, of Salem, at this place, and was also conducting a boarding house. He was in good circumstances, and was a man of good character and habits, and had no enemies, being a universal favorite.

As he was known to never carry a revolver, it is supposed that he was murdered, possibly by a highwayman, while on his way home at a late hour last evening. There is no reason to believe that he took his own life, for his circumstances and relations with his surroundings were such as to give no ground for suicide.

Deceased leaves a widow and four grown sons and a daughter. He was a member of the order of United Artists, in which he carried insurance. Inquiry at the local office of H. J. Ottenheimer elicited no further information than that contained in the above dispatch. The crime is believed to have been committed by hold-up men, who, believing that the hop buyer had money, killed him for the booty they hoped to secure.

Charles Lembecke, the county assessor, whose home is at Butteville, speaks in high terms of the deceased, whom he knew well. Mr. Lembecke spent several hours in Mr. Sanders' company last Saturday evening at Aurora, and found that gentleman in good spirits, and he does not take any stock in the suicide theory, believing that Mr. Sanders was murdered. He says that robberies have several times been committed at Butteville, and this is doubtless the deed of a criminal.

Later.
A telephone message from Butteville at 2 o'clock this afternoon, to The Journal stated that the affair was shrouded in mystery, and that nothing had thus far been discovered connecting any one with the crime. That is was murder was firmly believed, but whether for robbery could not be told. Mr. Sanders' person, upon being examined, was found to have two bullet holes in the breast, probably from the pistol found lying within three feet of the body. In the hip pocket of Mr. Sanders' trousers a pistol was found, showing that the one lying near was not his own. On his person was also found 60 cents in small change, and, as he was supposed to have more money about him, it is believed that robbery was the motive for the crime. When the telephone message was sent at 2 o'clock, the inquest had not yet been held, as Coroner Clough was awaiting the arrival of a physician from Aurora, to assist in the examination.

It is expected that Sheriff Colbath will go to the scene of the tragedy this evening, and investigate the case.

Amador the Favorite Son.
Panama, Nov. 19.—Seven municipalities of the republic of Panama are following the example of Panama in declaring Dr. Amador their "favorite son." His great popularity and prestige among all classes makes his friends believe that he will be the first president of Panama.

The Junta has appointed Belicario Porras to be confidential agent of Panama to Nicaragua, Honduras, Guatemala and Salvador. Santiago Guardia has been appointed agent to Costa Rica; Miro Quenda to Peru, and Ricardo Escobar to Chile. Rosol Amador and Nathaniel Brandon have been appointed respectively consul and vice-consul at New York.

Whose Treaty Is It?
Washington, Nov. 19.—Secretary Hay and M. Philippe-Buna-Varilla, the minister of Panama, at 6 o'clock yesterday evening, signed the Hay-Buna-Varilla treaty, providing for the construction of the Panama canal by the United States. The ceremony occurred in Secretary Hay's study. The Panama minister arrived at Mr. Hay's house promptly at 6 o'clock, having made an appointment with the secretary for a conference at that hour. He was surprised to find the secretary had before him the treaty engrossed in duplicate. The secretary informed M. Buna-Varilla that he was ready to sign the treaty. The minister read the document carefully, and then he and Secretary Hay attached their signatures to it.

Troops for Strike Scene.
Denver, Colo., Nov. 19.—Governor Peabody announced last night that he had been applied to for troops by the mine-owners in the Telluride district, where a strike of the metalliferous miners has been in progress for some time, and he has asked President Roosevelt to send the regulars from Fort Logan. He stated if the President refused he would order some of the state militia to Telluride tomorrow.

It is understood the mine-owners desire to start their mines with non-union men, and are afraid trouble will follow unless the guards are furnished.

May Make Smoot an Issue.
Washington, Nov. 19.—Democrats of the senate are, as a rule, lining up against Senator Smoot. It is not clear yet that the protests against the Utah Senator will be made a party question on that side of the chamber, but such a result is not altogether improbable, as the case may become more serious than it has generally been regarded.

There are a few Republican senators who are inclined to view the charges as worthy of the most careful investigation.

To Stop Dueling.
Dresden, Saxony, Nov. 19.—The governor of Saxony has taken stringent measures to stop dueling. In the criminal court today 150 students were sentenced to three months each for participating in affairs of honor.

ABOUT GENERAL WOOD

His Nomination Before the Senate Committee

Hanna Charges Him With Deliberately Persecuting Major Rathbone

Washington, Nov. 19.—Investigation of General Wood's conduct while military governor of Cuba and hearing objections to his nomination to be major-general, were begun this morning before the senate committee on military affairs.

Hanna was the first witness before the military committee. He attacked Wood and declared he used his influence to persecute Rathbone. Wood was as extravagant as Rathbone, yet the latter was convicted on that alone, and by Wood's direction. This abuse of power, Hanna contended, was sufficient to show Wood was not fit for the office.

A Novelist Dead.
London, Nov. 19.—Harry S. Merriam, the novelist, died today. His best known works are "With Edged Tools" and "The Sowers."

Britt the Favorite.
San Francisco, Nov. 19.—The betting on the tomorrow night Britt-Canole fight is two to one on Britt.
