

Not Strong in Streaks

The Barr Store's stock is not just strong in streaks, as is the case with so many stores in our time—not strong on certain classes of goods and very weak on others. Ours, on the contrary, is a well balanced stock, equally strong on anything and everything that a store of this class ought to carry. Watches, Clocks, Diamond Rings, Brooches, Pins, Lockets, Cut Glass, Silverware, Umbrellas—in all these, and many other smaller jewelry items, we have assortments that in beauty and variety do the utmost honor and credit to this store. Special Christmas reinforcements are swelling many of these lines to even larger proportions than usual. Our Christmas stock of 1903 will be better still than the very notable one of last year.

Corner State and
Liberty Streets,
Salem.

Barr's Jewelry Store

Local Events in the Social Realm

PERSONALS.

Dr. Frank Barr went to Mount Angel this morning.

M. E. Pogue returned last evening from a visit to Albany.

Guy G. Willis, of Portland, came up for a brief visit last night.

Dr. Mark S. Skiff came up from a visit to Portland last night.

G. G. Bingham returned last evening from a visit to Portland.

State Game Warden Baker, of Cottage Grove, was in the city last evening.

Henry Laug came down from Albany this morning for a brief stay in Salem.

Hon. John Minto is home from a visit with his son, J. W. Minto, of Portland.

Judge R. P. Bolse went to Albany this morning to hold a short term of the circuit court.

Mrs. E. W. Stahl is in the city from her home in Astoria, for a few days' visit with friends.

J. Shoemaker, of Jefferson, was in Salem this morning, visiting his daughter, Mrs. J. W. Roland.

Emil Hahn and family and Mrs. H. Huston left last night for San Bernardino, Cal., to spend the winter.

Theo. Schubert and Charles Meade went to Drain last evening, whence they go to the coast to locate timber claims.

Dr. J. H. Brewer, of this city, and his son, Dr. C. H. Brewer, of Stayton, left for Portland this morning for a few days' visit.

Jack Harkins left this morning for Fresno, Cal., after a week's visit with friends here. He expects to go into the mountains, east of Fresno, on a prospecting trip.

Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Riggs left this morning for Los Angeles, on their way home to Glasco, Kansas, where they reside. They visited here at the home of H. H. Spaulding, an old neighbor of the family, and before coming here spent some time in Washington, where Mr. Riggs hunted big game in the Olympic mountains.

O. C. Riches, of Portland, postal inspector, is in the city for a brief visit. Mr. Riches was born and raised at Turner, and was for years one of the most successful teachers in the Marion county schools. He has been in the mail service for a number of years.

South Salem Personals.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. H. Jones returned a few days ago from an extended visit in the East.

Hon. John Minto returned yesterday from a few days' visit with his son in Portland.

Mrs. A. Vogue, of Corvallis, is in the city for a few days' visit with Mrs. Al. Marvin, in South Salem.

Miss Dollie Kniskern has returned

Trifles that are Necessity

To every lady of taste in dress comprise our assortment of diamond rings, bracelets, hat pins, etc. Their beauty strikes the eye at a glance, while the moderate prices open the door of purchase to every one. Buying is easier where first choices are most numerous. Our constant customers keep bringing us new friends. We grow by our past.

C. T. POMEROY
Jeweler and Optician, 288 Com. St.

We Have Fresh Home Made

Minnehaha Cakes

EXTRA QUALITY. MADE FRESH EVERY OTHER DAY.

At the California Bakery.

ASSOCIATION NIGHT SCHOOL

STUDENTS ENTERING DAILY

PRACTICAL SUBJECTS: BEST TEACHERS: SMALL COST.

Gymnasium, Baths, Reading Room, Library in Connection.

Y. M. C. A.—Commercial and Chemeketa Sts. Phone 2061. Catalog free

YOUNG MEN'S CLUB

Youthful Republicans Get In Line For Election

Will Stand For a Clean But Vigorous and Progressive City Government

The Young Men's Republican Club met in the office of J. G. Graham, on Commercial street, last evening, to discuss the coming city campaign, and to decide whether the club should participate in the contest. The latter proposition was promptly decided, as soon as President H. D. Patton called the meeting to order, for there was only one opinion, and that was that the Young Men's Club should take an active part in the contest.

The gathering was a representative one, and the members were enthusiastic. President Patton, in calling the club to order, said, in part:

"At the request of many members I have called this meeting to discuss and decide the future policy. To be effective and recognized as a club, we must stand together, and work together in harmony.

"This meeting, coming, as it does, upon the eve of the city election, means much to all of us as young Republicans. We have, if organized properly, a majority of the voters of Greater Salem, and, I will say, the progressive element. The young business men of the city will be with us. To be recognized, we must be organized more thoroughly and carefully bidden to touch the ink bottle, had accidentally spilled its contents not only all over her mother's desk, but on the rug, several chairs and her own apron. Her mother, on discovering the state of affairs, had expressed more surprise than pleasure. When the father of the family returned at night his little daughter met him at the door and asked:

"Papa, how much does a bottle of ink cost?"

"Oh, about 5 cents."

"Five cents!" exclaimed the aggrieved youngster in a tone of deep disgust. "And to think that mamma would make all that fuss about one little bottle of ink!"—Lippincott's.

Wanted Money for Rats.

A New England senator tells a story of a certain wealthy business man in Providence, R. I., whose reputation for tightfistedness in business matters was a matter of common knowledge, even in neighboring states.

Not long ago the man of strict business principles engaged a professional rat catcher to undertake the task of ridding his warehouse cellars of the troublesome rodents that infested them.

The rat-killer presented his bill, showing that the Providence man was indebted to the former in the sum of $10.

"Good gracious!" exclaimed the tightfisted man, as he glanced at the bill, "10!" Then after a second's pause, he anxiously asked:

"Don't I get anything for the rats?"

—New York Tribune.

Made Double Keno.

Minneapolis, Nov. 19.—A masked highwayman entered the Metropolitan club rooms this morning, lined eight players against the wall, secured $90, backed down the steps and escaped.

An Armenian Murder.

Berlin, Nov. 19.—The Tageblatt reports that Archbishop Davidu was assassinated today by Armenians at Uschmidaslan, in the Caucasus. The murderers escaped.

Calendar Novelties

for the new year are now being shown for the first time. The variety is so large, and the assortment so well chosen that a purchaser may feel confident that they will not find their selections duplicated. We are showing the lines of eight different calendar publishers, in fact the largest line of real novelties ever presented to calendar buyers. Better make selections now and have them put aside.

Patton's Book Store.

APPEAL SUED FOR LIBEL

Silverton Paper Must Answer For a Little Six Line Skit

Pearl W. Geer, plaintiff, vs. J. E. Hosmer, defendant, is the title of a libel suit filed in the first department of the state circuit court. The plaintiff was formerly president of the Liberal College, at Silverton, and Mr. Hosmer is the publisher of the Silverton appeal. Mr. Geer sues for $2000 damages, on charges that he was injured in that sum in his reputation, by the publication in the Silverton Appeal of October 2, 1903, of the following item:

"It is rumored that many ladies think P. W. G. should be changed to P. I. G., since so many hearts, and, in some cases, reputations have been devoured. For further information write to those ladies themselves, or inquire of any D-Ph around town. T-a-t."

The plaintiff further alleges "that the defendant meant thereby to attribute to the plaintiff the attributes, qualities and characteristics of a pig, and contrary to the nature and dignity of man; and that the plaintiff has ruined and destroyed, in a ravenous and greedy manner, the character and reputations of many ladies."

The plaintiff alleges injury to his reputation and prays for damages in the sum of $2000. H. K. Bargent is attorney for the plaintiff.

Mr. Geer is now located at Kansas City, to which the Liberal College has been removed.

An Ethical Distinction.

Representative Robinson, of Indiana, was declaiming on the beauties of nature.

"I love to see the early morning sunshine kiss the dome of the capital, paint it golden, and make it look glad."

"I'll bet you $10 you never saw it," said Representative Ruppert, of New York.

"My son," replied Robinson, "this is a poetical, not a bookmaking proposition."—Philadelphia Post.

Blanket Weather

Yes, I should say so—blanket weather with a vengeance! By the way, wouldn't wife or mother appreciate a nice warm pair of woolen blankets served up on Thanksgiving day, along with the turkey and pumpkin pie and cranberry sauce. How it would add to her pleasure and comfort! After all, it's these cases in the desert of life that make life worth the living. Speaking of blankets, are you aware that right here in Salem we make from fifteen to

20,000 Pairs of Blankets

each year? Do you know, too, that woolen blanket manufacturers throughout the country all concede that Oregon's wool and Oregon's mountain water are peculiarly adapted to the weaving of

The Finest Blankets in the World

And do you remember, too, that our Salem mill has time and again been placed in competition with other mills at numerous state fairs and expositions here in the northwest and has never yet failed to score a victory. Now the blankets that are shown you by other merchants go first from the mill to the wholesale house, then through the "drummer" to the merchant. The wholesaler gets his profit and the "drummer" gets his commission, while our blankets come right from the mill to our counters at first cost, at manufacturer's prices. It doesn't take the mind of a sage, then, to see why we are thus enabled to undersell all competitors and at the same time give our patrons the best blankets made in the U. S. White blankets and gray blankets, mottled, scarlet, Vienna and fancy mottled, all are to be found in our stock at all weights and at all prices. We carry cotton blankets, not our own make at 75c to $1.75 per pair. Our Woolen Indian Robes make handsome couch covers and are also the finest of warm winter buggy robes.

Salem Woolen Mill Store
G. P. BISHOP PROPRIETOR

Two More Heard From.

Letters were this morning received by Governor Chamberlain from Representatives Hayden and Dapneman, urging a special session of the legislature, and pledging themselves to oppose all legislation, except that looking toward the correction of the assessment laws. Both gentlemen heartily support the governor's plan for a short session of the assembly.

A Great Worry.

"How's your mother?" asked the neighbor.

"Worried to death," answered the boy who was swinging on the front gate. "Father's hunting in the Adirondacks, brother Bill's gone to a political convention, brother Jake's joined a football team and the dressmaker just told mother that she looked a fright in mourning."

Don't Wait Until

the man offers to BUY your land; get your Title Straight Now

Then there is no delay when you want to SELL.

You may THINK your title is PERFECT.

Do you KNOW it is?

Salem Abstract and Land Co.
F. W. WATERS, Mgr.

Pancakes

The kind being served by the Citizens' Light & Traction Co. in the Klingler block, opposite our store is made from

Fulcan Pancake Flour

For sale only by Fuller & Douglas
GROCERS
142 State St. Phone 2261

Hard Wheat Flour

Only $1.15 per sack

The famous unexcelled Peacock Brand of flour. The finest flour ever sold in the city. Try it once. We will sell to you again.

D. A. White & Son
Feedmen and Seedsmen
301 Com'l St. Salem, Oregon.

A Grand Clean-up

Our entire stock of Shoes and Rubber goods to be sold at sacrifice prices in order to adjust our new goods. Bargains for all, call early and get the cream of it.

P. Monfred
Successor to Jacob Vogt. 265 Commercial Street