Caught by Elevator.
W. H. Erdise principal owner of the Coquille City creamery, was almost instantly killed Wednesday evening about 5 o'clock, while at work.
It is not known, with any certainty, just how the accident happened. He was on the elevator, and was trying to stop it at the second floor, but apparently could not do so, for it started down with him, though not very rapidly. It is supposed that as he passed the weighing platform, he tried to jump onto it, but slipped and fell backward, with his head and shoulders projecting over the pit, and the upper frame of the elevator caught him across the breast and mashed him so that he died in a few minutes, of internal hemorrhage.

His partner, S. M. Nosler, was running the engine, and Mr. Erdise had loaded the elevator platform, and run it up to the second floor. Something seemed to go wrong with the hoisting apparatus, for Mr. Nosler had started to shut down the engine, but heard the squeaking of the cables, and turned it on again. The noise stopped, and Mr. Nosler, supposing everything was all right, shut down the engine and started out of the engine room toward the elevator shaft. At the door he met his young brother, 'Gene,' who had been working at the vats, and 'Gene' told him to start the engine up again quickly. Mr. Nosler saw at a glance the awful situation, and started the engine as quickly as possible, but it did not seem to lift the elevator on the instant, so he shut the engine down, ran to the door and called for help, and ran back to the elevator, which he and his brother tried to lift, but were not strong enough. In a few seconds help arrived sufficient to lift the elevator and release the unfortunate man.

Dr. Russell was summoned, and everything was done that could be done, but it was of no avail. He lived about 25 minutes after he was released, and was conscious up to 10 minutes before his death. The only words he spoke were, "Well, boys, I'll have to leave you."—Bandon Record.

Douglas Ships Some Turkeys

The annual shipment of turkeys for Thanksgiving from Roseburg which has been in progress for the past week, will end tonight. From figures given by local dealers, it is found that the turkeys shipped from Roseburg this season number about 6350 head. This represents about one-third of this season's turkey product of the county, and a revenue to Roseburg and vicinity of about $12,000. This amount could have been greatly increased had there been enough turkeys to supply the demand which was greatly in excess of last year. One local dealer stated that he could have found a market for at least six carloads if he had had the turkeys.

With the exception of a few hundred head, which went to San Francisco, all of the turkeys were marketed at Seattle, at prices ranging from 18 to 23 cents net weight.
About 10,000 head of turkeys were shipped from Oakland and a total of nearly 3000 head from other points in the county outside of Roseburg. Estimating the whole output at about 19,000 head would represent an approximate revenue of nearly $37000.—Roseburg Review.

Shearing a Pig for Wool

Captain Mahone, president of the Anti-Saloon League of Oregon, is in the city, and held meetings in several of the churches, addressing his audiences on the work being done by the league. He stated last evening that his organization usually employs secret service men to secure evidence of violations of the state laws regarding gambling and conducting saloons on Sunday, but this expense was saved in this city, where he had personally visited several places where the law was being violated yesterday, and that any one could satisfy himself as to these violations without trouble. He caused consternation when he stated that before the end of the week he would, in a public address, give a list of the names of local business men seen by him at the gambling tables and in saloons, and he would have indisputable proof to back up his assertions. Mr. Mahone proposes to begin a campaign here to enforce the laws regarding Sunday closing and gambling, which he states, flourishes here as unknown in many towns.

Millionaire's Poor Stomach.

The worn-out stomach of the over-fed millionaire is often paraded in the public prints as a horrible example of the evils attendant on the possession of great wealth. But millionaires are not the only ones who are afflicted with bad stomachs. The proportion is far greater among the toilers. Dyspepsia and indigestion are rampant among these people, and they suffer far worse tortures than the millionaire unless they avail themselves of a standard medicine like Green's August Flower, which has been a favorite household remedy for all stomach troubles for over 35 years. August Flower rouses the torpid liver, thus creating appetite and insuring perfect digestion. It tones and vitalizes the entire system, and makes life worth living, no matter what your station. Trial bottle, 25c; regular size, 75c. At all druggists. At Dr. Stone's drug stores.

HACKING.

That word hacking is expressive to those who have experienced the aggravating constant cough, which is called a hacking cough. Sometimes it is the result of a cold, or of grip, and sometimes it is a consequence of catarrh, which unchecked has gradually involved the lungs in disease. Such a cough finds its cure in Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery which cures bronchitis, obstinate coughs, lung disease, hemorrhage, and conditions which, if neglected or unskillfully treated, lead to consumption.

"For twelve years I was a sufferer from catarrh and was treated by one of the best physicians in the State of North Carolina, who said the trouble had reached my lungs," writes Mr. J. M. Patton, of Clotbo, Transylvania Co., N. C. "I grew worse every day until I tried Dr. Pierce's medicines. With six bottles of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery with one bottle of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy cured me, and to-day I am well and hearty, and I will say further that my former physician, Dr. W. M. Lyday, recommends Dr. Pierce's medicines to me and to others. I am sure your medicines will cure any case of catarrh that exists. I recommend them to all."

If you ask your dealer for "Golden Medical Discovery" because you have confidence in its cures, do not allow yourself to be switched off to a medicine claimed to be "just as good," but which you did not ask for and of which you know nothing.

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send 21 one-cent stamps for the paper covered book, or 31 stamps for the cloth-bound volume. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.
