

The Connoisseur in Cut Glass.

Chooses Hawkes, in preference to any other. There is a daintiness of design, a clearness and beauty and brightness about Hawkes glass that is not found in quite the same perfection in any other brand. And yet it costs no more than others. Of course, the price depends largely upon the elaborateness of the design. We have, for instance, fruit bowls at all the way from $6 to $20; bon bon dishes from $2.25 to $8; vases from $2.25 to $15; pepper shakers and salt cellars from 85c to $2.50 each; and any number of other superb table pieces in wide variety of price and design. For wedding gifts, what could be better chosen than a piece of Hawkes Cut Glass.

PRATUM SCHOOL PRESENT

Hal Patton Gives the School a Splendid Dictionary

A Flow of Language In His Speech That Made the Dictionary Rustle Its Leaves

Last Spring J. G. Graham, of this city, while at the warehouse of his firm at Pratum, conceived the idea that the local school should be provided with an American flag, and consequently, at the close of the school, he formally presented a beautiful flag, 9x12 feet and this was hoisted with appropriate ceremonies, Mr. Graham making the address, assisted by Hal D. Patton, of this city. The latter at that time promised on some future occasion to present to the school a dictionary.

Accordingly, a few days ago, Messrs. Graham and Patton again drove to Pratum, and after a short visit to the school, Mr. Patton presented to the teacher, Miss Marguerite Peterson, one of the latest Webster's unabridged dictionaries, in the best binding. Mr. Patton made a handsome speech of presentation, and the children cheered him to the echo, fully enjoying the value of the big volume to the school. Mr. Graham also addressed the school, and these

GOOD MEN NAMED FOR MAYOR

Frank W. Waters and Henry B. Thielsen Petitioned for

Additional Candidates For the Position of Aldermen in Several of the Wards

Last night two petitions were started for Republican candidates for mayor before the Republican primaries, to be held Wednesday, November 25th.

One petition, with the requisite number of names has been filed for H. B. Thielsen, who conducts an insurance, real estate and loan office, at 230 Commercial street, and resides on Court street.

The second petition is for Frank W. Waters, who has served in the city council, and conducts the Salem Abstract & Land Company, in the First National Bank building. He resides on Capital street.

Both gentlemen are citizens of the highest character, and either one would make a competent mayor of Greater Salem if elected. Their names will be submitted to a direct vote at the Republican primaries.

More Names for Aldermen. Petitions have been filed for R. A. Crossan in the second ward and J. F. Goode in the fifth ward, subject to the

HURRAH FOR THANKSGIVING

School doors will swing open on Wednesday and hundreds of happy youths will be turned loose for the holidays, with books in hand that will not be touched till Monday, and minds full of visions of turkey and thoughts of an all too short season of freedom and fun. Haven't forgotten that new suit for your boy, have you? Better let him have it to wear on Thanksgiving, when others are dressed in their best. We'll look better for it, and be better too. Don't believe it? Then you've not studied those boy natures. Yes, it adds immensely to a boy's self-respect and dignity to be clothed like a little gentleman.

For the People.

Not wishing to see the producers of Eastern Oregon robbed of their only hope for lower freight rates—the portage railroad at The Dalles—The Journal proposes to expose the scheme to sidetrack that enterprise.

The grain growers of the great Columbia basin and the Inland Empire will get no relief until they get a state portage road, and there should be no fictitious or unnecessary delay about their getting it.

Read The Journal exposure, and send the paper to some one who should be enlightened on this important matter.

Hundreds of copies of this issue go to business men and legislators and newspapers all over the state, and we would like to hear from them. If The Journal is mistaken in this matter it would like to be shown.

If there is another side to this matter let us have it, and we will print it. If the portage bill is repealed a great permanent injury will be done to Eastern Oregon, and the whole state.

direct primary Wednesday.

Bringing out Waters for mayor makes it necessary to select a new man for alderman in that ward, as he has already been petitioned for that office.

The Direct Primary.

Under the direct primary plan of making nominations there will be no Republican city convention, but all candidates will be chosen by a direct vote on the Australian ballot plan at primaries held in each ward, the call for which is printed in this paper. Under this arrangement it takes only the signatures of five citizens to bring out any man in the ward for alderman and submit his name to a popular vote. In spite of this a few wards are still without candidates, but the tickets will probably be filled before tomorrow at 3 p. m. when the voting begins.

All the nominations for aldermen in this afternoon were as follows:

First ward—No nomination.

Second ward—R. A. Crossan.

Third ward—Gideon Stolz, Lon Gesner.

Fourth ward—Frank Bowersox, Frank Hughes, Chas. Goodale.

Fifth ward—Geo. B. Jacobs, J. W. Young, J. F. Goode.

Sixth ward—E. C. Churchill. One yet to nominate.

Seventh ward—A. Vans, Fred Hurst. Other petitions are still out.

The Republican city committee meets this evening, and will arrange for printing a ticket for each ward.

Shot at the Banker.

London, Nov. 24.—A man believed to be insane made an attempt this morning to assassinate Kenneth Graham, secretary of the Bank of England, firing four ineffective shots. He was arrested after a fierce fight.

The attack on Graham occurred in the library of the bank. The assailant is a Londoner named Robinson. His insanity takes the form of rebellion against the unequal distribution of wealth.
