LEAVES WEALTH TO WOMAN HE HATED

To become wealthy after dying for family for years in the public service of Elizabeth Wright, now of Chicago, Ill., the woman who left an estate of $279,815,000, or more than $653,000,000.

Chicago's first bank was established in 1836, and in 1838 the city had but 3,000 inhabitants. In 1846, the value of real estate was estimated at $226,000, and the total assessed value of real and personal property was $210,000.

Chicago today is a city of 1,200,000, with a population of 2,400,000. Its manufactures and industries hold an enviable position among our manufacturing centers, and it is now one of the largest manufacturing centers of the world.

The Chicago Tribune, the city's largest daily newspaper, is published in Chicago, Illinois. It is the most widely read newspaper in the United States, with a daily circulation of over 2,000,000.

Seattle the Superb, the Commerce of the Pacific, in Here, and the West Coast.

The city of Seattle is the commercial center of the Pacific Northwest. It is located on the west coast of the United States, and is the largest city in the state of Washington.

Leaves Wealth to Woman He Hated

Elizabeth Wright, now of Chicago, Ill., left an estate of $279,815,000, or more than $653,000,000. The estate was left to a woman named Wright, who was a relative of the deceased.

Chicago is the largest city in the United States, with a population of over 2,400,000. It is located on the west coast of the United States, and is the largest city in the state of Illinois.

Leaves Wealth to Woman He Hated

Elizabeth Wright, now of Chicago, Ill., left an estate of $279,815,000, or more than $653,000,000. The estate was left to a woman named Wright, who was a relative of the deceased.

Chicago is the largest city in the United States, with a population of over 2,400,000. It is located on the west coast of the United States, and is the largest city in the state of Illinois.

Leaves Wealth to Woman He Hated

Elizabeth Wright, now of Chicago, Ill., left an estate of $279,815,000, or more than $653,000,000. The estate was left to a woman named Wright, who was a relative of the deceased.

Chicago is the largest city in the United States, with a population of over 2,400,000. It is located on the west coast of the United States, and is the largest city in the state of Illinois.