Chemawa and Willamette Both Play a Nice Clean Game--Better Police Reputation Wanted

The Thanksgiving football game on Willamette field yesterday afternoon brought out a large crowd, but the contest was disappointing in the extreme. The score was nothing to nothing, though Chemawa played by far the best game, and several times endangered Willamette's goal line, once, in fact, carrying the ball over the line, but was beaten back, the ball falling in Willamette's hands, and, though a touchdown was made Chemawa was not given a score.

The police regulations promised for this game were conspicuous by their absence. No provisions seemed to have been made to keep the spectators off of the field, and within five minutes after the game began the men and boys along the sidelines had commenced to encroach on the field. This gradually increased, until a small circle of men and boys surrounded the players, and the balance of the spectators were only able to occasionally see the heads of the players. An abortive attempt was finally made to clear the field of spectators, but this had been too long delayed, and to the end of the game the majority of the spectators saw nothing of the game. The officers promised for this game to keep the spectators off the field had not been secured, and general dissatisfaction was the result.

Captain Pollard, of W. U., became disabled and he left his place as full-back, being succeeded by Long, Miller taking left half, and Winslow, a substitute, going to quarter.

The Indians played a fast game, and never asked for time for breaking, neither did a single one of their players leave the field. Judd and Long played the best game for Willamette, while Harris and Teabo played a star game for the Indians.

Willamette kicked off, and sent the ball far into Chemawa's territory, but the Indians at once brought it back, and the playing from then on was in Willamette's territory. The ball was forced to within five yards of Willamette's goal line, but here the Indians lost the ball, and lost ground. Stubbornly the fight was continued until the end of the half, the ball dying in the center of the field.

In the second half the Indians forced the ball into Willamette's territory, and gradually neared the goal line, when, by a supreme effort, Lucas carried the ball over, but lost the pigskin, Willamette securing it and bringing it back. The Willamette player, with the ball, was quickly shoved over, but Chemawa had lost its chance, and the ball was carried back 25 yards. From then on the surging mass of players, frequently interfered with by the closely crowding spectators, slowly approached the goal line, but, before a touchdown could be secured, the time expired. Once, during the last half, Chemawa tried for a drop kick for goal, but failed, the ball going too low.

The result, 0 to 0, was disappointing in the extreme, and there was a "chewing of the rag" that was disagreeable. Following is the lineup:

A Thanksgiving Wedding.

At the German Baptist church, on North Cottage street, was solemnized the marriage of Miss Kattie Reddekopp to Mr. Emil Roth, at 8 p. m. on Thanksgiving day. Rev. F. Hermann officiating. The groom is the well-known young grocer of the firm of Roth & Gaber, of State street. Miss Marguerite Reddekopp and Mr. Chas. Roth attended the contracting parties and Miss Rich played the Mendelssohn wedding march. After the ceremony refreshments were served in the Sunday school room, and there was a musical program. Mr. and Mrs. Roth went direct to their pretty furnished cottage on 12th street, in University addition. The bride and groom have hosts of friends in the city who will be pleased over this announcement. Mr. Roth is a sterling young business man, and his bride is an accomplished young lady, who will make him a splendid companion for life.

Going to Nagasaki.

N. Wilbur Helm, international secretary for the Y. M. C. A. in Japan, arrived in Salem this morning, accompanied by his family. He is on his way to Nagasaki, where he will take up his work. This afternoon he is meeting with the students of Willamette University interested in missionary work, and at 6:15 this evening a reception will be tendered him at the Y. M. C. A. rooms. Mr. Helm expects to leave for San Francisco on tonight's overland train, sailing thence for Nagasaki.

Oregon State Band.

The Oregon State Band was today incorporated by W. B. Warner, E. G. Rietine and J. R. Parvin. The band will have its headquarters in Salem, and will operate with a capital stock of $300. The purpose is to conduct a brass band at Salem, and furnish music for hire at entertainments, both public and private. The articles were filed with the county clerk and secretary of state.

RABBIT DRIVE AT ECHO.

Beat Over Forty Acres Results in the Capture of 2000.

Echo, Or., Nov. 27.—Thursday 100 men and boys left here for a rabbit drive on Charles Bartholomew's place, and as a result 2000 rabbits are dressed and hung in cold storage at the plant of the American Hare Company, in this town.

Oregon has the only rabbit-cannery in the world, and this drive furnished the material for the first of the product to be placed on the market. Only 40 acres were beaten to secure 2000, and it is estimated that one-half of the rabbits escaped. A larger drive will be held Sunday, when it is expected that 5000 will be secured.

CAMPAIGN FUNDS POUR IN.

Tariff Reform Plan of Chamberlain Appeals to Many.

New York, Nov. 27.—There has been a remarkable response to Mr. Chamberlain's appeal for funds to help the tariff reform campaign says a London dispatch to the Times. Hundreds of donations, ranging from $1000 to one shilling have been received. Many workmen are contributing small sums, and writing letters like this: "I am only a poor workingman, but I am sending you a shilling to help old Joe along." Five poor clerks in Wandsworth send a contribution of 10 shillings, saying: "Under the guidance of our friend and champion, Mr. Chamberlain, we have no fear of the dear loaf bogey."

Card Party.

Miss Lenta Stahley gave the first of a series of parties last evening at her home, corner of Cottage and Center streets. Cards, Flinch and music were the amusements of the evening, and Miss Lenta proved herself a very charming hostess. Those present were Mercedes Stms, Ella Schultz, Mayme Stout, Bessie Schultz, Ma Schupp, Frank Rhodes, Harry Winstanley, Clyde Loughead, Herman Baker and Jesse James.
