'Christmas on the Stage

Is the title of a most interesting story in the Christmas Metropolitan Magazine, cleverly told by Gustav Kobbé, who seems to live and breathe in the theatrical world, and knows the people of the stage, their lives and their ways, better than anyone else. He tells in an absorbingly entertaining way of how the stage folk celebrate Christmas; how Richard Mansfield and others provide entertainment and gifts for their whole company; how Annie Russell remembers her associates. Besides this, there are
