Dowie Is in Debt Over Three Million Dollars

Creditors Have Attached, and Dowie Asks His Followers to Put up All They Have

Chicago, Dec. 2.—Receivers in bankruptcy today took actual charge of Dowie's property in Zion City. Dowie asserts he is solvent, although his liabilities exceed $3,000,000.

After an all-night consultation with his lawyers, Dowie this morning is this morning trying to borrow $1,000,000, pending the results of the receivership. The court has issued an order restraining creditors from prose-

Dowie and attorneys for the receivers and creditors, it is safe to assert the belief that Dowie, if proper business methods are pursued, can pay all debts.

Salem Student Injured.
San Francisco, Dec. 2.—Henry Ennis Savage, a junior student in geology and mining at Stanford, who registers from Salem, Oregon, was seriously injured in a bicycle accident on the campus yesterday. Savage was riding a wheel to his boarding house, on College Terrace, and took the wrong side of the road. He met another bicycle rider coming on the same side, and both turned out toward the center of the road at the same moment.

In the collision Savage was thrown. Having only one arm, and being unable to save himself, he struck heavily on his head, and it is feared that the bone just above the temple is fractured. Savage was removed to the Student Guild Hospital, and later taken to a sanatorium at Watsonville. The injured boy is the son of Henry H. Savage, of this city, and has many friends here.

New Version of Massacre.
Berlin, Dec. 2.—Reports from provincial newspapers tell a peculiar story of the happenings at Kishinef prior to the massacre of the Jews there last summer. It states that about three months prior to the commencement of the massacre Baron von Plehy dispatched to Kishinef Baron Loewendal, head of the army secret service. The latter was in Kishinef when the massacre broke out, according to report, and was with Governor Raaben when the work of the rioters was reported. The governor issued orders to quell the disturbance, and started to take personal charge of the troops when Loewendal, who was standing by, interferred. They withdrew to another room for a conference, at the close of which Van Raaben countermanded his previous orders, and made no attempt to quell the disturbance.

It is stated that Von Raaben is now to be made the scapegoat in the trial in progress at Kishinef, and that Loewendal has disappeared.

Ottawa Has a Fire

Ottawa, Ont., Dec. 2.—The Ottawa University was completely destroyed by fire this morning. It was a Roman Catholic institution, valued at a quarter of a million. Although many students jumped from the fifth story, none were injured. Father Boyon was probably fatally injured, in jumping from the fifth story. He fell on the veranda. Father Fulham landed outside of the firemen's net, in a jump from the fourth story, and was seriously injured. An aged servant was badly hurt in jumping from the fifth floor, and another domestic, Miss Dupuis, was badly burned.

FRED A. ERIXON,

Candidate for Alderman from the fourth ward, on the Citizens' ticket, is a life-long Republican, and has lived in Salem for over 12 years. He doesn't believe in mixing up politics with the city business, and wears nobody's collar. If elected he will be his own boss. He is the workingmen's candidate, because he is a workingman himself, and an employer of workingmen. Why are our workingmen not entitled to representation in the city council? He is the business men's candidate, because he has made an enviable record as a successful and honorable business man. We need such men in the council.

cutting suits for debts. A monster meeting of the Dowieites is to be held in Shiloh tabernacle tonight. Posters announcing it are scattered all over Zion and portions of Chicago today. Dowie will appeal to the faithful to give all they possess to save the city from creditors. Among the stories current is one that when his wife departed for Australia she carried with her $7,000,000 of negotiable securities. The Dowieites admit great disappointment that the $300,000 crusade to New York failed to develop a new treasury. It appears to have been Dowie's Waterloo. Dowie owes $300,000, due January 1st.
