SUPPORT ALONZO GESNER.

The result of the direct primary election for city nominees will not only be better candidates, but they will be free to give the city a first-class business administration, without dictation from any ring, machine or grafting citizen.

In the third ward Alonzo Gesner won out at the second primary against Otto Wilson, and The Journal believes that it is the duty of every Republican to support Mr. Gesner.

The Journal preferred to see Mr. Wilson nominated, and said so, and the Young Republicans asked for his nomination, but the matter being decided fairly in a direct primary, in which nearly one hundred Republicans participated, Mr. Gesner should be given solid and unanimous support.

There is a principle involved in this—the right of the people to nominate by direct vote, and the right of the majority in the party to rule, when that majority has had a fair expression.

The Journal has always advocated the direct primary, and believes it will stand the test of time. As the people learn to use it they will get better candidates, and all nominees will become responsible to the people direct, instead of to the machine, for their nomination.

Fifty-Five Years a King.

Vienna, Dec. 2.—Throughout the dual monarchy today there were celebrations to mark the 55th anniversary of the accession of Emperor Francis Joseph to the throne. Business was suspended generally in the capital, and in all the churches special thanksgiving services were held. The emperor signaled the day by granting amnesty to a number of prisoners guilty of minor offenses, and also issued a proclamation to the army, in which he thanked the soldiers for their loyalty and fearless valor during his reign.

Despite his age—73 years—the emperor continues to enjoy good health, and devotes a large part of each day to the business of state, giving personal attention to much of his voluminous correspondence, and giving interviews on one day of each week to any of his subjects, no matter how humble their station, who may wish to make personal appeal or request.

Princess is a Romancer.

Berlin, Dec. 2.—The family of Princess Alice have issued a statement, repudiating the version of the scandal. They reiterate that her departure was not due to a quarrel, but in an actual desertion of her husband and child. They express the hope a divorce will be granted through mutual consent.

Cholera in Japan.

Washington, Dec. 2.—Reports show an epidemic of cholera has broken out at Nagasaki, Japan. Orders have been issued requiring unusual vigilance in quarantining and disinfecting all vessels from Japan.

City Guests.

Last night more men applied at the police station for beds than ever before in the history of the new city hall. Twenty-three men were accommodated with beds.

SOME INSIDE HISTORY

Why Hermann Pohle Was Not Renominated Alderman

Record of One of the Men Who Are Grafting the Citizen's Administration for Their Benefit

The Citizens' committee opened their campaign of personalities Tuesday in the Statesman, and Dr. W. A. Cusick and R. P. Boise, Jr., poured out their columns of abuse against the editor of this paper, because he refuses to support what has degenerated into a system of graft for private interests, instead of an honest, non-partisan administration of city affairs.

The Citizens' press managers were so proud of their performance that they bought 600 copies of that edition of the Statesman, containing their undignified attack on Hal Patton, Eddie Horgan and Col. Hofer, to hide their own selfish schemes to graft the Citizens' administration. The Journal proposes to show up the relation of these leaders of the degenerate Citizens' aggregation, who are trying to ride back into power on their statistical Holy Moses, with their pharisaical professions, and "look at me, me, me," but don't look at my record.

Cold Facts About R. P. Boise, Jr.
If there is one man who should have respected the Citizens' movement and kept his hands clean from using it for personal interests, it is R. P. Boise, Jr., who has become the head and tail of the machine that is running the game for all there is in it. Take his record with the street committee for the past few years.

When the sidewalks were laid around the new postoffice he demanded that the walk be lowered on the north side of the postoffice block, to accommodate walks on the other side of the street, that are below grade, on property in which he is personally interested. Herman Pohle, of the Citizens' council refused to do it. The people of the second ward wanted Mr. Pohle renominated, but Mr. Boise objected.

Next Boise wanted a bridge put across Mill creek, on North Cottage street, and the Citizens' council ordered it in, Boise promising to construct a substantial breakwater to protect the banks from washing away. The breakwater was constructed of fir branches and moored to the bank with baling wires tied to stakes driven in the bank. To this Pohle objected, and insisted on a breakwater of stone and plank, with piling to hold it, before the city should build a bridge, and made Boise comply with his agreement. The people wanted Pohle for alderman from the second ward, but Boise said, "no more Pohle for me."

Out-Generated Mr. Boise.

The battle of the street committee, of which Herman Pohle happened to be a member, and acting chairman, in the absence of Thos. Sims, to compel Boise to lay cement walks within the cement walk district has been the common talk of the town. He flatly refused at first to comply with the ordinance, and when it was proposed to extend cement walks down State street to Front, Boise tried to unite with J. J. Murphy and bring a suit to enjoin the city government. But Chairman Pohle out-generated Boise by getting Bernard J. Dunsford to lay the walk and Moores property united, and it was up to Boise to "lay down." This settled the matter, and Boise began fighting Pohle openly, and insisted that he should never go back to the city council. At Boise's bidding, one of the best men in the Citizens' administration was retired from an office he never asked for, and in which he made a clean record, and did his plain duty, but could not be grafted to protect any man's private interests.

Boise Not Satisfied.

He continued to attack Pohle on the streets, and at the Citizens' conferences, even accusing Pohle and Larsen of having the street graded around their property on Liberty street at public expense. Mr. Pohle called R. P. Boise, Jr., down hard on that charge, and made him take it back, as the work was done before he was in the council, and they paid Friswell and Griswold for every load of dirt ever hauled there, and the records will show it.

Why He Fought Pohle.
In the presence of Dr. Cusick and other managers of the Citizens' campaign, Mr. Pohle asked Mr. Boise why he was fighting him.
"For the simple reason that I don't want you in the council," said Boise.
"What have I done any more than any other alderman?" asked Mr. Pohle.

"You are to blame for making us put down a cement walk in front of our property on State street, where we had to lower the grade three feet, and lower the floor of the Mitchell, Lewis & Staver warehouse, and it cost us over $1000. That kind of improvements don't pay," said Boise.

At this Mr. Pohle replied, with spirit: "I have paid you over $3500 rent while I run my blacksmith shop there, and you never spent over $50 on repairs in all that time, and that was when the city council condemned your building, and made you do it." This settled R. P. Boise, Jr., and fully explains why he did not want Pohle in the council, and probably why none of the Citizens' aldermen were renominated.

What have the people to expect of aldermen who are acceptable to Mr. Boise, and who will do his bidding? Will they make the improvements needed to keep this city abreast of the demands of progress? What can the people of the North Salem ward expect in the way of improvements if they elect aldermen of the Citizens' party under the dictation of such men as R. P. Boise, Jr., who will use his power over them to protect his interests, instead of allowing them to serve the people who elect them.

NIP IT IN THE BUD.

First Appearance of Dandruff a Fore-runner of Future Baldness.

That such is the case has been conclusively proven by scientific research. Prof. Unna, the noted European skin specialist, declares that dandruff is the burrowed-up cuticle of the scalp, caused by parasites destroying the vitality in the hair bulb. The hair becomes lifeless, and, in time, falls out. This can be prevented.

Newbro's Herpicide kills this dandruff germ, and restores the hair to its natural softness and abundance.

Herpicide is now used by thousands of people—all satisfied that it is the most wonderful hair preparation on the market today.

To Continue Fight on Canteen.

Washington, D. C., Dec. 2.—Clergymen and lay workers of all denominations, and coming from many parts of the country, were present today at the open conference of the state and district superintendents of the Anti-Saloon League. The conference is in the nature of a preliminary to the eighth annual national convention of the league to be held in Washington next week. Reports of the superintendents will be prepared for the consideration of the convention, and other details for the big meeting arranged. The year has been one of more than ordinary activity for the anti-saloon workers, and the reports will show a gratifying increase in membership and a widening of influence. The report of an immense protective fund, to be raised by the liquor dealers throughout the country, for political and other purposes, will receive the attention of the convention. Another matter that will come in for consideration, and probably condemnation, is the recommendation of General Young, chief of the general staff of the army, favoring the re-establishment of the canteen at posts and barracks of the United States army. The Anti-Saloon League was one of the chief factors in the movement that resulted in the abolishment of the canteen, and, according to the declaration of the officers and other leading workers who are here, the organization will do all in its power to prevent its re-establishment.

She Couldn't Practice.

London, Dec. 2.—The house of lords today refused to grant the appeal of Bertha Cave, who applied for admission to the British bar. The reason given is there is no precedent for permitting women to practice in British courts.

A Street Duel.

Chilburg, Ky., Dec. 2.—Henry Gray and Louis Skaggs had a duel on the streets this morning. Gray was instantly killed and Skaggs was mortally wounded.

JOURNAL X-RAYS

Will those who advocate buying a right of way for the government for the proposed canal at Celilo, please explain how it can be done? And then why? If the government can't afford to buy the right of way, what chance is there of it ever building the locks and canal?

Crook, Klamath, Grant and Lake counties, comprising the senatorial district from which Williamson's successor must be chosen, decline to hold a special election. They seem to think the balance of the state can stir up trouble enough.

Why should Oregon buy the right of way for the Celilo canal, which would be of as much benefit to Washington and Idaho as herself?

A Gang of Robbers.

Grand Rapids, Mich., Dec. 2.—The sensational water scandal case was up today, when six former city aldermen, at the opening of court, waived examination on the understanding that they would plead guilty in the superior court. It is rumored that other aldermen under arrest have decided to confess.

THEY ACTUALLY DO THE WORK

Food Eaten is Worthless Unless Digested—Some Stomachs Must Have Help.

Food taken into the stomach which from the nature of the food or the condition of the stomach, is not digested, is worse than no food at all. This is a true statement as far as it goes and a great many dyspeptics go only this far with themselves that because their stomachs do not do the work given them, they must be given less work; in other words they must be starved. It would be just as sensible for a business man who is unable to do all his own work to cut down his business to his own capacity as it is for a man to starve himself to relieve his stomach. The sensible business man employs help and goes forward with his business. Likewise the sensible dyspeptic will employ help for his stomach and give his body proper nourishment.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets actually do the work assigned to them. They relieve weak and overburdened stomachs of a great portion of digestive action. Their component parts are identical with those of the digestive fluids and secretions of the stomach and they simply take up the grind and carry on the work just the same as a good, strong, healthy stomach would do it.

On this account Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are perfectly natural in their action and effect. They do not cause any unnatural or violent disturbance in the stomach or bowels. They themselves digest the food and supply the system with all the nourishment contained in what is eaten and carry out Nature's plans for the sustenance and maintenance of the body.

How much more sensible is this method than that employed by many sufferers from weak stomachs. By this means body and brain get all the good, nutritious food they need and the man is properly nourished and equipped to carry on his work and perform his duties. He could not possibly be in proper working condition by starving himself or employing some new fangled, insufficient food that does not contain enough nutriment for a year-old baby. A strong man doing strong work must be properly fed and this applies to the brain as well as the body.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, by relieving the stomach of its work, enable it to recuperate and regain its normal health and strength. Nature repairs the worn and wasted tissues just as she heals and knits the bone of a broken limb, while his, of course, not used during the process of repair.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are for sale by all druggists at 50 cents a box and they are the one article that the druggist does not try to sell something in the place of that "just as good." Their unqualified merit and success and the universal demand for them has placed them within the reach of everyone.
